

Mr. Martin's Cold Reception

East Lillooet Regards Him With Curiosity But Is Not Cordial.

Mr. Eberts on the Other Hand Makes a Splendid Impression.

From far and near the electorate of East Lillooet crowded into Clinton on Monday evening, on politics latent.

Mr. Martin's meeting had been widely advertised, and his past career together with the fact that it was his first visit to the district, made many curious to see and hear "Fighting Joe."

And so they came and saw and listened to his two-hour speech. They gave him a good hearing, but they did not appear to find much pleasure in it.

On the part of the Premier a like chilliness was even more noticeable. The Premier was not in the mood for the month's campaigning, or it may be the many repulses and disappointments of his tour—appeared to have severely taxed the energies of the quondam Premier.

When with his chairman, Schoolmaster Slater, he walked up the aisle, people stared the stare of the curious, but there was little of admiration mixed with respect.

With Mr. Eberts matters went far differently. He was well known, and entering with Messrs. Prentice and Stoddart, was given a rousing cheer of recognition and welcome.

Mr. Eberts then outlined the measures taken in the past regarding this matter from the well known and well liked Premier, and that of the 28th of April last when the Governor-General of Canada had vetoed the provincial statute.

Mr. Eberts then outlined the measures taken in the past regarding this matter from the well known and well liked Premier, and that of the 28th of April last when the Governor-General of Canada had vetoed the provincial statute.

Mr. Eberts then outlined the measures taken in the past regarding this matter from the well known and well liked Premier, and that of the 28th of April last when the Governor-General of Canada had vetoed the provincial statute.

Mr. Eberts then outlined the measures taken in the past regarding this matter from the well known and well liked Premier, and that of the 28th of April last when the Governor-General of Canada had vetoed the provincial statute.

Mr. Eberts then outlined the measures taken in the past regarding this matter from the well known and well liked Premier, and that of the 28th of April last when the Governor-General of Canada had vetoed the provincial statute.

pleased too at the careful and considerate hearing that they had all given to the Premier. They had listened patiently to his views in spite of the undoubted fact that none of them believed in Mr. Martin.

Regarding the Labor Act, as Mr. Martin had said, it was passed during the Turner regime. At that time there was a demonstration of Chinese strikers and plucky little Japan had arisen and declared herself the ally of old England.

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

and even after some of them had been put in writing. These expressions of opinion were ready to take away its representation from the constituency of East Lillooet as appears from his remarks upon the Redistribution Bill of last session.

Having noticed what he promises, and what he has done, continued Mr. Eberts following but is yet strikingly to the end. He is no Ryder Haggar but he is indeed a Haggard Rider. He is trying to persuade you all that he is the heaven-born man sent from the East to bring good tidings out of what you all well know, that he is not the man for British Columbia.

Mr. Eberts then sat down again, and to the applause of the crowd that for nearly two hours had listened to him with deep and interested attention.

Mr. Eberts then sat down again, and to the applause of the crowd that for nearly two hours had listened to him with deep and interested attention.

Mr. Eberts then sat down again, and to the applause of the crowd that for nearly two hours had listened to him with deep and interested attention.

Mr. Eberts then sat down again, and to the applause of the crowd that for nearly two hours had listened to him with deep and interested attention.

Mr. Eberts then sat down again, and to the applause of the crowd that for nearly two hours had listened to him with deep and interested attention.

Mr. Eberts then sat down again, and to the applause of the crowd that for nearly two hours had listened to him with deep and interested attention.

Mr. Eberts then sat down again, and to the applause of the crowd that for nearly two hours had listened to him with deep and interested attention.

Mr. Eberts then sat down again, and to the applause of the crowd that for nearly two hours had listened to him with deep and interested attention.

Mr. Eberts then sat down again, and to the applause of the crowd that for nearly two hours had listened to him with deep and interested attention.

Mr. Eberts then sat down again, and to the applause of the crowd that for nearly two hours had listened to him with deep and interested attention.

Mr. Eberts then sat down again, and to the applause of the crowd that for nearly two hours had listened to him with deep and interested attention.

rate round a bush. "I said that hunting under fire is not a desirable thing to do. I believe drivers have now. No, not one!"

"Were they cockneys, by any chance, Dinnes?" I asked. "Down the road, W. W. come from St. John's Wood, London, N."

The text and the orderlies grieved when Dinnes left, for he had great authority and most persuasive tact. Now, Derby, of the Inniskilling, had no authority. He lived on his tongue and his skill in outflanking orderlies. Derby got it in the leg and hopped like a cock-robin in scarlet flannel between the tents.

A visitor came by with pipes and tobacco for the men, and Derby steered him toward snare-eggs. "Do you want to buy a pipe?" said Derby, with a serious face. "They're only threepence, down the road, W. W. come from St. John's Wood, London, N."

The twine are not on their feet yet. They are both Australians, both have broken legs, they live like this, their other's tallest year. A few days back talk turned on what black fellows could do with a boomerang.

A Fusilier cut to pieces with barbed wire, a Ninth Lancer, and a West Yorkshireman told the twins to draw it mild. In the end, the twins were left with a few days' work, and a Canadian went to the front. Entered then from another tent convalescent Mac, of Manitoba, hit the ground with a groan.

So, under the pines planted in South Africa by men from the north, Welshmen, tyke, cockney, and Canadian bent their backs to the work. A few days back talk turned on what black fellows could do with a boomerang.

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

band has on many occasions of public rejoicing under the name of the "Victoria Band." It is a band of twelve men, frequently given its services gratuitously to many charitable organizations.

On the occasion of the Strathcona resolution, for the celebration of the surrender of the city, the band was called upon to play for the public meeting in the theatre on the occasion of the Strathcona resolution.

The band was called upon to play for the public meeting in the theatre on the occasion of the Strathcona resolution, for the celebration of the surrender of the city.

The band was called upon to play for the public meeting in the theatre on the occasion of the Strathcona resolution, for the celebration of the surrender of the city.

The band was called upon to play for the public meeting in the theatre on the occasion of the Strathcona resolution, for the celebration of the surrender of the city.

The band was called upon to play for the public meeting in the theatre on the occasion of the Strathcona resolution, for the celebration of the surrender of the city.

The band was called upon to play for the public meeting in the theatre on the occasion of the Strathcona resolution, for the celebration of the surrender of the city.

The band was called upon to play for the public meeting in the theatre on the occasion of the Strathcona resolution, for the celebration of the surrender of the city.

The band was called upon to play for the public meeting in the theatre on the occasion of the Strathcona resolution, for the celebration of the surrender of the city.

The band was called upon to play for the public meeting in the theatre on the occasion of the Strathcona resolution, for the celebration of the surrender of the city.

The band was called upon to play for the public meeting in the theatre on the occasion of the Strathcona resolution, for the celebration of the surrender of the city.

The band was called upon to play for the public meeting in the theatre on the occasion of the Strathcona resolution, for the celebration of the surrender of the city.

The band was called upon to play for the public meeting in the theatre on the occasion of the Strathcona resolution, for the celebration of the surrender of the city.

Our Mail Order Department.

This is a special feature of our business. All orders are executed with care and promptness thus avoiding any mistakes.

All goods invoiced at the lowest possible price on day of shipment. Be sure to send enough money as it is an easy matter to return any sum that is over.

Our Terms—Cash With Order. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED. Write for Prices.

Dixie H. Ross & Co.

COFFEES DISCRIMINATING BUYERS SPICES

Will find it profitable to handle only the best in.

COFFEES PURE SPICES and PURE BAKING POWDER HIGHEST STANDARD GUARANTEED

STEMLER & EARLE, IMPORTERS AND MANUFACTURERS VICTORIA HEAD OFFICE:—Thomas Earle, 92, 94 and 97, Wharf St., Victoria, B.C.

TO OUR PATRONS

LAST YEAR we had such a demand for our seeds that we were SOLD OUT before the season was fairly over. Therefore we start THIS YEAR with a FRESH, CLEAN and NEW CROP.

SEEDS

Everything warranted to be such and true to name. We keep the CHOICEST and CLEANEST stocks of goods on the Coast. Wholesale price list now ready to write for. Thanking you for your kind patronage, we hope to be favored with YOUR BIG ORDERS in the future, we are, yours very truly,

THE BRAKMAN-KER MILLING CO., Ltd.

