

London Advertiser.
 TWO EDITIONS DAILY - WEEKLY.
 TELEPHONE CALLS.
 Business Office 107
 Editorial Department 134
 Job Department 175
 LONDON, FRIDAY, JULY 21.

The Pacific Cable Conference

The Pacific cable conference, which is now sitting in London, is attended by representatives of the Governments of Canada, Australia, New Zealand and Great Britain. This imperial undertaking, about which so many roseate predictions were made, has not been a financial success. The actual cost of the cable, which runs some 8,000 nautical miles from Doubtless Bay, Queensland, to Bamfield Creek, British Columbia, was £1,750,000, which was met jointly by the Imperial and colonial governments. The purpose of the project was political—to link the mother country and the great self-governing colonies together by a cable system which touched only British soil—but the promoters were confident it would be a paying venture from the outset. The enterprise was completed against the powerful opposition of the Eastern Extension Cable Company, an English concern, which held a monopoly of cable communication with Australia. This company succeeded in greatly handicapping the Pacific cable by securing from the Government of New South Wales the privilege of using the land wires in that state—then a colony. The Government of New South Wales is justly accused of showing bad faith toward its partners in the Pacific cable project by allowing the Eastern monopoly to strengthen its grip on the cable business of Australia. In discussing the matter, Sir Wilfrid Laurier said in the House of Commons two years ago:

"We protested at the time, but when confederation of the Australian colonies came into effect it was too late to overcome the difficulty. The arrangement was made for an indefinite time. We think that this last arrangement would be more detrimental than the first. It must be evident that if, during ten years, the Eastern Telegraph Company have power to establish telegraph stations all over Australia at the end of the time they will have a practical monopoly and retain control of the whole business, and thus come in conflict with the Pacific cable."

The offensive ten-years' concession to the Eastern monopoly was approved by the Australian House of Representatives, but has not yet been ratified by the senate. The conference at London is now dealing with the problem, and the British, Canadian and New Zealand delegates will bring pressure to bear on the Australian Government to reconsider its action.

The Ingersoll Shooting.

It is to be hoped the crown authorities will not be influenced by sentimental appeals for the release of Mrs. Kyle, who is in Woodstock jail, awaiting preliminary examination for the killing of David Magee. Magee was a worthless character, and the woman claims she fired the revolver in defense of her honor, though with intent to frighten, not to kill or wound. Whether she aimed the weapon at Magee or not, no one but herself knows, but there can be no doubt that the ruffian terrorized her. The law, however, can take nothing for granted, and the machinery of justice must move in the regular way. It is better that one person should suffer for a short period than that the forms of law should be set aside, and the practice of using firearms or taking the law in one's own hands, even remotely countenanced. A word to the police would have stopped Magee's visits, which were repeated, according to Mrs. Kyle, against the protests of herself and her husband. There was not much danger that bodily harm could come to her in broad daylight with neighbors within call. The use of the revolver was unnecessary, but allowance can be made for the impulse of fright and terror. The taking of human life, under any circumstances, is a serious thing, much more serious than the temporary discomfort of any person, however innocent. Let the regular procedure be followed and the facts inquired into.

Up-to-Date Celestials.

Trade unionists can extract some comfort from an episode in Windsor, which revealed the Chinese in a new light. Two almond-eyed washboard artists, Lee Fong and Lee Sing, were haled before the magistrate for pummeling a brother laundryman, Si Ching, whose offense consisted in cutting prices below the scale fixed by the Celestial union. It was found that a cast-iron agreement existed, a penalty of $50 being attached to any violation, which sun Si Ching has been called upon to pay.

The Chinese are highly imitative, but the labor organizations object to them on the ground that they refuse to imitate the white man's standard of living. The Windsor Chinamen have shown an appreciation of trades union principles which indicates that the yellow men are not hopeless in this respect. With Japan a world power and China boycotting the United States, it may not always be possible to exclude the Asiatics from this continent as rigorously as at present. The labor organizations in self-defense may have to organize them into unions, as they did the Europeans who swarmed into the coal mines of Pennsylvania. The Windsor Chinamen have grasped the idea of combination, and if their countrymen in America are properly coached, the yellow peril may cease to terrify.

