

CONTENTS

OF

VOL. VI.

PART II. BOOK II. CONTINUED.

|                                                                                                                                    | Page |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| CHAP. XI. Early English voyages of discovery to America.                                                                           |      |
| Introduction,                                                                                                                      | 1    |
| SECT. I. Discovery of Newfoundland by Johnand Sebastian Cabot in 1497, inthe service of Henry VII. of Eng-land,        | 3    |
| II. Discourse by Galeacius Butrigarius,Papal Legate in Spain, respectingthe Discoveries in America, bySebastian Cabot, | 4    |
| III. Notice concerning Sebastian Cabotby Ramusio, in the Preface to thethird Volume of his Navigations,                    | 6    |
| IV. Notice respecting the voyage of Se-bastian Cabot to the north-west,from Peter Martyr ab Angleria,                      | 7    |
| V. Testimony of Francisco Lopez deGómara, concerning the disco-veries of Sebastian Cabota                                  | 9    |
| VI. Note respecting the discoveries ofSebastian Cabot; from the latterpart of Fabians Chronicle,                           | - ib |
| VII. Brief notice of the discovery of                                                                                              |      |

3068736