Brantford, April 15.—Rhubarb appeared for the first time this season on the local market Saturday morning. It showed evidence of the cellar and the greenhouse corners, but was, nevertaless, a welcome sign of spring, and was eagerly bought up. Other greenhouse stuff was offered, and apples were most abundant. Eggs were prices at about the same as last week, three figures being named. 28c, 39c and 35c a dozen. Other prices, both in the vegetable market and the meat stalls, remained practically the same as last week. Maple syrup, which was very abundant, was down in price, 32 a gallon being asked, instead of 34 as last week. Veal was down both by the carcass and by the pound, with all other meats stationary. Potatoes kept up, with a few sellers asking but 31 a bag; the most guoted price being size.

INGERSOLL.

Ingersoil, April 15.—That there had been much activity in the neighboring bushes during the week was evidenced by the large quantities of maple syrup effered on the market Saturday. The supply was larger than anticipated in view of the backward weather, and the demand was very keen. The price ranged from $2.80 to $3 per gallon. One vendor dropped the price and disposed of his supply in no time. Eggs were plentiful, and the price ranged from 40c to 52c per pound.

OWEN SOUND.

Owen Sound, April 15. — The local market yesterday was the best for many weeks. The square was practically covered with produce, but prices remained much the same as last week. Butter sold at 42c pound; eggs at 25c to 26c. Owing to the bad roads, grain was scarce. Wheat was $1.05; oats, 50c to 52c; barley, 55c to 60c; peas, small, $1.35 to $1.40, large $1.50 to $1.75. Potatoes were sold at 50c bag.

TILLSONBURG.
Tillsonburg, April 15.—Business at the local market was brisker on Saturday than for many weeks past, and ready sale was found for all the offerings. Despite reports that maple syrup was very scarce, the offerings were equal to the last few years, and found ready sale at $3 per gallon. Potatoes were $1.25 per bag; onlons, $1 bushel; cheese, 30c to 35c; live hogs, $10 to $10.25 cwt.; dairy butter, 46c to 49c; creamery butter, 50c to 53c; eggs, 25c dozen; flour, $4.25; feed flour, $2.25; shorts, $35 ton; bran, $33 ton; barley, 60c bushel; oats, 65c bushel; wheat, $1.15 bushel. bushel, while barley sold at 60c to 65c a bushel. St. Marys.

St. Marys, April 14.—By the looks of the rather backward weather which has been quite prevalent of late in this locality, seeding will not start for some weeks yet. The unsettled condition of the weather in respect to the farmer has a tendency to make trade somewhat backward in many respects.

Creamery butter, according to prominent St. Marys creamery men, is on a gradual downward trend. The selling price this week is 50c, a somewhat lower quotation than a week ago. This has also affected dairy butter, which varies from 40c to 45c.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, April 15. — Maple syrup featured the Saturday market. It is many seasons since such a large offerings has been made locally. The farmers claimed that weather conditions were splendid for big sap runs during the week, and that farmers owning maple woods would reap a good harvest. The price was $3 per gallon, and one farmer claimed that he made 40 gallons in two days, netting him $120 for his labor. Eggs were plentiful, but the price remained at 26c to 28c a dozen. At the egg circle the patrons received 27c a dozen. Butter was easier and could be obtained at 50c a pound.

Italian Premier Declares His Country Badly In Need of Both.

DISCUSSES PLANS

Claims Real Peace Must Begin At the Lausanne Conference.

By WYTHE WILLIAMS.
Special Cable to The London Advertiser and The Philadelphia Public Ledger. Rome, April 16.-Benito Mussolini premier and dictator of Italy, has given The Advertiser Service the first interview he has accorded to the ST. THOMAS.

St. Thomas, April 14.—The attendance at the local market Saturday was not large, but the buying was brick.

Eggs were plentiful, and could be procured for 28 cents a dozen, while butter ranged in price from 50c to 55c a pound. Quite a number of chickens were to be seen, selling at 32c to 35c per pound.

Maple syrup, which was on sale at all vendors, sold at $2.75 to $3.50 per gallon. Vegetables were comparatively foreign press since he has becom received by the premier in his private workroom in the foreign office-a great salon, full 30 yards fro mcorner a peck. Apples brought see and see a peck.

Meat prices were about the same as last week. Beef sold at 10c and 18c a pound; veal chops at 20c, and other portions at 15c per pound. Bacon brought 24c, and pork loins 30c a pound.

