The Saginaw Aces 1 elped themselves to the last game of the series here The Saginaw Aces I wiped themselves to the last game of the series here yesterday afternoon by a score of 7—2.

No tear-streaked faces were discernible around the visiting dugout at the propect of leaving the Lo hysterical at times during they were in the process of the proce

It was largely owing to Gillenwa ter, now considered one of the best Ace mound bets, that the ocal i arnstor mers were kept well dampened down, for he held them to eight wid bly-sep arated knocks, and none more than the regulation size. Ole Mississi p was well satisfied with his London berth, except on very cold days. His loyalty to the London club really got him into the mix up which ultimately meant his going to Grand Rapids—and the aftervagary of Preside it Maines.

The worst London fans wish Crich, is that he'll meet no De Lave's in the Central League.

No Misplays at All. Both teams again turned in a per-fect fielding day, the Aces having a nice comfortable margin on the speed in which they worked. In fact, it was "his speed and a few features tucked in, that stopped a couple of feeble at tempts by the Tecs, and one honest-togoodness effort in the sixth.

Just at this point, Gillenwater, after whiffing Burman, for some unknown reason started to get near the boiling point and walked Carmen, and hit Van. dyke. Shay injected a hit to right here, scoring Carmen, and then Stutz was Gillenwater saved himself boiling over when Schaefer sent one down straight at him that gave him the choice to get Vandyke at the plate, which he did, but he was still in plate, which he did, but he was still in plate, which he did, but he was still in danger of the altitude when Malmquest faced him. It's a situation where sillent Walter is apt to break out into conversation, and he did with a smashing liner toward second. Dick Dodson, seeing he couldn't get anything worse than a bad fall, went up after it and speared it with one hand, much to the discomfiture of the London clan. The locals gathered another in the eighth, when Vandyke singled to center, achieved second on a passed ball, third on a caught foul, and home on Stutz's single. Schaefer walked, and with stutz, pulled a double steal, but the punch weakened when Malmquest whiffed, and Johnny Murphy made a sizzling fast pick-up of Kuhn's hot grounder. Much Trippling.

Triples punctuated the first four runs the Aces got. In the first irame, Murphy, who was on by virtue of his tohice, which killed Pike off at second, stole second and came in on a smash stole second and came in on a smash Nesser directed towards Shay. The sea lion went around on Kirby's triple to right which followed. There were ragged edges to the Aces' eighth. Kirby grounded safe to Stutz: Dodson flied out, and Wright Walked. So also did Shaw. Gillenwater drove in his second run with a high sacrifice fly to center. In the ninth Johnny Murphy singled, and went to second when Ted Anderson's fly was allowed to drop unmolested between short field and center. Carmen filled the bags, walking Kirby and Dodson with two gone. Wright's choice right into Stutz's mitt caught anderson off third. off third. The score:
