

NOTES FROM QUEBEC.

QUEBEC, July 7.

THE CARDINAL'S FEAT.

The preparations for the Cardinal's 16th anniversary are in an advanced stage. The road committee decided yesterday to repair the streets in upper town for the passage of the procession, and to erect a civic canopy some triangular in shape. There will be a very brilliant illumination by the Electric Light Company, which has undertaken to illuminate the line of march and also the Basilica. It is thought the Park-mont buildings will be illuminated at the cost of the Government. The architectural features of this structure are such as will enable them to present a truly magnificent spectacle if the details are carefully attended to. A plan has been prepared which will require some few miles of gas pipe to be bent and generally fitted to ornament two sides of the buildings. A pleasing and novel feature of the illumination will be the electric lighting of the banks of the river, from Quebec to Montmorency falls. Fireworks on the river and the Levis & City Shore are also part of the programme, provided the subscriptions are such as will enable the proposition to be carried out. All the boats and railways will give reduced fares during the festivities, and it is thought the streets will be crowded by the visitors from the vicinity and elsewhere. A grand banquet for 500 persons will be given at the St. Louis on the 21st. Pere Lacombe will lecture on the 14th under the patronage of the officers of the 9th Battalion on the "Indians of the North-West." The non-commissioned officers of the Regiment have asked to be appointed a committee of organization.

POLITICAL NOTES.

There has been quite an exodus of leading politicians, who have gone to the meeting at Sorol, and the political atmosphere here indicates a temporary lull.

L'Espresso having stated that Mr. L. P. Pelletier has positively refused to run in the County of Montmorency on account of his professional duties, La Justice publishes a counter statement to the effect that Mr. Pelletier has come to no decision on the subject, and has given no definite answer to the requisition of influential electors of Montmorency and Temiscouata, both of whom have called on Mr. Pelletier.

THE WHELAN-CORRAN AFFAIR.

The controversy between Mr. Whelan, of THE POST, and Mr. Corran has attracted some attention here. L'Espresso publishes the article of La Presse on the subject, and La Justice to-night says, under the heading of "A Bureaucrat's Scandal," that the Government failed to carry out the promise made by Mr. Whelan to the Government. The article says that the Government failed to carry out the promise made by Mr. Whelan to the Government. The article says that the Government failed to carry out the promise made by Mr. Whelan to the Government.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

To the Editor of THE POST: Sir,—A short time ago a remark was made by one of the members of the Y.M.C.A. of this city that that association was the means of providing—amongst other useful men—clergyman for the Church of England. Now, if there was ever a statement calculated to mislead, it is this. Can anyone attending the religious meetings of the Y.M.C.A. be convinced that those who take part in them are destined to hold a prominent position in the ministry of Christ's Church? Of all the ranting ignorance one has to listen to, I think nothing can compare to the silly and self-confident assertions delivered by the members of the Y.M.C.A.

Do these beings think there is nothing required in order to be a clergyman of the Church of England in this land than a smattering of the Holy Scripture, interpreted according to the whim and fancy of an ignorant and fanatical enthusiast?

The members of the Y.M.C.A.'s all the world over are mentally incapacitated, taking the overwhelming majority of them, for the ministry of the English Church. They may suit Wesleyan and Baptist conventicles, but to say that they are in any way fitted for the ministry of the Church of England is a piece of impudent presumption.

I am, Sir, Your obedient servant, R. O. J.

NERVOUS DEBILITATED MEN.

You are allowed a free trial of thirty days of the use of Dr. Dye's Celebrated Valtic Belt with Electric Suspensory Appliances, for the speedy relief of all permanent cure of Nervous Debility, loss of Vitality and Manhood, and all kindred troubles. Also, for many other diseases. Complete restoration to health, vigor and manhood guaranteed. No risk incurred. Illustrated pamphlet, with full information, etc., mailed free by addressing Valtic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

A LONDON SENSATION.

A PROMINENT LAWYER ABSORBED WITH TRUST FUNDS IN HIS POSSESSION.