Wood was selling at $4.75 a cord. to corner. Mussolini discarded entirely the reserve which has characterized him lately, and answered all questions with a frankness seldom found in European premiers. At the outset he declared he was pleased to talk for such an important clientele as the newspapers which publish the cabled despatches of The Advertiser News Service, and placed no restriction of publication on anything he said subsequently. He spoke for the most part in French, but occasionally changed in perfectly good English—

WATFORD.

Watford, April 14.—The market prices this week are as follows:

Grains—Prices in all lines have remained stationary throughout the week, quotations being as follows: Wheat $1.10 per bushel: oats 45c per bushel; barley 55c per bushel. The foregoing are wholesale prices, and the following are retail prices: Bran $29 per ton, $1.45 per cwt.; shorts $31 per ton, $1.55 per cwt.; middlings $35 per ton, $1.75 per cwt.: feed flour $42 to $45 per ton, $2.10 to $2.25 per this I shall insist. Here in Italy I represent neither a nationalist reaction nor a swing to he left. I intend that both capital and labor shall be satisfied; one is as feed important as the other. We must keep both and both must be agree-However, this cannot be accomplished by cheap politicians or noisy and oftentimes crooked par-liaments. One must really love one's week, the present prices being 23c to 24c liaments. One must really love one's per dozen wholesale, and 26c per dozen country and have proper respect for world progress in Butter is down a little wholesale, but not enough to affect retail prices, to-day's quotations being 42c to 45c per pound wholesale and 48c to 50c per pound retail. Creamery butter retails at 55c per pound.

Cheese—Wholesale prices for cheese have dropped several cents, but retail prices are at present unchanged the prices are at prices at prices are at prices are at prices at prices are such things. Fascism was conceived is foreshadowed.

Maple syrup is being offered on the market, and is of a good quality. Grain would not hurt the world for it now seeks the medium and moderate path in which everyone will find his just reward, for his intelligence as well as for his toil. But neither Italy nor I have dreams of conquest, thank you, for we have quite enough to at-tend to at home. In dealing with our neighbors we will only put ourselves n a position to be firm and thereby secure proper respect.

The charge preferred against a member of Lutvak's family of selling intoxicants was also dismissed, as the crown had not proved that there had been a sale.

After the dismissal of the Lutvak charges, Joseph Cridland, proprietor of the Western Hotel, city, on whose information the main charge was laid, appeared in court and paid a fine of $200 and costs on conviction liquor in a place other than a private dwelling.
Cridland's Hotel was searched by Chief Armstrong and Detective Mc-Culley in March and a small quantity of liquor and two empty gallon liquor jars found.

Claims Liquor Sold.

Cridland swore that he had bought the jars, filled with whiskey, from Lutvak, and that it had been delivered to his hotel one evening between February 1 and 5. His evidence was corroborated by that of M. Hardacre, a coal driver who swore that he had seen Lutvak deliever the two jars to Cridland in the hotel on February 2.

Appeals To City Residents To Be Fair With Farmer.

Upholding the ocupational form of government and declaring that everyof the executive, committees and one should indorse the farmer in politeam captains Saturday, predicted tics, the Rev. W. R. McIntosh, in the $125,000 objective for 1923 would speaking at the King Street Presbyterian Church last night, said that The fund's total is now $116,132, he could see no reason why London additional checks having come in shouldn't have a farmer candidate "In the western provinces it is different," the minister stated, "the that full payment of expenses for the businessmen out there realize the fourteen organizations for whose value of the farmer as a parliamentary representative. It should be the same in this city.

Holds Center of Stage.

"The U. F. O. holds the center of the stage at the present time. Everybody knows that. A bombshell has burst in the camp and a crisis has been precipitated among the United Farmers of Ontario with the result that a political campaign and an election will be called prematurely.

"I want to take this opportunity pay my compliments to the farmers of Ontario, and in fair criticism It was strange, Mr. McIntosh said that agriculture of all vocations nized politically.

"Agriculture is the basic industry of the country," the speaker continued, "and we should never speak contemptuously about the farmer. On the other hand we should hold him in high esteem and bend every effort ewards gaining for him further hon-We talk about honoring teachers: there is no reason why farmers should not be treated in the same way.' Big Wages Inducement.

"Our people have been going to Detroit to live and now the farmers are going there. Big wages is the inducement and the wretched prices here causes people to leave the country. City people ought to try and be fair with the farmer and appreciate
