

Mr. Francis Lewis Appointed Chancelle

of the New Ottawa Diocese-World's Fair Medals Have Arrived.

Ottawa, May 26.-(Special)-The Bishop of Ottawa has appointed Mr.

Francis Lewis of the Ottawa bar to cese. Mr. Lewis is a M.A. of Trinity University, Toronto, where he took his degree in 1878 and is also a member of the University Board.

Commander Spain notified the Deartment of Marine and Fisheries today of the seizure by the Canadian cruiser Aberdeen of the Gioucester seiner Frederic Geuring. The Yankee poacher was within the three mile limit off the coast of Guysboro County, near White Islands, busily engaged in hauling in mackerel, when the Canadian cruiser dropped down upon World's Fair Medals Arrive. The medals and diplomas won by Canadians at the World's Fair reached the Department of Agriculture to-day. They are contained in ten cases, and it will take the officials of the department some days in arranging for them to be sent out.

The cruiser Dolphin is actively at work in the Georgian Bay and Capt.

Pearson reports an improved state of things so far as observance of the Goorgian Bay Fisheries.

A Yankee Poncher Seized.

the office of chancellor of the new

forward. Up AMERICAN VISITORS

ecovered:

Collingwood, Ont., May 26.—The Most Worshipful Grand Black Chapter re-aumed business this morning at 10 were an example and common sense will fell visabled to amass sufficient means for the Citizens when leaving for their sum; mer residences should go prepared to meet all contingencies, such as impure drinking water. With the ald of the Pasteur Germ Proof Filter there is no danger to be apprehended. Their price is not high, considering the work they do. Call and see them at 6 Adelaide-tered to act.

J. B. Gordon.

J. Edmonds.

Bodies Recovered.

The bodies of the following have been

HAS-SIR OLIVER FUNKED?

the Ontario Premier Will Not be at Mr.

Tarte's Meeting at Beaukarnols.

To-Day.

Nothing alleys the thirst and gives staying power to bicyclists on long runs like Adams' Tutti Frutti Gum. See that the trade mark name Tutti Frutti is on each 5 cent package.

"A Boon and a Blessing."

the effort to enlarge his chentele, to keep abreast in the race, and all to pro-vide for his own! To such, Life As-surance is a boon and a blessing. By steady thrift a man may secure a sum for his survivors, which he could not

How a few professional men are en-abled to amass sufficient means for the

Montreal, May 26.-(Special)-Sir

Mrs. Fred Adams and son.

E. B. Carmichael and wife.

in uniform, etc. All of the accesses to the palace and the cathedral, as well as the route of the Imperial cortege from the palace to the cathedral, were guarded by double lines of troops, and around and within the courts of the palace were squadrons of cavalry. In the small Cathedral. Crowds thronged the streets at an parly hour, and those who were for-sarly hour, and those who were for-early hour, and those who were for- II.

tunate enough to possess cards of ad-The Bell in Ivan Tower. mission to the small Cathedral of the At 8.15 numerous ladies and gentle-The three mile stretch from Oakmen of the court, in brilliant dresses wood to Thomas is a scene of heart-rending desolation and wreckage. Everything in the path of the cyclone Assumption, where the coronation Assumption, where the coronation and uniforms, entered and took their creating desolation and wreckage. ceremonies were solemnized, were and using their places, and at 8.30 the great bell in the place had been ar places. A definite place had been ar place and resounded through the injured. I totted to each, as the space within the the peal and resounded through the city. A large number of bishops and the death list is large and many are on the totted to each the space within the the peal and resounded through the city. A large number of bishops and the death list is large and many are on the state of the dead between Oakwood and the place had in the latter village are: cathedral is exceedingly small, and no priests, in magnificent ceremonial robes The dead between Cakwood and one outside of the members of the Im- were in attendance, the bishops with Mrs. Vanwagoner, Charles Hicks, the were in attendance, the bishops with Mrs. Vanwagoner, Charles Hicks, the golden mitres and golden broidered Rev. C. M. Pretchyplace, Andrew Petperial family, the foreign sovereigns, chasubles, the priests in white sur-tibone, M. Bretneyer. The fatally injured are: Mrs. R. princes or their representatives, the princes or their representatives, the diplomatic corps and a favored few were able to enter the coveted pre-cincts. Though a mass of people filled and preparing the elements for the clebration of the Eucharist, while others were grouped in their several places about the iconostas. As the ticket, until the ceremony began, as even here thousands had to be accom-modated, who could not hope to see the coronation act, itself, but only the churches is always concealed, began to intone the Te Deum. Their beautiful and provide in the failer the sevenal places about the iconostas. As the churches is always concealed, began to and provide in the failer of the failer the coronation act, itself, but only the intone the Te Deum. Their beautiful and Dryden in Copeman, Amy Kidder, George Hible William Althause, Charles Bradley, Le After completing its work of des-truction at Thomas the cyclone eyidently separated, one section going northeast and doing an immense without the cathedral.

