

The Boston base ball club purposed a trip to England as something refreshing to the common.

"Grip."—Mr. T. J. Day has sent us Grip for this week. It contains a capital cartoon representing Blake taking an affectionate leave of Mackenzie, who is habituated as a house-keeper. George Brown stands by a watchful servant, with a broom in his hand.

There is a story of Judge Grier, which everybody delights, how he sat aside in the unjust verdict of a jury against an unpopular man, with this remark: "Enter the verdict, Mr. Clerk. Enter also, 'Set aside by the court.' I want it to be understood that I intend thirteen men to steal a man's farm in this court."

The champion office-holder of Florida is thus referred to by the Gainesville Era: "When Hon. L. G. Dennis left us for his Northern trip, to be absent several months, we lost in him our senator, county commissioner, board of instruction, deputy marshal, deputy sheriff, deputy county clerk, treasurer of school funds, custodian of county treasurer's books, senior constable, and acting mayor. Nearly all public business was suspended until his return."

A HIGHLY COLORED AFFAIR.—Under this heading the Brussels Post informs its readers that, owing to delay in the forwarding of its supply of white, it has been compelled to print a portion of the issue on tinted paper; and it adds: "We wish it, however, to be generally understood that although on this occasion we edit a colored newspaper we are not Ethiopians, nor are we in any way connected with Africa by descent."

Breakfast.—Epps's Cocoa.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which will save us many heavy doctors' bills."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labelled—"James Epps & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London."

This is indeed a book for every man, and thousands have been benefited by this work the true way to health and happiness. BEECHER remarks that you often see a man with a little bullet head, having a vigorous stomach to drive his body and brain, accomplish more than the big-headed man who makes a small quantity of blood, and that poor and thin. To enable mind and body to endure protracted mental and physical exertion, there must be perfect digestion and assimilation of food, and the formation of pure blood to vivify the organs and tissues. ## THOMAS' Eclectic Oil!

Worth Ten Times its Weight in Gold!
"Pain cannot stay where it is used."

There are but few preparations of medicine which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any great length of time. One of these is THOMAS' ECLECTIC OIL, purely a preparation of some of the best Oils that are known, each one possessing virtues of its own. Scientific physicians know that medicines may be formed of several ingredients in certain fixed proportions of greater power, and producing effects which could never result from the use of any one of them in different combinations. Thus in the preparation of this Oil a chemical change takes place, forming a compound which could not by any possibility be made from any other combination or proportions of the same ingredients, or any other ingredients, and entirely different from anything ever before made, one which produces the most astonishing results, and having a wider range of application than any medicine ever before discovered. It contains no alcohol or other ingredients, and its quantity loses nothing by evaporation. Wherever applied you get the benefit of every drop; whereas, with other preparations nearly all the alcohol is lost in that way, and you get only the small quantity of Oils which they contain.

Prepared by S. N. THOMAS, Phelps, N.Y., and NORTHROP & LYMAN, Newcastle, Ont., Sole agents for the Dominion of Ontario. Note—Eclectic—Selected and Electrical. Sold in Guelph by H. Harvey & Co., A. B. Petrie, McCullough & Moore, and all medicine dealers everywhere.
