Sir Wilfrid Laurier Goes Down in a Crushing Landslide.

With a Majority of Forty-Three Seats Up-to-Date Mr. Borden Vindicates the Independence of Young Canada -Eight Ministers Are Beaten and Government Completely Discredited-Big Majority Without Aid of Bourassa.

Toronto, Sept. 22 .- Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his Government were over-whelmingly defeated in yesterday's Head Office : Brantford, Ont. elections.

According to the summary to-day Mr. Borden will have a majority of 43 on the elections already held. This includes the Nationalists of Quebec, but without them he will have a working majority. Eight of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Min-isters are defeated, and but four of them survived the battle of the balthem survived the battle of the bal-lots. Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself was elected in two constituencies, Quebec East and Soulanges, but Hon. G. P. Graham, Hon. Mackenzie King, Hon. William Paterson, Hon. Sydney Fisher, Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. Sir Frederick Borden, Hon. William Templeman and Hon. Jacques Bureau were unable to hold up their end.