The Shipping Trust.

Uncle Sam prides himself, with some reason, on his superior shrewdness in driving a bargain, but in one case, at least, he was gold-bricked by John Bull. Two or three years ago Morgan's shipping trust was the bogy of many timid Britons, who saw in it the doom of British maritime supremacy. The American octopus had snatched Britannia's trident. Several of the oldest British trans-Atlantic steamship lines were absorbed in the Morgan merger, which represented $100,000,000 stock and $50,000,000 bonds. By and by the American people, who put up the money, realized that the promoters of the merger were the veriest land lubbers when it came to a deal in ships, and that the whole advantage of the bargain lay with the British shipowners who got three prices for their property. In the first year the trust managed to earn $355,000 over and above the interest on its bonds, but the statement for 1904 shows that the earnings fell $2,039,150 below the fixed charges. The British owners managed to unload their ships on the Morgan syndicate just as a period of prosperity was coming to a close. The ocean trade is now in an unprofitable condition, and the volume of new shipping has outstripped the prospect of near relief. All of which shows that experience is still an element in business success and that the British people have been in the shipping line a long time.

The Pacific cable, like the Intercolonial Railway, was a political project, with much the same financial result.

Wheat is heading out in the west, and the farmer chuckles, "Heads, I win."

Earl Grey gave the constitution a jolt by standing when he read the prorogation speech. Wouldn't it be fearful if there were no prorogation speech at all?

The British Government has been defeated again on a snap vote, but Premier Balfour shows true British pluck. He doesn't know when he's beaten.

The St. Petersburg Soviet declares that Russia is not yet defeated. Evidently the Japs will have to capture St. Petersburg before the Soviet gives in.

A thousand English girls are coming to Canada for domestic service. Perhaps they believe they will have more chance here of setting up house-keeping on their own account.

A deputation of Transvaal miners recently waited upon Lord Selbourne, the governor, and complained that the Chinese coolies were using bad language toward them. Lord Selbourne asked the deputation where the Chinese learned the objectionable language. Rather a poser, that!

The population of Fall River, the seat of the Massachusetts cotton industry, has dropped 6,000 in the past year, and there is a scarcity of labor in these cotton mills. The explanation given is that many operatives have gone to Canada, and between 2,000 and 3,000 have been lured to England! This is turning the tables, sure enough.

At the Ribbon Counter.
 [Washington Star.]
 Customer—Have you any Japanese colors?
 Salesman—What kind are they?
 Customer—Colors that won't run.

Striking.
 [Pick-Me-Up.]
 She—I'm glad to see that young Mr. Noodle and Tilly Sharp are going to make a match of it. He's got no head at all, but she's very clever.
 He—Well, that's all right. You can't expect a match to have two heads to it, anyway.

His Wife.
 [Arthur Munby.]
 This woman's soul and mine are one;
 One spirit, one career;
 Not only till the days are done
 Of our communion here;

But after, though we singly brave
 The passage perilous
 That small section of the grave
 Has room for both of us.

Both? We are as single life—
 And death itself shall spare
 The dust of husband and of wife
 That slowly mingles there.

One may go first, and one remain
 To wait a second call;
 But nothing now can make us twain,
 Whatever may befall;

For we have long since passed the bounds
 Of Self, of Time, of Space,
 And felt the freedom that surrounds
 Love's final dwelling place.

Maude Adams' Favorite Story.
 [Boston Herald.]
 This is said to be Maude Adams' favorite story: A colored "gentleman," name unknown, but called "Culpepper Pete," who, being enamored of some dusky maiden, and not having the courage to "pop" face to face, called up the house where she worked and asked for her over the telephone. When he got the proper party on the line he asked, "Is that Miss Johnson?" "Yes," said the dusky girl. "I've got a most important question to ask you," "Ya-as," "Will you marry me?" "Ya-as. Who is it, please?"

Wearing.
 [Browning's Magazine.]
 "He says a clever thing very often."
 "Yes, too often."
 "Certainly. One gets tired of hearing it."

Jumped at Conclusions.
 [New York Sun.]
 "I am always happiest when I am giving others happiness," she said.
 "Is that why you have quit taking vocal lessons?" he asked.

