Orders Moving Picture Man To Leave.

San Francisco, April 20. Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion, who will next Saturday complete a 25-day sentence in the county jail for reckless automobile speeding, is suffering from an acute attack of stomach trouble. The big fellow has been con-fined to his bed in cell 43 for the past

"It was that big dinner I didn't get on Easter that caused it," declared Johnson today. "The judge told me I would be paroled on Sunday, and af-ter I had made all arrangements for big celebration the sheriff said he ould not stand for any such orders While the champion's condition is ot serious, it isn't likely he will do

Mr. Scheutz, of Troy, and tonight at their store he will put on a window demonstration by which the public will be shown the "inside" as well as the "outside of Twentieth Century Clothes. For some time Londoners have known that the outward appearance of these clothes was equal to the best, but tonight they will be shown just why the fit is there; why the form is maintained; why the lapel lies properly; why the sleeves hang correctly; in fact, why Twentieth Century Clothes are superlor.

Clothes are superior.

In this way Messrs, R. H. and J. Dowler demonstrate their different styles, and show not only what the suits look like, but also how they are made so that they will look right.

Outguessing the Batters.

Christy Mathewson has outguessed more batters than any other pitcher in baseball. His percentage of victories is .689 for the ten years he has pitched for the New York Glants.

Certainly, he ought to know how to outguess a batter. He has written an entertaining story of how he does it— how he has outguessed some famous batters. He tells about the "change of pace," and the battle of wits between a pitcher and
