

- Compañía de Teléfonos de Coyhaique (Telcoy):

The firm has a concession for the XI Region for 65 years.

- Cooperativa Rural Eléctrica de Llanquihue (C.R.E.LL.):

This company covers the rural zone of the X Region and is a very small company.

- Compañía de Teléfonos Manquehue:

This is a concession of indefinite character in the Metropolitan Region in Santiago for the localities of Las Condes, Vitacura, Barenechea and Providencia.

- Compañía de Teléfonos CMET (Complejo Manufacturero de Equipos Telefónicos S.A.):

This is a concession for an indefinite time period for some areas in the Metropolitan Region and V Region. The localities covered in the Metropolitan Region include mainly Providencia. In the Fifth Region they include Quillota, Quilpué, Viña del Mar.

- Entel Chile:

This company has a concession of indefinite length for Isla de Pascua (Easter Island) and XII Region. The interconnection in this Region is done through microwave.

Market Share

In terms of market share, about 95% of the national urban services belong to CTC. The remaining 5% is distributed among all the other companies. However, CNT of Valdivia has about 4% and the rest is distributed among the other companies with CMET being the most important one.