along the river front has assumed its normal condition, and freight is being moved as syste-matically as before the big strike. Many of the old hands have gone back to work, and those who took the places of the strikers are now accustomed to the work and the agents who have kept the strikers out say the Italians are as good as their old hands, except for their not understanding the language. The men now acknowledge they were budly beaten, and some of them are severe in their expressions regarding the action of their leaders. At South Amboy a committee of the strikers this morning called upon the agents of the coal companies and asked upon what terms they would be reinstrated in their old positions. They were told that when they were wanted the agents would send for them; the new men would not be discharged.

debate between Queen's and University Col-leges was given in these words: "I am anthorized to decide in favor of the affirmative. I believe not the affirmative of confederation. (Judges.-'No,') but in favor of the affirmative of the debate." The Toronto-students had once written and twice tele-graphed a refusal to debate the subject as worded and only consented to go to Kingston after the receipt of a letter which said: "We quite understand that this question is to be debated on the basis of the Imperial Feder-ation League and thought that the spirit of our resolution was in agreement with it." If Imperial Federation then means necessarily "Confederation," the Toronto students won the debate. If Imperial Federation means the wording of the subject, as Kingston students honestly thought is did, Queen's University won. The Belleville Intelligencer gives what it terms the simple facts regarding the alleged bribery fund in Belleville as follows: $4000 was paid to Mr. D. R. Murphy by a check on the Bank of Montreal at Belleville, which was sent to Mr. W. D. Northrup. That money was part of the purchase money for a site for a public building in Trenton, which was purchased some time since by the Government from Mr. Murphy, Mr. Northrup was the solicitor em-ployed by the Government to inrestigate the title He reported it porfect, whereupon the check tor the amount, which was voted at the last session of Parliment, was sent to Mr. Nor-thrup to hand over to Mr. Murphy, who went to the Bank of Montreal and drew the money. Ronconi (hass) of Boston, Miss Martin (contralto) of New York, and Mr. Fred War-rington (baritone), Toronto, and it is to be hoped it will not be her last, as she is a most accomplished artiste. Her voice is one of great richness and purity, sweet in tone and full of sympathy, cultured and refined to a degree, and without the slightest trace of any inequality, either in tone or execution, to mar a most p rfect and artistic performance. Her singing of the solos "Jerusalem" and "I Will Sing of Thy Great Mercies" was received with dreat applause. Miss Martin had not much to do, but that little Le did well. Her rendering of the solo "B.t the Lord is Mindful of His Own," was expressive and pathetic and led to a unanimous encore, which Mr. Fisher was obliged to decline on account of the great length of the work. Mr. Winch is so well that his solos were rendered with that degree of care and feeling which has made him so deservedly popular. Mr. Ronconi did not prove as great an attraction as his associates. He seems to sing entirely from his throat and this defect combined with an indistinct enunciation considerably marred his efforts.
