Cause of Asthma. No one can say with certainty exactly what causes the establishing of asthmatic conditions. Dust from the street, from flowers, from grain and various other irritants may set up a trouble impossible to be relieved except through a sure preparation such as Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. Uncertainty may exist as to cause, but there can be no uncertainty regarding a remedy which has given relief to a generation of asthmatic victims of this scourge of the bronchial tubes. It is sold everywhere.

MINISTERS MUST REGISTER

In the future all clergymen who perform a marriage ceremony will have to be registered with the Provincial Secretary. This is the result of the bill to amend the Marriage Act which passed at the last session of the Legislature. And the penalty for any clergyman marrying two people without being registered is a fine of $500. It is the intention of the Government to keep track of all clergymen who solemnize marriages and whenever the Provincial Secretary is satisfied that the person registered to perform the marriage ceremony has ceased to possess the qualifications entitling him to be so registered the registration will be revoked. This act comes into force about July 15th after proper proclamation by the Lieutenant Governor. It is expected that by this time all ministers and those entitled to perform the marriage ceremony will have been registered. Registration need not be made personally, but the ecclesiastical authority or authorities of the church, religious denomination or congregation to which the party belongs may do the registration. Issuers of marriage licenses, who in the past have been mostly jewelers, can carry on for the next couple of months. After that it is the clerk of the municipality who is to be the issuer of licenses or someone he designates in writing as his assistant.

"It's got so these days that a man can hardly wed unless he can show the girl two licenses."
"Two licenses?"
"Yes, marriage and automobile."

WELL SATISFIED WITH BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she will use nothing else. Her use of them leads her to believe there is no other medicine to equal them for any of the many minor ailments of childhood. Concerning them Mrs. Eugene Boisvert, East Aldfield, Que., writes: "My baby was terribly constipated, but after the use of Baby's Own Tablets he is entirely well again. I am so well satisfied with the Tablets that I lose no opportunity in recommending them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. Brockville, Ont.

FAINTING A HEALTHY EXERCISE

Contrary to popular belief, fainting is just the most natural thing in the world and does one good. What really happens when a person faints, is that the heart is not sending a sufficient supply of blood to the brain and fainting causes the latter to stop working and the person affected to fall to the ground. This falling is just what the person needs to put matters right again, for when standing or even sitting upright, the heart has the difficult task to perform of driving the blood upwards to the brain and having to contend with the gravitation of the earth in so doing. As soon, however, as the fainting person falls, the heart's task of sending the requisite blood supply to the brain is comparatively easy, and as soon as this is accomplished, the person "comes round" as we call it. Thus the act of falling is Nature's own method of dealing with the situation. In view of this little fact it is not wise to raise the fallen person, for that, as we have seen, would be interfering with Nature's remedy in allowing the heart to send the necessary amount of blood to the brain.

EVERYTHING IS UP

One of the Peculiarities of the English Language.

The use of the word "up" as applied to railway destinations reminds a correspondent of the Manchester Guardian of some observations by a Swiss friend. "When I go back to my country," she said, "I shall certainly tell the Swiss people a new way to speak English. I shall tell them that they must use 'up' to everything. Everything is up. I am knocked up in the morning. I wake up, I get up, I button up my dress. Why 'up'? I button it down. Then I eat up my breakfast, I drink up my coffee, and then somebody washes up the pots and cleans up the house. I pick up my umbrella and go out of the house, and when I see a friend in front I catch her up. How can I catch her up. It is ridiculous. It is all up. You lie up when you are ill, and you save up for a rainy day. Your English language is very funny. My employer put his head in at my office the other day, and said, 'I want you to stop to-night.' So I got up and put my cloak on. When he saw me he got quite worked up. He said, 'Why have you got your cloak on? I told you to stop.' I said, 'I have stopped.' Why was he so angry? I look in the dictionary, and 'stop' means 'leave off', and he meant me to go on."

THE OLD ARM CHAIR

I love it, I love it, and who shall dare To chide me for loving the old arm chair? I've treasur'd it long as a holy prize, I've bedew'd it with tears, and embalm'd it with sighs, 'Tis bound by a thousand bands to heart; Not a tie will break, not a link will start, Would ye learn the spell?—a mother sat there, And a sacred thing is that old arm chair. In childhood's home, I lingered near The hallow'd seat with list'ning ear; And gentle words would mother give, To fit me to die, and teach me to live She told me shame would never betide, With truth for my creed, and God for my guide; She taught me to lisp my earliest prayer As I knelt beside that old arm chair. I sat and watched her many a day, When her eyes grew dim, and her locks were grey. And I almost worship'd her when she smiled, And turn'd from her Bible to bless her child, Years roll'd on, but the last one sped My idol was shattered, my earth-star fled; I learned how much the heart can bear, When I saw her die in the old arm chair. 'Tis past; 'tis past; but I gaze on it now With quivering breath and throbbing brow. 'Twas there she nursed me, 'twas there she died, And memory flows with lava tide. Say, it is folly, and deem me weak, While the scalding tear drops start down my cheek; But I love it, I love it, and can not tear My soul from my mother's old arm chair. —Eliza Cook.

STERN REMINDERS OF RHEUMATISM

The Trouble Must be Treated Through the Blood.

Every rheumatic sufferer should realize that rheumatism is rooted in the blood and that to get rid of it must be treated through the blood. The old belief that rheumatism was caused by cold, damp weather, is now exploded. Such weather conditions may start the pains, but it is not the cause. Liniments and outward applications may give temporary relief, but that is all they can do because they do not reach its sources in the blood. The sufferer from rheumatism who experiments with outward applications is only wasting time and money in depending upon such treatment; the trouble still remains, and it is all the time becoming more firmly rooted. Treat this disease through the blood and you will soon find relief. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on impure, weak blood; they purify and strengthen it, and so act on the cause of the rheumatism. Mr. P. J. MacPherson, R.R. No. 5, Cardigan, P.E.I., says: "About three years ago I was attacked with rheumatism. I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and soon the trouble disappeared and I am in better health than before. I also know of an old lady acquaintance who was badly crippled with rheumatism in her arms and legs, and who suffered very much. She, too, took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and is now able to do her household work. I tell you this in the hope it may be of benefit to some other sufferer."

You can procure Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or they will be sent you by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
