

And the House having proceeded to the deferred division on the motion of Mr. Lambert (Edmonton West), seconded by Mr. Fairweather,—That Bill C-182, An Act to provide for the examination, publication and scrutiny of regulations and other statutory instruments, be amended by renumbering Clause 26 thereof as 26 (1) and adding the following:

“(2) The said committee further shall have the power to recommend by way of report to the House of Commons the amendment, replacement or annulment of any statutory instrument referred to it.

(3) In the event that the said committee should in any report recommend the amendment, replacement or annulment of any statutory instrument such report shall be brought on for consideration in the House of Commons within fifteen sitting days after the tabling thereof in the same session, if such be possible, or within the first twenty sitting days in the next session following and any debate thereon shall continue subject to the Standing Orders of the House of Commons, until the report shall have been finally disposed of.”

And the question being put on the said motion, it was negatived on the following division:
