

BINDLE

PRESS OPINIONS (continued)

Foreign and Colonial Papers say:

PIONEER (Calcutta)	" Bindle is great."
HARTFORD COURANT	" A gloom-destroyer."
PITTSBURG LEADER	" Irresistibly funny."
NEW YORK HERALD	" A gloom-destroyer."
NATAL ADVERTISER	" A quite unique book."
NEW YORK WORLD	" A fount of British humor."
BROOKLYN EAGLE	" Bindle is a gloom-destroyer."
TROY RECORD, N.Y.	" There is a laugh on every page."
NEW ZEALAND TIMES	" The humour is inexhaustible."
PITTSBURG SUN	" Refrain from laughter if you can."
CHICAGO HERALD	" Bindle, bless him!—is a friend worth having."
CHICAGO EXAMINER	" Read ' Bindle ' and dispel the Gloom family."
BOSTON HERALD	" Enough to establish Herbert Jenkins as a humorist."
BALTIMORE EV. SUN	" A character that may take its rank with David Harum."
RAND DAILY MAIL	" Bindle is a creation for which Mr. Jenkins is to be thanked."
PHILADELPHIA EVENING TELEGRAM	" A laugh lurks on every page of Herbert Jenkins' book ' Bindle. ' "
BOSTON GLOBE	" Bids fair to win almost as great popularity in America as in England."
NEW YORK HERALD	" Those who enjoy English humor will roar over Bindle's gloom-destroying antics."
MELBOURNE AGE	" Joseph Bindle steps straight away into the small gallery of literary creations. The humour of Bindle is something fresh in literature."
ADELAIDE ADVERTISER	" The public will always give a warm welcome to books from the pen of Mr. Jenkins which reach the mirth-provoking standard of ' Bindle. ' "