wrangling a considerable time, disagreed and were discharged.

The grand jury returned the following true bills yesterday: John Keith, larceny; George Coleman, larceny; Alfred Alger, larceny; John Logan, larceny; Hred Alger, larceny; John Logan, larceny; Thomas Ryan, shop breaking and larceny; Joe. Laut and James A. McMurty, lottery and conspiracy. In the case of Michael Murray, charged with robbery, no bill was found. George Coleman and Alfred Alger pleaded guilty to charges of larceny and were remanded for sentence. The judge said he would not try the lottery case because it would be imprudent to take up the time of the court when a justice of the peace had power to dispose of it. The case will not be tried during the present sitting of the court.

The court will open at 9 this merning, when Judge Armour will sentence the prisoners found guilty.

We have heard from good authority that at the Canadian Harness Co., 104 Front street, opposite hay market, they are selling harness at murderously low prices, and every set warranted first class in every respect. All harness is made on the premises. All they ask is for a thorough inspection of their stock. We are confident, if our opinion is worth anything, you can save from $10 to $15 a set.

Mr. R. Illingworth has lately commence business at the above address. His goods are of the finest quality and largest assortment in Toronto. He buys at lowest prices, sells at same, gives every satisfaction to his customers, and does his business in a straightforward mnaner, and grumblers would do well to adopt the same principle.

A Tremendous Mistake ! —A gentleman on going down to business in the morning was instructed by his wife to call at the Waterloo house for a "Vendome" fancy straw hat for their daughter Minnie. Coming up he called in the wrong store, got the correct hat, but paid $1.40, when he could have obtained it at the Waterloo house for 50c. Oh! What a glorious night he had, "He'll never forget that blunder," "The old lady went for him lively." 246
