Mr. Speaker: I declare the amendment lost.

Mr. Hnatyshyn: Mr. Speaker, I think there might be a disposition to have the same vote apply on the subsequent vote in support of the motion.

Mr. Deans: Mr. Speaker, that is exactly what I was going to say and I think that will be fine.

[Translation]

Mr. Pinard: Mr. Speaker, we agree, and if the offer extends to all other non-confidence votes between now and the end of the year, Progressive Conservative Members could stay away altogether.

[English]

Mr. Speaker: Before I put the question, are there any Hon. Members who did not vote the first time and wish to be recorded as voting on this occasion? The Hon. Member for Sherbrooke (Mr. Pelletier) on a point of order.

Mr. Pelletier: Mr. Speaker, I was in the House for the vote but I was paired with a Member from the Opposition so I would like to be—

Some Hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mr. Speaker: Is it agreed that the vote applying to the amendment will also apply to the main motion?

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.

The House divided on the motion (Mr. Wise) which was negated on the following division:
