WOODSTOCK NOTES

Mr. Johny James of Hamilton, Ont. is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James of this city.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Dr. Leburitis is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morton were blessed with a fine baby boy. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Mrs. Horace Marshall Jr. and son, and Mrs. Sara Evans have been on the sick list.

Mr. Donald Anderson, of Grand Rapids, Mich. was called to Ingersoll through the illness of his brother. Before returning home he visited in Woodstock.

Mrs. M. Molock and children, Mrs. G. Cromwell and Master C. Cromwell have returned home after spending the past week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cromwell, Dundas St.

Rev. S. R. Drake and Mrs. Drake were in the city Sunday evening and preached a wonderful service.

Mrs. Horace Marshall Sr. spent the week end in Brantford visiting her sister, Mrs. Lucas and Mrs. Brown.

Mr. Will and Mr. Frank Taylor are spending the week end in Chatham.

Miss Selina Smith entertained on Sunday in honour of Miss Drake, who celebrated her 13 birthday a week ago.

EDMONTON NOTES

Three auto loads of our entertainers went to Bremner last Friday night and rendered a programme for the local U.F.A.

The Sunday services continue to be inspiring and well attended. The attendance at the Sunday School was the largest in its history last Sunday. The Teachers' Meetings are well attended and weekly drill is found to be very helpful.

Mrs. John Sayles had a fall in her back yard which for a time rendered her perfectly helpless. She is all right now.

The drama entitled, "The Ladies' Aid Meeting," given by the men was one of the most enjoyable programs ever given among us.

Professor Headman, a most proficient violinist from Grand Prairie, being in the city, kindly consented to give two numbers which were much appreciated.

Over $40.00 was raised through the concert.

For several weeks some persons have been making a close study of the economic situation among us, looking forward to launch some sort of a business endeavour, linking up with the homesteaders and the city. The prospects for such an enterprise seem good as the sponsors are most reliable and intelligent citizens.

Realizing the necessity of scientific industrial and agricultural instructions for the homesteaders and their families, the government has been approached with the proposition to bring our homesteaders such training. We are happy to say that the government authorities who have been interviewed look favourably upon the project and will make investigations looking to establishing such courses in these districts.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills have returned to Junkins, where they have a homestead.

Mrs. Roy Winn and children have moved to Drumheller to live with a brother-in-law while Roy is making an auto trip to Chicago.

At their meeting Monday night the trustees were much pleased to find that they were doing nicely financially and set the first Sunday in May as a Rally Day, it being the anniversary of the entrance into the little chapel.

CHATHAM NOTES

The Revival Meetings at the A.M.E. Church closed Sunday evening.

Mr. W. Brown in Public General Hospital is slowly improving.

Mr. R. A. Murphy went with a fishing party on Saturday evening and returned with a large number of choice fish which they caught at the Eau.

Mrs. Sam Lynn wishes to thank her many friends for their kindness during her recent illness.

Mr. Samuel Lynn is spending a few days at his home.

Mrs. Mary Davis, of Detroit, spent last Thursday with Mrs. S. Lynn.

Mr. William Anderson has returned after a two weeks visit in Detroit and other cities.

Mr. Horace Rogers, a grave-digger, at Maple Leaf Cemetery suffered a paralytic stroke Monday and is critically ill at his home.

Mr. Lewis Calendar has returned to Buffalo.

COLLINGWOOD NOTES

Mrs. J. A. Prentice entertained the Literary Society on Friday to a luncheon. About 30 guests were present and did justice to a dainty repast.

Mrs. Alex Cooper is spending a few days with her son, Mr. E. Rossiter, of Hamilton.

Miss Marguerite Sheffield is out again after her recent illness.

Little Lawrence Green is out again after his illness with the measles.

Aubrey Morrison is under the doctor's care suffering from bronchitis. We hope he will soon be around again.
