Tragic Death of Luther McCarty Is Gone Over Again by Many Witnesses; Defense Endeaver to Question Thoroughness of Autopsy

TTORNEY A. L. SMITH for the defence scored several important points as a result of the continuation of the hearing see against Arthur Pelkey, the heavyweight boxer who is charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Luther McCarty at the Burns Arena, May 24.

During the course of the two long weary sessions yesterday, Attorney Smith succeeded in getting an admission from Dr. Merritt, who assisted in the autopsy, that he did not think that death was due to the formation of a blood clot caused by the subluxation of Journ cervical vertebra. He testified that the presence of blood is have been caused by the supture of some large blood vessel the fill mat know which one it was. Dr. Chambers, who was the third man at the post morten, stated positively that he did not think that death was due to a subluxation of the fourth vertebra and admitted that the theory of a spinal hemorrhage could be elim-

Joe Price, sporting editor of The Albertan, was then recalled to the stand to testify about the bandages used by Arthur Pelkey upon his hands. Mr Short was especially anytons to fire man's hands and the bandages that were around them. He was certain that there was no other substance.

Corp. Norman Augerman of the R.N.W.M.P., was the last witness called. He was examined as to the details of the bout. His description did not vary

Mr. Smith—That will do.
Mr. F. A. Schultz, advertising mander of The Mornins Albertan, was then called to the stand. He had with him topies of the stand he had with him topies of the stand. These wert submitted as evidence.

James M. N. Brown, a reporter on the same testing that the time of the contest, but was busy with the reception and could not see every move made. He timed that he saw several blows struck which were "rather hard.", but could not see every move made. He timed that he saw several blows struck which were "rather hard.", but could not see every move made. He timed that he saw several blows struck which were "rather hard.", but could not still be added to the contest.

Alexander Carr, assistant fire chief, was the next called by the crown. Mr. Carr had been at the contest and saw them struck. Upon cross-examination he stated: "I did not see any heavy blows. None of them would have had any effect upon me."

Mounted Police Attended.

Segretal Trimdle of the R.N.W.M.P. testified that he attended the bout.

NOTICE TO HOME BUILDERS Below You Will Find 10 REASONS Why Should Build Your Home In

PROPOSED RESIDENCE OF N. J. FLESHER AT LAKE VI EW HEIGHTS 1—Lake View Heights consists of 480 acres — 4,100 lots — the largest restricted residence property in Calgary.

2—Our restrictions protect you against any shack or business house adjoining your residence and obstructing your view.

3—Lake View Heights is positively the prettiest lying property in Calgary, gradually sloping toward the city. 4 Every lot is a view lot, overlooking the City and the Canadian Rockies in the background.

5—To every pair of lots we have set out three Russian Poplar shade trees, and the soil is there that will grow trees, and we are taking care of them and they are growing.
6—Lake View Park—Calgary's one and only boating place—is in the centre of Lake View Heights.

Lake View Heights.

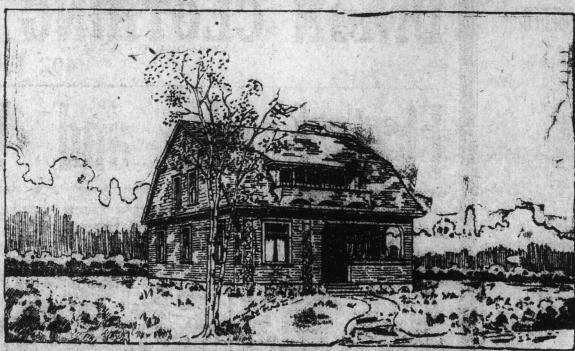

7—We are spending more money in Lake View Park than the City of Calgary is spending on all the other parks in the City.

8—Lake View Heights is entirely within the City limits, just 3 miles from the P. O. and is from 90 to 140 feet above the Bow River.

9—We will build an automobile drive—a hard rolled gravel road—from the Edmonton Trail to Lake View Heights, then entirely across the property and around the lake, which will be the only good drive in or around the City.

10—Lake View Heights is The Beauty Spot of Calgary and will be the Bon Ton residential section of the City.
