The three witnesses were Ald. Scott, Ald. Allen and Thomas Sanderson of the City Clerk's department. Mr. Macdonald conducted the examinations himself.

Seated beside believe the same witness with the same should be address about Mr. Maughan.

Mr. Macdonald then proceeded to ask Ald. Allen some questions about the address presented to Mr. Maughan, who was receiving $2250 as Assessment Commissioner. Ald. Allen admitted that he approved of everything said in the address about Mr. Maughan. Seated beside him as his counsel was Bar- a co and entered many objections to Mr. Macdonald's examination. They were nearly all overruled by the examiner, who appeared anxious to have as many facts come to light as possible. Mr. Fullerton's objections were overruled so often that he announced at the close of the proceedings. Fullerton appeared on behalf of the city Ald, Allen : Well, I approved of the sioner for the city of Toronto and from carrying out a contract entered into by the said Fleming with the Council of the city of Toronto on or about the 6th day of August, 1897, whereby it was agreed that the said position at a yearly salary of $4000, the said contract being illegal and void, haying been entered into while the said Fleming occupied the position of Mayor of the city of Toronto and the said Fleming used corrupt and illegal means to secure said position; and from passing a bylaw carrying out said contract, and for a declaration that the resolution of the said Council passed on or about the 6th day of August, 1807, appointing the said Robert J. Fleming to said position of Assessment Commissioner is illegal and void.

Sanderson's Evidence. The first witness was Thomas Sanderson of the City Clerk's department. He testified that he was present at the meeting of the Council when Fleming was appointed Assessment Commissioner and John Shaw elected Mayor. Shown a copy of the minutes of the meeting he said they were correct. He also identified and testified to the correctness of a copy of the bylaw which Mr. Macdonald handed him for examination. He was present when the report of the Special Committee was presented.

Mr. Macdonald: Who was in the chair when that report was presented?

Witness: Ald. Allen, I think.

Mr. Macdonald: The minutes don't state that.

Witness: I think not. Mr. Macdonald: Then to that extent the minutes are inaccurate?
Witness: I don't know that they are inr. Macdonald: Well, it is a fact that 'Ald. Allen was in the chair and the min-utes don't show it. We will leave it at that.

Witness was present when the Mayor tendered his resignation. He was handed a copy of The World of Aug. 6, and after reading it he swore that the report agreed with his recollection of the proceedings. No public record was kept of the unwritten part of the proceedings, such as the Mayor's remarks when accepting the Council's offer.

Mr. Fullerton: The Council speaks only by its resolutions.

Allen read the written resignation. No vote was taken. The resignation was accepted on motion. The report had been adopted prior to that. Subsequently a resolution by Ald. Preston was passed, appointing Mr. Fleming Assessment Commissioner. That was the order of proceedings.

Ald. Allen testified that Mayor Fleming had called him to the chair. He had not been in Toronto all summer, but did not come to the city specially to attend this meeting of Council.