LONDON, Oct., July 7.—A profound sensation was created about the city, particularly in business and legal quarters, this morning when the Times got abroad this morning Harris, of the firm of Harris, Alages & Co., solicitors, had become financially embarrassed and had fled from the city, taking a large sum of cash and leaving various funds, in which he was interested, in a serious state of entanglement. He is supposed to have gone to Toronto on Friday and from there towards Niagara. It is known that before going he drew the sum of $20,000 in cash, but the amount in his hands is thought to be much larger than that. To-day the partnership was dissolved by the other members. Mrs. Harris did not accompany her husband. Harris was well known as a solicitor for many years and reported to be worth from $50,000 to $100,000. He has spent a great deal of time out of Canada during recent years, and did little active work in the firm since last October. The funds involved are those held in trust chiefly for wealthy people in Great Britain. The loss will be under $40,000. It is believed Harris is temporarily deranged.

POOR HOP PROSPECTS.

CANADIAN, N.J., July 7.—By condensed reports from Montgomery, Otago, Schomberg, Oneida and Madison Counties, it is estimated that the hop crop this fall will not be over one-quarter of the average yield. Where 4 and 6 cents were offered for last year's hops three weeks ago now 15 and 18 cents are easily obtained. Very few old hops are in the growers' hands.

"A BAS LES PENDARDS."

GRAND POLITICAL DEMONSTRATION.

FOUR THOUSAND AT SOREL.

The Electorate Awakened—Six Hours' Speech-Making, and the Audience Wanted More—Scenes and Incidents.

The greatest political demonstration held in this Province since the memorable meeting on the Champ de Mars, 22nd November, 1885, was that held in the bright and busy town of Sorel. The success of the event surpassed the most sanguine expectations, and proved beyond a doubt that the electors of the Province are more alive than ever to the importance and gravity of the political issues before the country and on which they will shortly be called upon to pass judgment. Party ties have been dissolved and there is no more violent exchanges between the rouges and the bleus. The entire electorate seem to march hand in hand, having buried the party hatred and lifted aloft the national banner to carry it to certain victory.

This was clearly illustrated at yesterday's mass meeting of four thousand electors, gathered from the counties of Richelieu, Berthier, Yamaska and Arthabaska. The enthusiasm was intense, and there was but one opinion and one sentiment in the vast assemblage—that the pendants must go. The friends of the Orange-Tory government predicted that the agitation against it was nothing but "a fire of straw, and would end in smoke," but as one of the speakers put it, events showed that the agitation was not a "fire of straw," but a fire of good sound maple, which would only end in the EXTINCTION OF ORANGISM AND TORYISM.

The applause that greeted this threat was deafening and demonstrated that the old Conservative stronghold at Sorel and the environs had cast off its Toryism and had taken into line with no uncertain step.

The speaking lasted fully six hours in the large market square under the most scorching heat of this summer, from one o'clock p.m. to seven. It was a scene never to be forgotten to see that mass of people standing for these long hours in the sun, unwilling to lose a single word that fell from the orators on the occasion. The speeches, it is true, were eloquent and captivating from the beginning to the end, or no audience would have stood it for six mortal hours. And the meeting manifested its pleasure at, and its approval of, what was said by continuous and prolonged outbursts of cheering, hand-clapping, waving of handkerchiefs and hats. And what was remarkable was the fact that the electors, who are largely Conservatives, accorded unstinted applause to the Liberal speakers. Every body saw in this a clear proof of the solidity of the alliance between bleus and rouges.

Dr. Ladouceur, mayor of Sorel, acted as chairman, with Mr. Sylvestre as secretary. The chairman introduced the different speakers to the assembly, which gave to one and all rousing receptions.

Speeches were delivered by them in the following order:—Hon. H. Mercier, Mr. H. J. Cleary, Hon. W. Laurier, Hon. Senator Bellerose, Mr. Bergeron, M.P., Mr. Poirier, Hon. Senator Guevremont, Messrs. G. Duhamel, O. Desmarais, E. Picaud, Wilfred Prevost and Mr. Cardin, N.P.

