Labradorite

Always we have prided ourselves on the quality of our Labradorite and refused to place on sale stones that did not do credit to the peculiar beauty that is its chief charm. We have now received the first samples of our new stock and they fulfil in every way our ideas of what Labradorite should really be like when made into jewellery.

Specially selected and extra well polished stones made into an assortment of Pendants—Bean, Oval and Square shape are the chief items in our new selection.

Kantleek Nipples

are the safest and best for your baby to use.

First—There are no seams or creases to gather impurities—the seamless construction takes care of that.

Second—They are made from pure gum rubber, and will outwear three ordinary nipples.

Third—Each nipple has three holes which ensures perfect feeding.

BOXING

SAYS HARRY WILLS IS NOT EVADING CANADIAN FIGHTER.

Paddy Mullins States That Negro Heavyweight Gladly will Box Renault in Garden.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. — Paddy Mullins who proved his wisdom as a manager of boxers by steering Harry Wills into a $150,000 purse for a bout with Luis Angel Firpo, is a silent man, but he did unburden himself of a large sized gob of words and phrases when the matter of a match between his battler and Jack Renault, burly Canadian, cropped up while Paddy was hanging around Madison Square Garden waiting to collect the final instalment of Wills's share of the proceeds of the recent big bout at Boyle's Thirty Acres.

"So Leo Flynn says that Wills is sidestepping Renault, does he?" rumbled Paddy. "Leo has another think coming on that. Just because we did not hop after the match at one of the baseball parks the middle of next month Leo is trying to make it appear that Harry is afraid of Renault."

"Now wouldn't we have been foolish to sign for a match with Renault in the middle of October. Why, it's not yet the end of September and already it is so cold at night that any attempt to stage an out-door show is folly. A Wills-Renault match is a big attraction and Harry and I have no intention of having it spoiled by offering it to the public some wintry night when only Eskimos would take a chance on attending."

"There is no need to rush this match. Wills offered to fight Renault several times, but Flynn always said he wasn't ready to send his man in with Harry. Well, it won't do Leo any harm to wait a bit. He made us do some waiting."

"As soon as Harry comes back from his vacation down in Virginia, which will be two or three weeks from now, we'll have a long talk and plan our campaign. I haven't talked fight with the big fellow since the Firpo affair. I went away from a few days after that bout and when I got back Harry was gone."

"But I know that if everything is made right for us Harry will be glad to take on Renault in the Garden this winter or else at some outdoor arena next summer as a warm up fight for a battle with Dempsey."

"Before the Firpo fight Harry told me that after he disposed of the South American he wanted to take a short rest and then go out and meet anybody the public cared to see him box. I don't think he has changed his mind. Harry convinced himself and convinced me by the ease with which he handled Firpo that there is nobody who can beat him out of his match with Dempsey. If we can pick up some money by fighting some of the would-be contenders between now and next summer, well and good. If not, Harry can afford to wait."

Those weren't Paddy's exact words perhaps, but that's the gist of what he had to say, and any one who knows him will have to admit that he set a new track record for himself in the matter of a flow of language when he got the above speech off his chest.

Mullins's remarks bear out the writer's supposition that Rickard and Wills tied up to box only for him in major bouts. Tex worked the same dodge on Firpo last year. When Rickard signed Wills last winter for a bout with Dempsey at some future date, it was reported that he had tied Wills to an agreement to box a couple of other bouts preliminary to a contest with the champion. The first of these preliminary affairs was the engagement with Firpo. The second probably will be a contest with Renault, either at Madison Square Garden this winter or at Boyle's Thirty Acres early next summer.