The Blue Scarecrow.
 [Philadelphia Bulletin.]
 The farmer's scarecrows were all garbed in blue.
 "A blue scarecrow," said the man,

"does more good than ten ordinary ones, for birds hate and fear blue as you and I hate and fear typhoid and consumption. A professor pointed out to me that blue was the thing for birds. At first I was unbelieving, but I experimented and found that professor to be right."

Non-Committal.
 [Harper's Weekly.]
 First Citizen—That new neighbor of ours, Mrs. Jones, seems an ill-natured sort.
 Second Citizen—How so?
 First Citizen—Why, I called her up on the telephone yesterday and asked her if she had any more of those new band saws staying, and she rang off without answering me.
 Second Citizen—I don't wonder—her's dead.

Out and In.
 [Philadelphia Ledger.]
 "Is Mr. Graph in?" asked the visitor.
 "He's out; but I guess he's in," replied the office boy.
 "What do you mean?"
 "He's left. Did he owe you money?"
 "Yes."
 "Well, you're left, too."

The Farmer's Mistake.
 [Cleveland Leader.]
 Farmer Fodderhucks—Well, them actresses is pretty, an' they're certainly rigged out scandalous enough for anybody, but I can't understand more'n half they say. They're all talkin' 'bout relief. All of which shows that experience is still an element in business success and that the British people have been in the shipping line a long time.

A Sorrowful Story.
 [Philadelphia Record.]
 A bachelor of forty grew tired of single life. He looked round a little and then annexed a wife. She was a type that's common, was very nice and prim, and filled with an ambition to have things neat for him.

And so, soon after marriage, he found his things arranged in a manner that soon appeared to him as a mystery. From which it's very certain his mode of life was changed. His clothes were in order; he found his slippers, too. With grateful ease at evening, when the repeat was through.

Upon his varied garments the buttons soon appeared to him as a mystery. He was with a frequent dusting his divers hats were changed. Oh, if I were to you the whole, 'twould take an age. And make these simple verses just o'er the seventh page!

But did the man enjoy it? Ah, no, I grieve to say. He peaked and pined most plainly, was very far from gay. The strange, unbroken neatness so wrought upon his mind, He died at six one evening, and left it all behind.

But ere he died he murmured to parties standing near: "I want this short inscription, and I want it chiseled clear: 'He had a wife whose goodness 'twas very hard to match. And yet she killed her husband with neatness—and dispatch!'"

Grabbed Him.
 [Cleveland Leader.]
 Mr. Soashist—Do you know anything about this co-operative housekeeping?
 Mrs. Elderleigh—Oh, John, this is so sudden!

Misled by the Sound.
 [Louisville Courier-Journal.]
 Farmer Geehaw—What's your gal doin' in the city?
 Farmer Giddap—Studyin' pyrography.
 Farmer Geehaw—Well, I'm glad to hear she's learnin' suthin' useful, Kin she make a first-class pie yet?

An Oldtime Garden.
 [Book News.]
 O for a garden of the old time,
 Where, none but long familiar flowers
 Grow,
 Where pebbled paths go winding to and fro,
 And honeysuckles over arbors climb;
 There would I have sweet magnolias
 And thyme,
 With hollyhocks and dahlias all a-row,
 The hyacinth inscribed with words of love,
 The small bluebell that beats a dainty chime
 For elm ears—and daffodils, too—
 The sleepy poppy—and the marigold—
 The peony, with petals manifold—
 And ragged robins, pink and white and blue.
 All these and more I'd have, and back
 To all
 A thousand roses on a mossy wall!

Learning Faith.
 [Chicago News.]
 "This paper says," remarked the callow youth, "that the bride was supported to the altar by her father."
 "Yes," growled the savage bachelor, "and I'm offerin' odds of 50 to 1 that he'll have to keep on supporting her."

Perfect Control.
 [Chicago News.]
 The Lady—Ah, my poor man, I am glad to hear you say you never miss a bit.
 Gritty George—No, I haven't taken one in ten years and I don't miss it a bit.