Mr. Proulx, who had charge of the arrangements, was most attentive, and the excursion from Montreal, which he organized, was most successful. About two hundred Montrealers, and contingents from Longueuil, Vercheres and L'Assomption, along the St. Lawrence, went down to Sorel on the Cultivator and enjoyed a most pleasant time. Mr. Proulx received very warm and cordial congratulations for the part he played in making the demonstration a success. Dr. Ladouceur also gave universal satisfaction by the able manner in which he presided over the proceedings. He created much amusement when, calling upon Hon. Mr. D'Almeida, the Legislative Council of the district, to come forward and state his views, he found he was not present on the platform, but discovered the worthy council for peeping out of a hotel window. The Doctor directed the attention of the meeting to their modest representative, who immediately pulled down the blinds, amid the derisive laughter and comments of the crowd. One of the wits shouted that if their representatives did not want to come down and denounce the Tory governments, they ought to come out and show how to pull on the hangman's rope. This rally was greeted with cheers, and there was a grand chorus of A bas les pendants, or in English, "Turn the pendants out." It was the unanimous conclusion to which the meeting had come.

GLOOMY CROP REPORTS FROM THE NORTHWESTERN STATES.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 7.—Reports from 900 points, covering 160 counties in the Northwest show the condition of spring wheat to be much worse than a month ago. The drought in May, followed by hot and dry weather the past ten days, has shortened the crop materially. The worst reports come from southern Minnesota, southwest Dakota and Wisconsin. In these sections the yield will be from one-half to two-thirds of the average. The drought is also severe in northern Iowa. The corn promises a good crop so far. Oats are almost a failure. Flax shows up poorly. Barley promises an average crop, while the hay crop will be the lightest for years.

THE WISDOM OF ECONOMY.

Look most to your spending. No matter what comes in, if more goes out you will be poor always. The art is not in making money, but in keeping it; little expense, like mice in a barn, when they are many, make great waste. Hair by hair the head gets bald; straw by straw the thatch goes off the cottage; drop by drop the rain comes into the chamber. A barrel is soon empty if the tap leaks but a drop a minute. When you mean to save begin with your mouth; there are many thieves down the red lane. The ale-jug is a great waste. In all other things keep within compass. In clothes choose suitable and lasting stuff, and not tawdry fancies. To be warm is the main thing, never mind the looks. Never stretch your legs further than the blanket will reach, or you will soon be cold. A fool may make money, but it needs a wise man to spend it. Remember, it is easier to build two chimneys than to keep one going. If you give all to back and board, there is nothing left for the savings bank. Fare hard, and work while you are young, and you will have chance of rest when you are old.

ST. PATRICK'S SCHOOL, QUEBEC.

CLOSING EXERCISES—PRESENTATION OF PRIZES.

[From our own Correspondent.]

QUEBEC, July 7.—The annual closing exercises of St. Patrick's school took place on Monday evening in St. Patrick's hall. Among the guests were Dr. F. J. O'Brien, spiritual director; Rev. Father Moynan, and several other clergy. Of the latter we noticed Mr. F. O. Bray, M.P.; Mr. Archer, J. E. Walsh, Mr. Dobbins, who presented the gold medal, and J. O'Brien. The proceedings commenced with a very crowded hall, with the representation of the well known drama of Cardinal Wiseman, entitled "The Hidden Gem." The cast was as follows:—Ephraïm, Patrick Mooney; Aletius, Harry Walsh; Carinus, W. Taaffe; Proculus, W. H. Okey; Eusebius, Walter Murphy; Diocletian, J. White; Darius, W. O'Brien; Tarsus, M. Griffin; Verus, Irving O'Brien; Gaius, D. Walsh; Chamberlain, J. Leonard. The play was admirably presented, the young actors acquitting themselves in a manner that did them infinite credit and reflected the greatest honor on the brothers who had charge of instructing them in their task. Of these of the youthful performers who deserve especial mention is a eulogistic character, Henry Levesque, an excellent first class. He did excellently well, showed great nervousness, and considerable histrionic ability. As Carinus D. Taaffe was very good, and W. Murphy was a first rate Eusebius. James White was remarkably good as Diocletian, and the same may be said of Daniel Walsh as Verus. The latter kept the house in a roar of laughter throughout, and the boy who is not fifteen years of age, was the picture of an Italian beggar. The boys received continued applause.