the Annun-

Near the Cathedral of the Assump-near the Cathedral of the Assump-scended the red staircase from the Kremlin Palace and crossed the en-assier Guards of the Emperor, in gata uniform, consisting of eagle created helmets and white tunics, with scai-let jackets. On each side of the wooden walk leading to the other cathedrals were tall scarlet-coatéd Circassians, belonging to the Czar's personal escort, also dragoong and de-te obsure of the cathedral, shout after shout rose upon the air, drums sound-in the great square played the Nation-al Anthem. At these sounds the Metro-politans of Moscow, St. Petersburg and Kieff and several of the higher clergy proceeded to the entrance of the anther personal escort, also dragoons and de-tachments of other troops. Within the enclosure formed by the pathways were deputations from var-ious regiments and civil deputies from the Provinces. The tribunes, which were spected near the Archangel Cath-were spected near the Archangel Cathedral and the Ivan Tower, were crowd- Sword and flag of state were stationed edral and the Ivan Tower, were crowd-ed with diplomatic secretaries, attaches and foreigners in uniform or evening dress. Just before it was time for the Czar to appear at the top of the Red Square, the broad spaces of the Krem-lin were densely packed with 100,000 The first of the imperial party.

t a little perore so creat allowed to imperial mantle, and was accompanied to the there allowed to imperial mantle, and was accompanied by the interior of the cathedral, as by those members of the imperial family who were not included in the nted by its five golden domes, pre-the throne, on a dais, level with the ed a most brilliant appearance in. The available room within the Czarina's throne hung a magnificent thin. The available room within the hedral is about 80 feet square, and is broken by four enormous circu-pillars and some monuments dis-nuted throughout the church. The histas, which fike a screen divides chancel from the nave, is covered h repouse work of beaten gold, and is with ecclesiastical paintings, e of which are very ancient, and the than one has miraculous powers ial correspondences of the cathedral, as view the interior of the cathedral, as only a few of the representative correspondents could be accommodated at the cathedral, ficials of her court. Four champer-the ceremony itself. The cathedral, lains bore her train as she ascended to the throne on a dais, level with the

of the Assumption,

ation and the Archangel were con-octed by means of a wide wooden th, carpeted with crimson cloth, retching from the Red Staircase, and tion were two squadrons of the Cuir-assier Guards of the Emperor, in gala people, pressing closely up to the very fence of the inner square between the

A Gorgeous Interior

At a little before 8 o'clock the spec-ore than one has miraculous powers cribed to it. Plates of gold cover began to beautiful the grand other following a southwesterly direc-tion to North Oxford. The list of dead at and near North Oxford is: Claire E. Laidlow Mark intone the Te Deum. Their beautiful voices swelled to the tones of the grand Crimson Everywhere. and solemn anthem, and seemed a fitfamous Red Staircase, leading ing preparation to the ceremony about the side wall of the Granovitia to begin.

The Diplomatic Corps Arrives.

to the Kremlin Palace, down

Oxford is: Claire E. Laidlaw, Mrs.-Oscar Slade, Sol. Rame, Tom Bishop, Joseph Smedley, sr., Joseph Smedley, At a quarter to 9 the diplomatic body and special envoys, headed by Count de Montevillo, the French Amch the royal party came, was cov-

The first of the imperial party to appear was the Dowager Czarina, appear was the Dowager Czarina, mother of the Emperor, who came separately from the Emperor and Em-press and their attendants. The Dowager Empress wore a crown and an

(Continued on second page.)