His Little Pleasantry.
 [Chicago Tribune.]
 "Now isn't—Isn't a river a curious thing, don't you know?" said Reggie.
 "Curious? Why, it's beautiful, if that's what you mean."
 "Ya-as—but it's so—impossible, don't you know?"
 "Impossible?"
 "Ya-as; its mouth is bigger than its head. Haw, haw!"

AFTER A NEW TRUTH
 Preacher Offers $100 for a New Theological Truth.
 Louisville, July 20.—The Rev. T. T. Eaton, in the Western Recorder of this week, has offered a reward of $100 to any man who will produce a single new truth in theology that has been produced since 1850.

In the announcement of the offer Dr. Eaton gives the following explanation: "We have been reading and hearing a great deal for some time past about the 'new truths' in theology that have recently been discovered. We are told to keep our minds open to new truths in religion. It is said that these 'new truths' require that we shall reconstruct our theological systems, so as to give these 'new truths' their proper place. And we have made an honest effort, stretching now through several years, to find out just what these 'new truths' are, but we have been utterly unable to get hold of a single one of them. We have written numerous letters of inquiry to many leaders of 'modern thought' who have much to say about these 'new truths,' but still we have not been able to elicit a single 'new truth' from any of them. We have read thousands of pages from authors full of talk about these 'new truths,' who deem of their value and importance, but somehow none of them ventures to name any of these alleged truths."

"Unwilling to abandon our search, though confessing to being somewhat discouraged, we have decided to adopt a new plan of procedure. So we here offer a reward of $100 to the one who will produce for us a single new truth in theology that has been discovered since, say, 1850. We will cheerfully give $100 to get hold of a new truth in theology, such as these writers delight to talk about, but which they are strangely unwilling to offer. We offer this reward in perfect good faith, and we will pay the money promptly on the presentation of the 'new truth' in theology, discovered since 1850."

WHITNEY MAY RESCIND BONUS
 Objects to G. T. Pacific Grant in Northern Ontario Declaration It Unnecessary.
 Toronto, July 21.—Hon. J. P. Whitney, in discussing yesterday the bill put through by the Provincial Government two years ago granting $200,000 and 1,200,000 acres of land to the Grand Trunk Pacific for the 200 miles of road west of Port Hope, strongly hinted that the Government would rescind this legislation at next session.

The provincial bonus to the Grand Trunk Pacific was awarded with the view of enabling the road to build a branch from the Government line southeast to Fort William, a distance of 200 miles. The bill which passed the House granted the railway $2,000 in cash and 6,000 acres of land for every mile of road built in constructing this branch. The accompanying resolution declared that the land might be given along the line of railway or in such other localities within the Province as might be designated by the commissioner of crown lands, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor. This clause, it is now charged, was omitted from the statute, leaving the railroad the privilege of picking and choosing what land they might desire either on the line of railroad or elsewhere.

It is agreed in the bill that "during the term of one year from the date of the filing in the department of crown lands of a map or plan showing the location of the line of railway, no lands shall be located or sold within a distance of eighteen miles on either side of the railway until the said blocks of land hereinbefore referred to have been set apart and reserved."

As a result of the latter clause it is now claimed that a district of 36 miles of the Grand Trunk Pacific line is closed to the settlement of 1,200,000 acres granted to the railroad, they have everything but the pine, minerals of all kinds and some timber. Until the company has definitely located the lands the opening up of a large tract is deferred.

Referring to this, Premier Whitney expressed strong opposition to the entire contract. He entertained the opinion that it was a wholesale frittering away of public land and that not one cent or an acre of land should have been granted, especially as the company would build a line through the district anyway.

PARADE BEFORE MARRIAGE
 Bride Delayed the Latter in Order to See the Former.
 Kalamazoo, Mich., July 21.—Not even the prospects of an immediate marriage could keep Mrs. Charles Smith from seeing the publicity of the wild west show. She said that the wedding could wait a few moments, but that the parade would go ahead, no matter how bad she wanted to see it.

Mrs. Smith was Mrs. Clara Rogusta Wednesday morning. Mrs. Rogusta Mr. Smith went to the county clerk's office and called Justice Mills to perform a marriage ceremony. As they were standing in front of the justice, she said she had begun to pronounce the marriage vows, they heard the band in the parade.

