

July 24th, 1929.

Dr. W. Sherwood Fox,
President and Vice-Chancellor,
University of Western Ontario,
London, Ont.

Dear President Fox:-

May I, on behalf of McGill University, express our most sincere pleasure at the message conveyed in your letter of July 15th.

It was a happy thought which led you to avail yourself of your first direct air-mail to voice your assurance of co-operation. We reciprocate your kind wishes and in return assure you of our good will and of our desire to join with you in every effort for the advancement of learning and the good of Canada.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.