EXTRACT FROM THE JUDICIARY ACT, 1789.

The writ shall, immediately upon the return of the copies, command the parties to be present in the appellate court at the time; the Clerk of the court, upon the receipt of the return, shall enter each cause on the docket in accordance with the time of the return; every Judge or Supreme Judicial Court of Territory shall in like manner proceed upon the return of the writ in the case of any Judge, and every Justice of the Peace shall proceed upon the return of the writ in the case of a Justice.—Section 6.