Mrs Thomas Bennett, unknown man and woman. Fatally injured: Thomas Bennett, Mrs. Joseph Smedley, sr., Mrs. Joseph bassador, who, in the inability of the Turkish Ambassador to be present in a Smedley, jr. Greek church, was the doyen of the At Mount Clemens biretching from the Red Staircase, and branching off to the doors of the cathe-drals, and to the entrances of the large guare of the Kremlin, through which their Majesties would pass on making the circuit of the carnedrals and the twan Tower after being crowned, in order to show themselves to the peor diplomatic corps, slowly filed into the sacred building. The choir cont.nued

SIXTY HOUSES WRECKED.

Isw the Cyclone Did Great Bamage in the Neighborhood of Tecamsch, Ont

Tecumseh, Ont., May 26 .- The mos appalling cyclone ever experienced in this vicinity passed three miles west of this place about 9 o'clock last night, wrecking over 60 houses and barns, killing many cattle and horses and destreying farm machinery, fences and trees. Wonderful to relate, nobody was killed or even seriously injured. Four unoccupied houses, used as summer resorts, vanished, not a piece of them as large as a man's hand to be found. A cow was lifted by the wind and carried nearly a quarter of a mile and dropped with a broken back. Whole orchards were rooted up and not a tree.

of his Jesuit pear orchard, which was over 200 years old.

The total loss is estimated at be-tween $65,000 and $100,000. After spending its fury the storm passed over the Detroit River into the State of Michigan.

Sprudel Water.

Bicycles checkedopposite race track, 10e

Turkish Baths-Excellent accommoda-tion 127 and 129 Yonge.

"Salada" Ceylon Tea is comforting

-sparkling and refreshing-to be at Hooper's, 43 King west.

Many Others Killed.

Heartrending Des

After leaving North Oxford the path

containing quantities of black bass and pickerel have been made to the northeast of Beausolell Island, but the captain reports recently: "I find this of the southeast cyclone is marked at intervals until Mt. Clemens is reached, vision in a very satisfactory state far." Evidently the serious violaso far." Evidently the serious viola-tions of last year are not being re-where great damage was done and many persons injured:

peated this season.

General Notes.

The fatally injured are: Mrs. Anna Pohl, Henry Pohl, Willie Pohl, Mrs.

The delegates to the Convention of he Brotherhood of Locometive Engin-Joseph Harder, Mrs. Russel Carten Miss Anna Belle Teabo.

without it.

eers were tendered a grand reception and ball at the Russel. House this evening. Nearly a thousand people were present and a most enjoyable The next heard from the storm was near Walkervills, Ont., 20 miles due south of Mt. Clemens. The cyclone eviimé was spent. dently expended its force after striking Canada, as no other reports of damage have been received.

so small that they cannot afford to do without it. Office corner King and To ronto-streets. Telephone 450.

Pember's Turkish Baths-Enlarged, renodelled. 129 Yonge.

Fine Old Ports.

60c, 75, $1, $1.25, $1.50 per bottie. Mara's, 79 and $1 Yonge-street. 'Phone 1768.

Wright & Ditson's Tennis Guide. The Jacold A. Wilson Co., 35 King St. W.

summer Resorts and Summer Boarder

If you are running a summer resort and wish to bring it before the people of Toronto, insert a paragraph in our "Summer Resort" column. Special

Try a Christy Saddle, for sale by the Harold A. Wilson Co., 35 King St. W.

The most uncomfortable thing is badly-fitting shirt. Treble's perfect-fitting shirts give entire satisfaction. 53 King-street west.

If you want a Tennis Racoust or Cric-ket Bat try The Harold A. Wilson Co., 35 King St. W.

File to the

erms for this class of business.

tu-day sent to the penitentiary for seven years. Connors says he comes time was spent. James Connors, who was captured last week when attempting to burg-larize the residence of Mr. O'Dell, was from Chatham.

recently concluded will form many pages of most important history as the result of a struggle more extraordin-ary perhaps than is to be found else-where recorded. In a contest waged in ed

by us.

Bicycle Suits to measure, from $7.00 up. Dominion Trouser Co., 1% Leader-lane. the face of tremendous odds and against a formidable foe, and in which It is surprising Jow many of the best homes in Tcronto are this year insured against burglary. Householders find the cost two minor seizures of illegal gill nets and the onlookers, he was presented containing quantities of black bass with the following flattering address, you; M.W. sin and brother, had so prominent and successful a part, you proved yourself the ideal Orangeman and our faithful advocate in resisting not only the attempted encroachments

Flattering Reception to M. W. G. 1

Brother Wallace

mented With an Address by the Grand

Black Chapter of British America on

His Arrival at Collingwood Yesterday

-His Position on the School Question

worshipful Grand Enter of the second second street east.