JOHN JAMESON B.C. Year Book

and SONS (DUBLIN) "Own cased" very old Black Bottle

WHISKEY

Please see you get it with METAL CAPSULES

Blue One Star

Gold Three Star

Of all dealers

Sole export bottling agents for J. J. & S. E. C. DAY & CO. London

APIOL & STEEL

A REMEDY FOR IRREGULARITIES

Superseding Bitter Apple, Pfl. Cochin, Sarsaparilla, etc.

Order of all Chemists, or post free for $1.00 from EVANS & SONS, LTD., Victoria, B.C.

WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT.

Metecological Office

May 16th to 16th, 1906.

During the week the weather throughout the western portion of the province and in Cariboo was exceptionally cloudy and showery.

At Victoria there was only 14 hours and 24 minutes bright sunshine recorded, and 35 inch of rain which fell upon six days out of the seven; the highest temperature, 68, occurred on the 15th, and the lowest 48, on the 12th.

New Westminster reported an inch of rain, 36 in; the highest temperature was 62, on the 11th; and the lowest 44 on the 12th.

At Kamloops 18 in. rain fell; and the highest temperature was 74, on the 15th; and the lowest 48, on the 14th.

At Barkerville nearly as much rain fell as at New Westminster, viz., 32 in.; the highest temperature was 62, on the 10th; and the lowest was 30, on the 9th.

BORN.

FAIRCLOUGH—To the wife of Samuel Fairclough, Union Bay, North Saanich, on the 15th inst., a daughter.

MACAULAY—On the 13th inst., the wife of H. C. Macaulay, of a daughter.

MARRIED.

STEPHEN WEBSTER—At Seattle, Wash., on May 9th, by Rev. F. Damon, Frederick John Webster, of Seattle, and Mary Johnston, third daughter of William Webster, of Victoria, B. C.

DIED.

FAGAN—At St. Joseph's hospital on the 14th inst., Mrs. G. Fagan, the beloved wife of Gerald Fagan, of Wellington, B. C., aged 45 years.

TAYLOR—At No. 10 Bridge street, on the 15th inst., Roland Herbert, infant son of Mr. Frank Taylor, aged two years and ten months.

BICKINGHAM—In San Francisco, May 4, George beloved husband of Adele Beckingham and father of George, Joseph, Charles and Marie Beckingham, a native of London, England, aged 58 years and 10 months.

FAGAN—At St. Joseph's hospital on the 14th inst., Mrs. G. Fagan, the beloved wife of Gerald Fagan, of Wellington, B. C., aged 45 years.

EVERY WEAK MAN

Should send for a Descriptive Treatise on the Modern and Scientific Treatment of the Urinary and Genital Tracts, including Medical Testimony, Loss of Vital Energy, and all the latest and most successful methods of treatment, together with numerous success testimonials, sent free of charge to all who send for it.

CHANCERY LANE, LONDON, E.C. 4. Established over 30 years.

FORTY SECOND YEAR

THE

The British Empire At Last

For Two Hundred

of Sho

London, May 18.—9:16 p.m.—has been relieved.

Pretoria, May 18.—It was officially announced today that when the Boer forces around Mafeking were severely bombarded the situation was relieved.

A special despatch from London says a telegram from a Boer source announces that Mafeking was relieved.

The recipient of the telegram said that he had heard of the relief of Mafeking before it was announced.

London, May 19.—(4 p.m.)—The night streets, and at 5 o'clock this morning men are singing and there are crowds in front of the clubs on Pall Mall and in the Mansions House, Marlborough street, and in Parliament Square, and in joining in national airs.

Mr. George Wyndham, under secretary for war, replying to several members of the house who had previously interrogated him, said: "Altho' government has nothing, I am to believe the Boer bulletin. It is to-morrow or even Monday that we shall have news of the relief of Mafeking, whereas the news probably be able to avail themselves of the telegraphic communication."

Mr. Bader-Powell's brother-in-law has received a cablegram from a friend in Pretoria, saying that he has received news of the relief of Mafeking.

London, May 18.—The Despatch of the Associated Press announced that Mafeking was relieved. A large crowd collected in the neighborhood of the House of Commons, and the news was announced that no news had been received, and at 9:30 the Lord's official robes of office, and the white robes of the House of Commons, were put on.

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)

Mr. Chamberlain had been obliged to advise against the measure, and who under the circumstances could say him nay? And so when loyalty comes in we must sink all minor questions and the Old Land, (Cheers.)