Both these waist designs are arranged for a French waist, that is open up the back, and may be made ordinary shirt waist style or with Gibson front. Ample material is provided so that one's fancy may be indulged. One's summer wardrobe is not complete without one or more of these pretty waists, which can be worn with separate skirts or those matching in color and material. Tub suits are to be the popular fad this summer, a most sensible fad, which cannot be too highly recommended.

PERFUMED bows for the corset are quite the thing among dainty women. They are made of four inch liberty satin ribbon either in two loops or loops with ends. The loops are lightly padded with perfumed wadding and the edges overhanded together. These dainty bows are pinned either to the front of the corset or corset cover and give a subtle fragrance to the wearer. One may have many such dainty "bow" sachets to match the ribbons used in the underwear.

STEAMING is the very best process for cleaning veils. Wind the veil carefully, with even edges, around a piece of broom handle, lay across a boiler or saucepan of water and steam for about three quarters of an hour. Leave on the broom handle until dry and all the dirt and dust will be gone, giving it a new stiffness.