Warmly Endorsed-The Grand Lodge

Opens - Bro. Wallace Delivers III

iness was continued until noon, when he chapter adjourned and marched Clarke Wallace and other officials. When the Grand Master appeared on the platform of the car he was welwhich had gathered. Proceeding to the centre of the circle which had been formed by the members of the chapter

which was read by Grand Master Lee:

An Address to the G.M. To the Hon. N. C. Wallace, Most Wor-

Association in the general estimation of the outside world, and is the culminating evidence of your unwavering fidelity to the principles held so dear

In conclusion, M.W. sir and brother, pray accept from us a renewed expres-sion of our approval and an intima-tion of our determination to stand solidly at your back to support you in what we fear may be a continuation of the most serious conflict and to assist you by our votes in suppressing the

(Continued on fourth page.)

comed by cheers from the large crowd

o the station to meet Grand Master of the Church of Rome, but also the threatened coercion of our sister Pro-vince of Manitoba in the effort of the Dominion Government to deprive her of her educational liberties and of the free and uninterrupted enjoyment of her legislative powers. Your sturdy, builder.

P. Stow of Toronto.

BRATES. BLACKWOOD-In Montreal, on the morn

World on the Island.

Commencing on Monday, June 1, The World will be delivered daily to Is-land subscribers. Telephone 1734.

Crowds of Race-Beers From the Other Side

Buy Dincons' Hats.

Not for many years has there been so many American visitors to the races as are now in the city, and Torontonians may take a useful hin

from the fact that a great many peo ple from the other side are buying Din-eens' hats. This is pertainly evidence that prices at Dineens' are lower than on the other side, and that styles are right up to date, for race-goers as a class are the most particular about the mode of their hats. With one day of intermission there will be racing all week at the Woodbine, and many other visitors will arrive to day and to mor-row, the hotel men say. For these, as well as for citizens, W. & D. Dineen

Get a Bell or Lamp for your bioycle-The Harold A. Wilson Co., 35 King St. W.

Sammer Migration

REEVE-CARRON-At Highland Creek

May 25, by the Rev. John Chisholm, B.A., Henry Reeve of M. O. Department, To-ronto P.O., to Miss Jennie Carron of Toronto.

MARRIAGES.

Don't forget the Auction Sale of Mantles and Tiles, Grates and Brass Goods at Millichamp's, 234 Yonge-street, May 28. Sale at 11 o'clock.

occasion with an expression of the warmest loyalty and devotion on their part towards yourself as the head and st. W. agents. Parties needing Mantles and Grates, Brass Goods, Tiles, etc., will do well to attend the Anction Sale, May 28. Sale at 11 o'clock. 234 Yonge-street.

An Address to the G.M. To the Hon. N. C. Wallace, Most Wor-shipful Grand Master of Sovereign Loyal Orange Association of British America: Most Worshipful Sir and Brother,— The Most Worshipful Grand Black Chapter of British America, now in session, deem it their duty and their delight to approach you on this unique ment of premiums. Rates furnished on application to head office, or to any of the company's

An Off Day.

"The storm signals went down this morning at 10 o'clock," said the weather seen last night, " when the wind had then reached its height. We usually give 12 hours warning, but hereafter we are going to lower the signals at the wind's greatest eight, and then if people want to go out they can. There is no sign at present of any procounced rainfall, but with the shift of, wind that takes place to-morrow there are not unlikely to be some thundershowers.

with cooler temperature." "Where has the late storm gone?" asked

To-day will be an off-day at the races. This will give visitors a chance to see the sights, also to take advantage of our special sale of shirts and neckwear. We make a specialty of large-size underwear and shirts, Sword, 55 King-street east.

taken from the bay. Twenty ne iknown to have been on the bridge at the time of the accident are missing

and it is supposed that they have perished. The car register shows 90 fares, and it is probable that over 125 were

AT THE DANGER LINE.

And the Mississippi River is Still Rising-

Great Damage is Feared From the Flood.

St. Louis, May 26 .- The danger line of 28 feet was reached this morning.

