Preached in St. James Church, South London, on Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Southam, of All Saints' Church, Toronto, preached special anniversary sermons in S. James' Anglican Church, South London, yesterday. Both morning and evening services were largely attended. The musical part of the service, which was under the direction of Mr. Charles Percy, was unusually pleasing and attract-

Rev. Mr. Southam said in part: "We should observe the unity of our work. The parish is as much a part of the divine plan as is China, nor is China less important than the work at home.
