Proclamation!
By His Excellency Sir Charles Alexander Harris, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Commander of the Royal Victorian Order, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Dominion of Newfoundland.

Whereas by an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, entitled "The Prohibition of Intoxicating Liquors Act, 1915," and Acts in amendment thereto, it is provided that "The term 'Intoxicating Liquors' shall be construed to signify all ales, wines, malt, brewed or spirituous liquors containing two per cent. or upwards of alcohol in volume, and such medicinal, toilet and other preparations containing two per cent. or upwards of alcohol in volume, as may from time to time be directed by the Governor in Council by Proclamation, but not wines for sacramental purposes."

And whereas I deem it expedient that certain medicinal, toilet and other preparations shall be declared to be Intoxicating Liquors:

I do, therefore, by this my Proclamation, order and direct that on and after the first day of November next, the following medicinal, toilet, and other preparations shall be declared to be Intoxicating Liquors, namely:—

Florida Water;
Beef, Iron and Wine;
Wincarnis; and Ferrovin.

Of which all persons concerned are hereby required to take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at the Government House, St. John's, this 8th day of October, A.D. 1918.

By His Excellency's Command,
W. W. HALFYARD,
Colonial Secretary.