"Can't this marriage be put off for a few moments?" she wanted to see the parade," she asked, and at the same time stepped from her position in the parade.

TWO OPEN LETTERS
 IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN
 Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.
 It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.
 "I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful menstruation—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the womb. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not wish to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please send me Mrs. Mary Dimmick's Compound, Washington, D. C.
 Her second letter:
 Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
 I last wrote you, and said that the doctor I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice and carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them." Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 8th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.
 How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—"I saved her life!" Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of such letters as the above, and

WHITNEY MAY RESCIND BONUS

Objects to G. T. Pacific Grant in Northern Ontario Declaration It Unnecessary.

Toronto, July 21.—Hon. J. P. Whitney, in discussing yesterday the bill put through by the Provincial Government two years ago granting $200,000 and 1,200,000 acres of land to the Grand Trunk Pacific for the 200 miles of road west of Port Hope, strongly hinted that the Government would rescind this legislation at next session.

IMPERIAL OXFORD RANGE

has the most perfect oven and is the most promptly obedient, most economical and most satisfactory range.

There is a constructional reason for each of the many good points found exclusively in this range. For instance the splendid oven, which perhaps more than any other one feature has made the Imperial Oxford such a favorite, is the result of our Patent Diffusive Oven Flue. No other range has it.

Everything that sixty years of experience in range building could teach has been brought to perfection in the Imperial Oxford Range. The weight is there. It has the most perfect arrangement of draft dampers and flues. It has an accurate oven thermometer. It has our patent draw-out Duplex Grate. It has everything that can contribute to range perfection.

SEE IT. If your dealer cannot show it, write us direct and we will send you full particulars and the name of the nearest dealer who can.

People who prefer a Steel Plate Range will find the Oxford Chancellor as perfect in every way as such a range can be made. 1102

The Gurney Foundry Co., Limited
 Toronto Montreal Winnipeg Calgary Vancouver

For sale by GURLEY OXFORD STOVE STORE,
 W. C. Woods, Manager, 382 Richmond Street.

The Best Hot Weather Medicine
 SALE TEN MILLION BOXES A YEAR
Cascarets
 CANDY CATHARTIC
 THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP
 10c, 25c, 50c. All Druggists 707
 PREVENT ALL SUMMER BOWEL TROUBLES

THE EMPIRE ACCIDENT AND SURETY COMPANY

Incorporated by Special Act of Parliament of Canada.
 Authorized Capital, $1,000,000.00
 Subscribed Capital, 500,000.00
 Deposited as Security With Dominion Government, 80,000.00
 Licensed by Governments of Dominion, of Ontario and of Manitoba.
 Issues guarantee or surety bonds for fidelity of officers and employees of all kinds.
 By order of Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, Judges are authorized to accept its bonds as security for administrators of estates and guardians of infants.
 HEAD OFFICE—25 Masonic Temple, London, Canada.

HOLBROOK'S SAUCE

England's Most Famous Worcestershire.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick
 Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:
 "I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful menstruation—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the womb. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not wish to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please send me Mrs. Mary Dimmick's Compound, Washington, D. C.
 Her second letter:
 Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
 I last wrote you, and said that the doctor I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice and carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them." Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 8th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—"I saved her life!" Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of such letters as the above, and started for the door. "Why can't we be married right now and fix up the papers after the parade?" I think we had better have the ceremony right now."

 She replied, "No, Charlie, we will see the parade. Then we can get married. You don't see a wild west show every day and there is no use in letting this go by just to get married a minute sooner."

The prospective groom and the justice followed the woman to the steps of the court house and witnessed the parade. As the callopie was passing, Mrs. Rogusta said, "Now we will go back and have the ceremony finished."

PREVENT DISORDER.—At the first symptom of internal disorder, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills should be resorted to immediately. Two or three of these salutary pellets, taken before going to bed, followed by doses of one or two pills for two or three nights in succession, will serve as a preventive of attacks of dyspepsia and all the discomforts which follow in the train of that fell disorder. The means are simple when the way is known.

STEAMERS ARRIVED.
 July 20.—At New York—Baltic, from Liverpool.
 At Havre—La Savoie, from New York.
 At Liverpool—Majestic, from New York.
 At Naples—Princess Irene, from New York.

