Next in importance is the Grand Union Hotel stakes, at six furlongs, for a guaranteed purse of $10,000. Moral guaranteed purse the great Runstar, who, like Morvich, is a son of A. B. Spreckels' famous thoroughbred sire, Runnymede, and by many thought to be the better of the western pair. Opposing him today will be the Ranocea stable's William A. Kai-Sang, and possibly Little Chief, the highly-regarded My Play, Admiral Grayson's imported colt, Star Jester, as well as Column, Sweep By, Oceanic, Oilman, and Harry Payne Whitney's vastly improved Whiskaway, which will likely run coupled with either Olumpus or Bunting.

The Grand Union should prove an excellent elimination contest, and definitely uncover the real contender for Morvich's 2-year-old crown.

For the lovers of steeplechasing, and their number is legend in this part of the country, the Saratoga Association is offering as an added attraction on today's card the 1921 renewal of the Beverwyck steeplechase handicap at about two miles. Many famous timber-toppers of the past have had their names enrolled as winners of this time-honored obstacle race, but it's doubtful if John Nixon's Llon Heart, F. R. & T. Hitchrock's Rheinstrom, M. J. Maloney's George Jenkins, T. Hitchcock's Bayonet, E. M. Weld's Weldship of J. N. He is numbered among the likely starters in today's timber-topping event, as is also Soumangha, which raced Sweepment to such a sensationally close finish only a few days ago.

All in all, it should prove to be Saratoga's red-letter day of racing, with the champion 3-year-old, the supreme nabob of the steenlechasars.

BLOCK SPURNS $15,000 FOR MOR-VICH.

Kinglike EW YORK, Aug. 20. - Benjamin NEW YORK, Aug. 20. — Benjamin Block, Wall street operator and owner of the sterling colt Morvich, winner of the rich Saratoga Special, today refused an offer of $125,000 for the son of Runrymede—Hymir. Confirming the report, Block stated that the colt was not for sale. However, it is reported that a syndicate of eastern sportsmen, including Harry Sinclair have authorincluding Harry Sinclair, have authorized Samuel Hildreth to offer $150,000. Morvich, which may or may not prove the 2-year-old sensation of the year, has enjoyed more or less of a conspicuous place in racing's limelight. The strapping son of Runnymede was forought east from the Spreckels farm by Trainer William Carroll and was seen under colors for the first time at Jamaica. On this occasion Carroll advised his friends that the colt was "no account," with the result that Norvich won his initial start with 50 to 1 posted against his chances. That same night Carroll sold his charge to Max Hirsch for $4,500. The latter considered Morvich only a moderate plater, and turned the colt over to Trainer Burlew, who handles him for Block. In expert circles there seems to be a well-defined opinion that Block should have accepted the offer of $125,000. These argue that "the way the race was run," Whiskaway, who finished third, showed by far the best performance. There is no gainsaying the fit that the Whitney representative in the first time of the colt wan." > SARNIA, Aug. 21.—The cards were stacked against "Buck" Winters at Athletic Park here Saturday afternoon. when he was worsted in a fourteen-inning pitching duel, Wesley and Noonan opposing him for the Brants. Winters held the visitors to nine hits and did not walk a man, uncertain work of his cast at critical moments spelling the Huron's downfall for the second consecutive time. Practically every error of the Hurons were instrumental in a score, the Brant boots coming at > times when no danger was done. The fielding feature was "Babe" Dye's per-fect peg to the plate to catch Bill Kelly in the fourth. The Hurons led until the eighth, when a hit batsman, Wenstrom's double, Werre's single and Maloney's error tied it up. Both teams went down the stretch to the fourteenth, when Umps Glenalvin called Reecher's long drive which landed outside the foul line right field fair and Maloney made mess of Noonan's roller by second allowing the fielder to follow Cully across the plate.