The play ended the premier was presented by the Rev. Father Burke.

The first prize was the gold medal, presented by Mr. Dobbins for general proficiency, was awarded to George McAllister, of Diamond Harbor. A silver medal for proficiency in the junior division in the first class, presented by Mr. Corran, M.P., was won by Irving O'Brien of Havelockville. This was a silver medal presented by Mr. Hinchey, for best penmanship, was awarded to James Whitehead. Two silver medals, presented by Mrs. Gunn to pupils in the third room for good conduct and application were taken respectively by Wm. Hoach and Richard Fitzhenry. A gold pencil presented by Mr. Shields for application, was awarded to John Power, of Diamond Harbor. A special prize presented by an anonymous donor, for literature, was awarded to William Taaffe. Three special prizes presented by Mr. J. E. Walsh, the first for application was awarded to George Cogger, of Levis, the second for gentlemanly deportment was awarded to John Leonard, and the third for penmanship to Otto Oulter. Two special prizes presented by Mr. Archer, the first was taken by Walter Murphy, the second to Charles Maguire for arithmetic. A special prize, presented by Mr. E. Foley, for composition, was taken by John St. John, third room. Of the first class George McAllister carried off the honors for general proficiency. Irving O'Brien was first in the junior division, W. Taaffe second, and J. Cogger third. In the second class John Power, of Diamond Harbor, was first, W. Brennan, of the same place, was second, and in the third room W. Hoach came out first and R. Fitzhenry second. In the fourth room Francis Graham won first honors and the second by William Coogan, third by John Janson, the latter a Dane, who, when he came, could not speak English, but now speaks perfectly.

In the fifth room Thos. Coogan was first, Willie Power second, James Colman third, P. McManus fourth.

After the distribution of prizes the reverent rector congratulated the boys and thanked the teachers for their assiduity in bringing the boys up to the standard of excellence they presented. The Farewell Chorus was then sung, the solo being sung by Robert Murphy, who possesses a very good voice. The chorus "God Save Ireland" was then sung, the solo being sung by James White. Not a little praise is due to Father Cogger, the spiritual director of the school. His visits are frequent and his devotion very great, the boys deriving the greatest benefit from his zeal and earnestness. The school is under the direction of Brother John, the Superior, and with him in his difficult task is associated Brothers William, Salvator and Patrick. Three classes are under lay teachers. The pupils of the sixth class received their premiums privately on Thursday morning.

A GANG OF COUNTERFEITERS.

THEY MISTAKE A DETECTIVE FOR A SHOVER AND TELL HIM ALL THEIR SECRETS.

OTTAWA, July 5.—Detective Daniel O'Leary on Friday night went to Ottawa, and getting information there regarding counterfeiters, persuaded one of the gang to accompany him to Brighton on the representation that these were persons whom he wished to engage in a robbery. He learned from this man that the suspicious money was made by John Rogers. The detective visited Rogers, and was introduced to him as Mr. Johnson. Rogers was told that Mr. Johnson wished to engage in the business. He told the detective that he had the necessary plate for making $500 Quebec bills, $200 United States bills, and $10 bills of the Merchants' bank of Canada. Rogers also said that he had been accompanied by William Duncan, Thomas Brown and Capt. Clendenning to Rochester, where they had gone on a schooner, about a month ago, and procured paper, ink and brushes to make the money. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery, and start in the same business. Mr. Johnson agreed with Rogers to go into partnership with him. The latter promised to supply the detective with counterfeiters representing a large amount of money. His pocket-book was secured. It was found to contain counterfeit $20 bills of the Mohawk Valley National Bank of New York. Duncan is arrested and under a bill which it was almost impossible to detect, having worked at the business in Austria. He could also change the numbers on bills so that it would be difficult to detect the alteration. Brown and Duncan had the notes he had made. He intended to go to Ottawa, get a photographer's gallery,