Bood of four years ago, when the gauge marked 36 feet and property to the value of $25,000,000 was destroyed. The lowlands at Venice and Brooklyn, on the east side of the river, opposite St. Louis, are being inundated and the squatters are moving to higher-grounds. Below East St. Louis the water is backing into Cahokie Creek, and if a rise of another foot occurs the rest is backing into Cahokie Creek, and ir a rise of another foot occurs the resi-dents will have to abandon the first story of their houses. The downpour of rain continues almost without interruption throughout Missouri. An Schefl City the river is running in the Caw's fountain pens, with 14 carat gold pens $1.25 each, fully guaranteed Blight Bros., 65 Yonge-street.

Nearly an Inch of Rain

EIJ.

"Salada" Ceylon Tea is delightful.

on board.

Oliver Mowat has funked and will not by the flood in the Mississippi River be at Mr. Tarte's meeting in Beauhar- at this city and the indications are nois to-morrow. Mr. Tarte says the that unless there is a let-up to the street.

a heavy downfall for the time it lasted."

Guinane Bros.' "Slater Shoe" store (39 King west) open every night till 10 o'clock

Mostly Valr-Local temperatures a Minimum and maximum temperatures a Edmonton, 40-60; Calgary, 40-54; Prince Edmonton, 40: Winnipeg, 40-50; Port Mostly Fair-Local Showers, Cook's Turkish Baths, 204 King W., day 75c Albert, 86-64 ; Winnipeg, 40-50 ; Arthur, 44-56; Toronto, 60-78; Ottawa, 66-80; Montreal, 52-76; Quebec, 50-64;

Chatham, 42-56 ; Hallfax, 36-48. PROBS : Wind shifting to north and ast ; weather mostly fair, turning cool local showers.

Cook's Turkish Baths, 204 King W., CY'E.

Southampton...New New York.....Antwerp. Montreal.

.New York....Antwerp. ...Hamburg....Montreal. .Liverpool...Montreal. ...Glasgow...Montreal. ...Joverpool...Montreal. ...Joverpool....Montreal. ...Queenstown..New York.

Guinane Bros.' " Slater Shoe" store (89 King st.w.)open every night till 10 o'cleck steamship Movements. At From New York.....Glasgow. London.....New York. London.....New York. Southampton.New York. New York. ay 26. At of Nebraska..New York...

esternland.

Sprudel.

The fashionable mineral water given the preference as blending best with spirits and wines at the Ontario Jockey Club meet for 1896. Telephone

Cook's Turkish Baths, 204 King W.,ev'g. 50c

Novelty in bicycle and golf caps, ventilated top-most comfortable cap out. See it at Treble's, 53 King-street west.

Feiherstenhangh & Co., patent sell ad experts, Bauk Commerce Bauding, T

ton. Mrs. Thos. Sintzel, widow of the Bicyclists, use Adams' Tutti Frutti allay thirst and give staying power of track and road runs. Refuse all init

Funeral will take place on Thursday, a SINTZEL-At 90 Emerald-street. Hami

3.30 from his late residence, 6 Dunbarroad, Rosedale.

noble stand on this all-important ques-tion has materially raised the Orange late Thomas Sintzel, in her 80th year.

Funeral Thursday, at 3.30 p.m. MOIR—At 626 Spadina-avenue, on Monday

25th inst., Mary, wife of George Moin

Funeral on Wednesday afternoon at a o'clock. M'GOVERN-At edarburg, Wis., on the 24th May, 189 Frances Bethune, beloved wife of W. P. McGovern, M.D., and foungest da ghter of the late Frederick

ing son of the late John Blackwood, N.P.

We are selling fine old ports at $2, ccurageous and consistent opposition $2.50, $3, $3.50, $4, $5 and $6 per gal.; 50c, to the passage of the Remedial Bill, which largely contributed to its withwhich largely contributed to its with drawal and we trust to its ultimate de-feat, have won for you the admiration of the whole Order. We thoroughly endorse your position and warmly con-gratulate you on the success which has so far attended your efforts. Your noble stand on this all-important ques-tion has materially raised the Orange in the 63rd year of his ago; only surviv

wood, Dominion Appraiser, H.M. Customs, law's residence. Thomas Fergusson Black

Are found in our plantinum-finished photographs. The Bryce Studio, 107 King-street west; telephone No. 1724 for sittings. ed

Gems in Art ing of May 25, 1893, at his brother-in