LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Newspaper advertising is the basis of many great fortunes, and is an indispensable feature of business prosperity. The man who spends large sums unsuccessfully in advertising must, therefore, look to his own methods or to the unattainability of the article he offers. It is too late, in the light of known results, to ask: Does advertising pay? If that question is put in a general way, the answer is emphatically, Yes! Look around you and note if this is not so.

—Miss Jane Coombs, one of the most beautiful actresses on the stage, will be at

THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE ON FRIDAY NIGHT.

The Cleveland Leader says: "Miss Coombs assumed the dual roles of Lady Dedlock and Hortense, and administered the conception, how faithful the production, only those who have seen it can testify. How singularly adapted this actress is to embody in face, form and features, the poet's description of this heroine. She has a beautiful face, fine bearing and exquisite grace. Her figure is elegant and has the effect of being tall. From this what transformation to the role of Hortense, the crafty, cunning, revengeful lady's maid."

Busy Ladies.

A sale of work was held yesterday afternoon and evening at the school house at the Church of St. John the Evangelist, under the auspices of the ladies of the Guild. A large number of the congregation was present on each occasion, and a most enjoyable afternoon and evening were spent. The various tables were presided over by the following ladies: Candies, Miss G. Imbach, Miss Van, Miss Bacon; refreshment table, Mrs. Thayer, Miss S. Bayly, Miss Lander, Mrs. Hudson, Miss Burwell; lace making, Mrs. Loughrey, Mrs. Smith; lace making, Mrs. St. John Hyttenrauch; fancy table, Mrs. Dampier, Mrs. Manigault, Miss Connor, Mrs. Cumplin. The proceedings were interspersed by the rendition of a short musical programme, vocal and instrumental. A satisfactory sum was realized, which will be applied to reducing the debt upon the school house.

Sunday School Entertainment.

Last evening an entertainment was given by the pupils of the St. James' Protestant Sunday school which was well attended by the older members of the congregation and the friends of the young people. Rev. M. P. Talling occupied the chair and introduced the following, who contributed recitations and songs: Bella Grant, John Macle Blackwell, Master Ramsey, Marchie Train, M. Omond, Roy Match, Lulu Melbourne, A. McKay, Annie McLean, Ethel McKay, Maud Blackwell, John McKay, Fred Shillington, Jennie Taylor, Jessie McNeil, Misses Cunnell and McNeil and Mr. Somerville.

Glencoe Independent Foresters.

Enthusiasm and interesting proceedings were the feature of the meeting of Court No. 66, Independent Order of Foresters, Glencoe, last evening, on the occasion of the official visit of Bro. C. C. Whaley, of Toronto, inspector for the Province of Ontario. A public lecture was given by that gentleman in the Town Hall, which was listened to with much attention throughout, and the audience appeared to be well satisfied with the practical and clear enunciations of the practical and economical workings of the order. Bro. R. W. Hickey, P.H.V.C.R., of Bothwell, was present and acted as chairman, and made a few remarks. The success of the I.O.F. has been phenomenal during the last decade, and there is no doubt but that public confidence in the order is increasing. A large number of new members were initiated into the order last night and went from here to Wingham.

Death of Mr. Roderick McKenzie.

With untimely news will learn of the death of Mr. Roderick McKenzie, which occurred yesterday afternoon. Mr. McKenzie, by his kind disposition and honorable business dealings, endeared himself to a large circle of friends. The deceased was born at Strathglass, Inverness-shire, Scotland, Feb. 11, 1829. He came to America in 1854 and spent one year in the United States, after which he settled in this city. He was employed by the late Simpson Smith for a number of years, and which he was eminently successful. He retired from business in 1883, since which time he has not led an active life. In their sad bereavement, Mr. McKenzie's family, consisting of his wife and three sons, felt sympathy of all. The funeral will take place from St. Peter's Cathedral tomorrow morning.

St. John's Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of St. John's Lodge, No. 20, A. F. & A. M., G. R. C., was held in the Masonic Temple last evening. The proceedings, which were of a very interesting and impressive nature, were watched by a large number of brethren. W. M. Bro. H. T. Ford presided, and among the members and past masters present were: V. W. Bro. J. Hook, R. W. Bro. Bonney, Duff, Stratford, Carrie, Greer, Elliott, Fairgrieve, Paul, Dickey, Shiner, Wilson, Dunn, Campbell, Brille and Carothers. When the election of officers came up W. Bro. Broderick and Carothers were selected as scrutineers. The following shows the result of the election, all the officers being re-elected: W. Bro. H. T. Ford, W. M.; Bro. John Smith, senior warden; Bro. Thomas Clark, junior warden; Bro. J. B. Hicks, chaplain; Bro. Geo. Shaw, treasurer; V. W. Bro. M. D. Dawson, secretary; Bro. J. Hood, Tyler; Bros. Macklin and Lowe, auditors; Bro. Geo. Shaw, representative to the Masonic Temple Company; W. Bro. A. B. Greer, representative to the Board of Benevolence. At the close of the lodge the brethren and visitors adjourned to the Revere House and partook of an oyster supper, which was followed by the customary complement of speeches and songs.

Temperance Women's Work.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. held yesterday afternoon opened with singing and prayer. A part of Ephesians was read and considered, each text being read in turn by the president, Mrs. Thornley, who called upon the members to contribute suggestions on the subject, children should obey their parents only in the Lord. A parental command contrary to the Divine command ought not to be regarded. Parents who provoke their children to wrath are reminded that it is as unjustifiable as for children to provoke their parents to wrath. "Servants obey your masters."

was made the basis for a discussion of the servant question, in which the general opinion seemed to be that the more considerate the treatment servants received, the more satisfactory were the returns made. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Report of special executive meeting was read. A number of names were nominated for membership, and the following new members were formally received: Mesdames Fitzgerald, Dixon, J. A. Nelles, C. H. Ingram, Vanstone, Tufts, Hayhurst, Frank Cooper, Hutton, Owey, Geo. Sanborn. Mrs. Sage, evangelistic worker, read her report, and made a plea for more assistants. She had 25 names on her list of helpers, but only six workers. Mrs. Jones read a brief report from the industrial school, and called for contributions from any lady so disposed for a Christmas entertainment for the children. Mrs. Slaght, in behalf of the hospital, made a similar request. The hospital is unusually full at present, and a tree would be much appreciated. The principal subject of discussion was the question as to whether the W. C. T. U. should continue to hold their meetings in its present rooms or procure a hall for their own exclusive use. An amendment to the principal motion was that the executive meeting of the W. C. T. U. should meet the executive meeting of the Y. W. C. T. U. and consult with them on the subject. A suggestion was made that a membership crusade day be appointed. It was decided that Jan. 8 be set apart for that purpose. Each member is expected to secure on that day at least one new signer of the pledge.
