

Did you ever go to sea? asked Mr. Brown of Jones as he walked into his office the other afternoon. "No, I am no sailor," replied Jones. "I was going to advise you," said Brown, "if you ever did to be sure and carry Minard's Liniment with you, for it is a whole medicine chest in itself."

SAFE FOR $1.—With Minard's Liniment, Minard's Family Pills, Minard's Honey Balsam and Nelson's Cherokee Vermifuge in the house any family can consider themselves safe from having to go for a doctor, and all four packages for one dollar.

Deaths.

DILL.—Amanda Dill, in her 29th year, died at her mother's home, St. Croix, Hants Co., N. S., Nov. 4th, 1886. She was a daughter of the late Charles Sanford of the above place, and leaves on this side of the "line" a beloved husband and two dear little children, who feel keenly this sad and irreparable loss. Their loss but her gain; for she departed to be with Christ, which is far better even than her happy surroundings in this world. She was indeed a Christian woman, following in season and out of season the Lord in his appointments. We were not surprised, therefore, to hear that her death verified the fact, that God is with His people as they pass over what otherwise would be the cold, dark river of death, but now the beautiful river, the border line of the promised and. Consumption did its work rapidly, causing her however, much pain, so that within a few hours of her death she was a great sufferer. About four days before her death she called her little ones to her and said: "I am going to Heaven. I want you to meet me there." The day before her death, while writhing in agony, she was heard to say: "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me." "How sweet the name of Jesus sounds in a believer's ear." May God's richest blessing rest upon her mother, husband and little ones, and lead them along that road that leads to the City which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God, the eternal home of their departed loved one.

How appropriate the words of the poet:

"A precious one from earth has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled
The boon his love had given;
And though the body moulders here
The soul is safe in Heaven"

TRUE FRIENDSHIP

Is that which stands by you when put to the test in the hour of need.

Such a friend you will find in

HAWKER'S Nerve and Stomach Tonic.

For General Debility and Nervous Prostration. Also, in Hawker's balsam of Tolu and Wild Cherry, for all throat and lung affections. They will always be found reliable when put on trial, which hundreds can testify to.

W. HAWKER, Druggist, Proprietor

110 Prince William Street, St. John, N. B.

DR. WILLIAM HAWKER,

Dear Sir: During a period of more than two years, I have been (privately) recommending your "Nerve and Stomach Tonic," and now take pleasure in (publicly) bearing testimony to its merits as a health restorer, as, from personal experience, in its use, I think I have proved it thoroughly.

I always keep it on hand; for not continual use, but, to use when required.

Gratefully Yours,

O. B. EMERY,
Church of Christ.

Etherington's Adjustable Spring Bed.

The Spring Bed consists entirely of STEEL SPIRAL SPRINGS, which lock on the slats of a common bedstead; making a most DESIRABLE BED WITH BUT A SINGLE MATTRESS, thus a saving in the price of bedding. They are the best laying, the most easy, most comfortable, most elastic, the cleanest and the easiest cleaned, the best ventilated (therefore the most healthy), the most durable, the cheapest and the easiest repaired. Most adjustable, as it fits all bedsteads without regard to width or length, and is perfectly noiseless. It can be packed in a trunk 16 inches square, so the most portable; no hiding place for vermin, no sagging to the centre, no slats to become bent and remaining so, but can be adjusted to the unequal weights of the occupants, permitting them to lie on the same level. On all points of merit we solicit comparison with any other Bed in the market.

All orders by mail will receive prompt attention.

ADDRESS,

A. J. ETHERINGTON,
