

CONTENTS.

GENERAL—	PAGE.	POULTRY—	PAGE.
Canadian Horse Breeders' Association.....	199	A poultry house for the farmer.....	228
Cattle quarantine.....	193	Eggs and cash.....	230
Crops in Great Britain in 1895.....	194	Feeding fowls and chicks.....	228
Crops in Ontario.....	195	Poultry illustrations.....	226
Death of Prof. Lawson.....	196	Poultry lectures at Farmers' Institutes.....	226
Farming in Great Britain.....	195	Preserving eggs.....	231
Inferences from the life of the first shepherd..	196	What do you think of this?.....	227
Instinct in animals.....	194	Wyandottes.....	229
Motor carriages.....	193
New York Horse Show.....	200	THE FARM—
Notes from Great Britain.....	198	Can soil fertility be maintained?.....	237
Works on Geology and Entomology.....	201	Cropping land without rotating.....	239
		Don't fail to attend the Institutes.....	232
HORSES—		Go to the college at Guelph.....	239
A good brood mare.....	204	Handling manure in winter.....	239
American and Canadian horses in England..	206	Implements that are wanted.....	234
Breeding mares.....	206	Improvement of pastures.....	238
Hunters.....	206	Improving the winter evenings.....	232
Quarter crack.....	207	Look out for the machinery.....	232
Skin disease.....	207	Road graders.....	235
Trotting Harness.....	207	Supplies of fuel.....	233
Walking.....	204	The conservatism of farmers.....	236
Winter feeding.....	203	To the boys of the farm.....	234
		THE DAIRY—
CATTLE—		Bacteriological research.....	245
Controlling the sex.....	210	Balanced ration for dairy cows.....	244
Ergotism.....	212	Butter market.....	240
Foul in the foot.....	213	Cheese market.....	240
Old bulls v. young.....	210	Dairy tests.....	246
Overfeeding of show stock.....	213	Disposal of the whey at cheese factories.....	241
Quarantine on stock.....	213	Feminine dairy wisdom.....	246
Some Don'ts.....	209	How much water does a cow require?.....	242
The Shorthorn bull, Pride of Morning.....	211	Irish co-operative creamery management.....	245
Warts.....	213	More co-operation needed among cheese factories.....	242
		Swollen bag.....	247
SHEEP—		The boiling point of milk.....	243
A champion pen of Southdown ewes.....	215	The milk cure is the latest.....	245
Carrying over ram lambs.....	214	What cheese is.....	244
Fattening ram lambs.....	218
Feeding winter lambs.....	219	HORTICULTURE—
Kent or Romney Marsh sheep.....	218	December notes.....	248
Potatoes for sheep.....	219	Fertilizers.....	250
Sheep raising in Minnesota.....	215	Japanese fruits.....	250
Suffolk sheep sales.....	216	Public tastes.....	250
Western competition.....	215	The pear.....	251
		THE APIARY—
SWINE—		North American Beekeepers' Convention....	252
A champion Yorkshire sow.....	222	RECENT INVESTIGATIONS—
Always room at the top.....	222	Application of farmyard manure.....	254
Diseases of swine—		Corn silage.....	254
Paralysis of muscles of loin.....	224	Cream ripening with Bacillus 41.....	254
Rheumatism.....	224	Effect of food on milk.....	254
Earth for pigs in winter.....	220	Ensilage, sugar beets, and mangels for milk production.....	255
Pointers for buyers.....	220	Feeding value of straw and chaff.....	255
Pointers for sellers.....	220	Leguminous plants for green manuring.....	255
Price of pork.....	225	The secretion of milk.....	255
Swine fever.....	220
The Chester White.....	224	PUBLISHERS' DESK.....	256
Too much corn.....	221		