

Dr. William Claxton, of Verona, Frontenac Co., Ont., died on May 29th. He was a graduate of Queen's Medical College in 1874.

Dr. Nichol, of Crystal City, Man., died on May 15th.

Dr. W. M. English, of London, has been appointed Medical Superintendent of the Hamilton Asylum.

The General Medical Council of Great Britain has announced its recognition of Nova Scotian degrees.

A class of twenty-four graduated this year from the Western Medical College at London, Ont.

Dr. C. H. Thomas, of Toronto, has become a Fellow of the Royal College, of Surgeons of Edinburgh.

Dr. A. A. Small, a Toronto graduate of 1895, has been appointed one of four medico-legal experts for the city of Chicago.

Dr. J. J. Morris, of Hamilton, was married to Miss Sadie Hyland, of Kingston, on May 15th.

We extend our congratulations to Dr. H. S. Birkett, on his appointment as President of the American Laryngological Association.

Of the seventy-four graduates this year at McGill, twenty-one are from the Maritime Provinces, twenty from Ontario, and sixteen from Quebec.

Retrospect of Current Literature.

SURGERY.

UNDER THE CHARGE OF GEORGE E. ARMSTRONG.

CLARENCE A. McWILLIAMS, M.D. "A Method of Reducing Old Colles' Fractures, Stiffness Following Apparent Contusions of the Elbow. Med. Record, May 25, 1907.

A simple and effective method of dealing with fractures of the above variety, in which no treatment has been given, or when faulty position