Thoroughly Satisfactory
 is the way every woman who has used the Imperial Oxford expresses her opinion.
 The unanimous verdict of over forty thousand Canadian homes is that the

IMPERIAL OXFORD RANGE

has the most perfect oven and is the most promptly obedient, most economical and most satisfactory range.

There is a constructional reason for each of the many good points found exclusively in this range. For instance the splendid oven, which perhaps more than any other one feature has made the Imperial Oxford such a favorite, is the result of our Patent Diffusive Oven Flue. No other range has it.

Everything that sixty years of experience in range building could teach has been brought to perfection in the Imperial Oxford Range. The weight is there. It has the most perfect arrangement of draft dampers and flues. It has an accurate oven thermometer. It has our patent draw-out Duplex Grate. It has everything that can contribute to range perfection.

SEE IT. If your dealer cannot show it, write us direct and we will send you full particulars and the name of the nearest dealer who can.

People who prefer a Steel Plate Range will find the Oxford Chancellor as perfect in every way as such a range can be made. 1102

The Gurney Foundry Co., Limited
 Toronto Montreal Winnipeg Calgary Vancouver

For sale by GURLEY OXFORD STOVE STORE,
 W. C. Woods, Manager, 382 Richmond Street.

The Best Hot Weather Medicine
 SALE TEN MILLION BOXES A YEAR
Cascarets
 CANDY CATHARTIC
 THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP
 10c, 25c, 50c. All Druggists 707
 PREVENT ALL SUMMER BOWEL TROUBLES

THE EMPIRE ACCIDENT AND SURETY COMPANY

Incorporated by Special Act of Parliament of Canada.
 Authorized Capital, $1,000,000.00
 Subscribed Capital, 500,000.00
 Deposited as Security With Dominion Government, 80,000.00
 Licensed by Governments of Dominion, of Ontario and of Manitoba.
 Issues guarantee or surety bonds for fidelity of officers and employees of all kinds.
 By order of Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, Judges are authorized to accept its bonds as security for administrators of estates and guardians of infants.
 HEAD OFFICE—25 Masonic Temple, London, Canada.

HOLBROOK'S SAUCE

England's Most Famous Worcestershire.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick
 Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:
 "I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful menstruation—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the womb. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not wish to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please send me Mrs. Mary Dimmick's Compound, Washington, D. C.
 Her second letter:
 Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
 I last wrote you, and said that the doctor I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice and carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them." Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 8th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—"I saved her life!" Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of such letters as the above, and started for the door. "Why can't we be married right now and fix up the papers after the parade?" I think we had better have the ceremony right now."

 She replied, "No, Charlie, we will see the parade. Then we can get married. You don't see a wild west show every day and there is no use in letting this go by just to get married a minute sooner."

The prospective groom and the justice followed the woman to the steps of the court house and witnessed the parade. As the callopie was passing, Mrs. Rogusta said, "Now we will go back and have the ceremony finished."

PREVENT DISORDER.—At the first symptom of internal disorder, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills should be resorted to immediately. Two or three of these salutary pellets, taken before going to bed, followed by doses of one or two pills for two or three nights in succession, will serve as a preventive of attacks of dyspepsia and all the discomforts which follow in the train of that fell disorder. The means are simple when the way is known.

STEAMERS ARRIVED.
 July 20.—At New York—Baltic, from Liverpool.
 At Havre—La Savoie, from New York.
 At Liverpool—Majestic, from New York.
 At Naples—Princess Irene, from New York.

Use "Maple Leaf" The Best CANNED SALMON Packed

Michigan Central

The Niagara Falls Route
 City Office, 235 Richmond Street.
 Phone 206.

Travel—In Comfort
 Via—The Six-track Trunk Line
 Through—The Mohawk Valley
 Along—The Historic Hudson

Into the Heart of New York City.

Two hours quicker than any other route.
 THOMAS EVANS, C. P. & T. A., London.
 O. W. RUGGLES, G. P. & T. A., Chicago.

A Cool Breeze Cheap

Off Lake Erie,
 Port Stanley.

EVERY DAY 30 CENTS RETURN

Six trains every day.

Pere Marquette R. R.

OVER THE Wabash System