ALFONSO IS RECKLESS

Escapades Alarmed Ministers But He Laughed at Them.

Madrid, Sept. 23.—His latest motor-ar accident has led to a discussion of Alfonso XIII.'s recklessness. Not is he an ardent motorist, but he rejoices in driving and riding the most fiery of steeds, and at San Sebastian he will swim far out without an es corting boat. Ministers and newspapers demand that King Alfonso shall cease to risk he once drove a racing Mercedes from Madrid to Toledo, beating the fastest Gen. Vilaverde, who exercised some control over the King, is dead, and Alfonso simply laughs at the present premier, whom, once or twice, he has taken for a motor-car ride, to the old gentleman's great fright. When the Queen-mother expostu-lates, Alfonso makes promises, but
