UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE CLAIMANTS,
ROUYN-VAL D'OR, QUE.

Question No. 997—Mr. Laprise:

1. How many appeals were made to the board of referees by claimants at the unemployment insurance commission office at (a) Rouyn (b) Val d'Or, during the year 1963 and, of that number (i) how many decisions were modified (ii) how many were maintained?

2. How many claimants were considered ineligible because they left their jobs voluntarily?

3. How many claimants were considered ineligible because they refused to accept the job offered?

4. What has been the total number of unemployed claimants who registered at the unemployment insurance commission office at (a) Rouyn (b) Val d'Or for the years 1960, 1961, 1963, and 1964?

Mr. MacEachen: 1.

	No. of Appeals Allowed Disallowed
Rouyn	232	34	198
Val d'Or	122	10	112

2. 586 in Rouyn and 536 in Val d'Or.

3. 334 in Rouyn and 147 in Val d'Or.

4. Information not available. However, following is the number of initial and renewal claims received in the period concerned.

	Rouyn		Val d'Or
	Initial	Renewal	Initial	Renewal
1960	9,994	3,684	7,125	3,249
1961	9,145	3,687	6,400	3,012
1962	8,697	3,290	5,854	2,567
1963	8,234	3,374	6,063	2,574
1964	3,067	1,271	2,214	858

(to 31 March)

Many of the claimants filing renewal claims would be the same as those filing initial claims in the same year.
