H. Chamberlain, manager Parkhill & Arkona Telephone writes the Free Press as follows: The item appearing in your issue Feb. 22nd copied from an exchange showed that the telephone now comprising the Parkhill & Arkona Telephone Co. made profits of 980.28 on an expenditure of 311.82 for the year 1921. The earnings report referred to demonstrates profits at all. We who did the figuring. If these figures were formerly made 70% profit year we wonder why they sold it looks like they owned a gold mine. The new rates allowed the company are not higher than charged by the People's Company here.—Forest Free Press.
