

PASSED CONFEDERATE BILLS

Halkerton Farmer Will Be Allowed to Go on Suspended Sentence To-Day.

SEALED VERDICT WAS RETURNED

Result of Breach of Promise Suit Will Be Made Known This Morning.

Alexander McIntyre of Deer Lake, Halkerton County, was found guilty in the Criminal Sessions yesterday afternoon of the charge of attempting to obtain a quantity of grapes and nearly $100 in money from Carlo Rocco, an Italian fruit vendor at the old Caledonia building, West Front Street, by passing a Confederate States bill on him on Sept. 4 last. Detective Simola and Policeman Dent traced to the prisoner in all $100 of these worthless bills. One $100 note was found in his purse when he was arrested. McIntyre claimed that his wife got $200 worth of bills by sending $200 to a man in Indiana. The jury strongly recommended him to mercy, and his counsel, T. C. Robinson, urged the court to allow the prisoner to go on suspended sentence. A petition, testifying to McIntyre's previous good character, signed by about 100 residents of Halkerton County, was put in, and Judge McLaughlin intimated in view of this that he would allow the prisoner to go this morning, providing his father would go on his bond in $200 as a guarantee of his future good behavior. McIntyre was found guilty of a charge of larceny, the complaint being his 14-year-old daughter. He was recommended by the jury to mercy. The grand jury indicted McIntyre on a charge of false pretence in getting a horse and $4 from Mary Ann Todd, Christopher Lawless, George Woburn, Louis McCreary, Seabury Blitts and Frank Duffy must go to trial on a charge of assaulting Policeman Peter Morris on Aug. 21 last.

Returned a Sealed Verdict.

Chancellor Boyd instructed a jury in the Civil Assizes last evening to return a sealed verdict in the action brought against Thomas Timmins of Owen Sound by Sarah Jane Waring for alleged breach of promise. The defendant claimed that when they were driving to the Durham Fair, in 1899, they became engaged, and that Timmins, after a year and a half, in January of last year she came to Toronto, and for want of money the date of the marriage was postponed. Timmins afterwards refused to marry Miss Waring. She has been at domestic service since, earning money to support herself and child. Nearly a year ago, John N. Lee was killed at the Ontario Hotel, and the defendant, who owned the hotel, was in an elevator accident. His family now lives on April 24. Letters to the alleged, were also sent to the plaintiff's roomers, telling them of her action, and asking them to return after Mrs. Waring had been ejected and when the defendant would be in charge. Mrs. Waring, who was in charge yesterday, had her only means of livelihood removed by the receipt of the letters, and she asked a jury to award her $2000 damages. The plaintiff's evidence had only been heard when the court adjourned.

The Perpetrator for To-day is

Natness v. Moore, and for to-day is Barrie v. Arthur and other cases, Kingston v. Mahaffy, Savers v. Stevenson.

Police Court Record.

Robert Thompson was sent to jail for 60 days by Magistrate Denison yesterday for stealing a quantity of silverware from Mrs. Arden of 10 College-street on Labor Day. Samuel Warden, for assault and robbing Peter Malone, got two months in jail. A fine of $5 and costs was imposed on William Moore for being disorderly. Thomas Hill, who had been six months for stealing a bag of coal from his employer, T. H. Milne, Magistrate Douglas sentenced him to 30 days in jail for pleading guilty to the same offense. William John Nagle was fined $10 and costs for 30 days.

Left No Will.

Application was made in the Surrogate Court yesterday for power to administer the estate of the late Mary A. Gilbert, widow, who died intestate, leaving no children, but two grand children. The estate is $888.33 in personalty and $700 in a lot on Dundas-street, Toronto, and in one in Trenton, N. J. Malouin died last month without having made a will. His widow, of Westwood, County, seeks permission to administer his estate, which consists of $25 in life insurance.

Trespass Alleged.

William and Lillian Armour have instituted a suit against George W. Bell for $2000 for damages for alleged trespass, assault and battery. The plaintiffs were tenants of the defendants.

High Court Cases.

The following cases have been set down for argument to-day in the High Court before Mr. Justice Ritchie: Slater v. Wilson, for injunction re $8 N. E. Arthur, to set aside award; re Solicitor, appeal from report; Wilson v. Butler, for judgment on pleadings.

Sir Oliver as Plaintiff.

Sir Oliver Mowat has entered a suit against George F. Hope of Belleville, assignee of Mowat & Co., hardware merchants of Toronto, to have it declared that he holds some of the company's assets, in which Sir Oliver claims a share.

Alleged Breach of Contract.

The Pulp Plant Company of Toronto is suing M. B. Leese and T. B. Baird of Toledo, Ohio, for $20,000, for breach of contract. The company bought from the defendants a patent for making pulp plaster. The patent is disputed by Mr. Robinson of Toronto, and the company is now suing this action to protect themselves in the event of being held liable for damages by Robinson, who has entered a suit.

Release Not Granted.

Judgment has been reserved in the motion made for the release of Morgan, the Barrie young man, who was sentenced to three months' imprisonment for pocket picking.

Suing the City.

W. E. Gibson has filed a suit against the city for $100, being a balance claimed to be due for work on the Queen-street Subway.

A "SWEET" STOMACH

OLD TIMER VISITS TORONTO.

William Halley of Chicago Returns After 30 Years' Absence.

Among the many American visitors to Toronto this week and last was Mr. William Halley of Chicago, a well-known Toronto newspaper man and a merchant of former years. His presence here recalls many reminiscences of bygone times. In 1872, in connection with others, he established the first daily newspaper in Toronto, The Daily Express, which was subsequently united with The Daily Patriot. Mr. Halley was at one time connected with The Daily Colonist, and was Toronto's first city editor. He was for years well-known to the newspaper press of the country, having been proprietor of the Ontario Printers' Emporium, situated at the corner of King and Bay-streets, and was the first Canadian agent of Miller & Richard, of Scotch type fame.

Many Prominent Friends.

On the occasion of his departure, which was honored at a public banquet in the Ross House, by the publishers and business men of the city. Among many friends he met were Sir Oliver Mowat, the present Lieutenant-Governor; the late Chief Justice Adam Wilson, the Hon. George Brown and Sir Frank Scott, Senator O'Donoghue, Frank Stanley, Christopher Manning, John Ross Robertson, Christopher Fraser, Hon. Charles Clark and the late Mayor Bowser. Mr. Halley was prominent as a director of the Mechanics' Institute, and was the initiator of the popular evening entertainments kept up for years in the present city library building. Notwithstanding his 30 years of absence, Mr. Halley is in his hands and mind but little in his personal appearance. He is enthusiastic over his visit to Toronto, which he considers the handsomest and best regulated city on the Continent, and may possibly be induced to return here.

Borne to the Grave.

Many Funerals in the City Yesterday Largely Attended.

Many friends and relatives were present at the funeral yesterday afternoon of the late John J. Girvin, which took place from his late residence, 725 West Front-street, to St. Michael's Cemetery. At St. Mary's Church a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father O'Leary, assisted by Rev. Daniel Murray as sub-deacon. The choir rendered "The Mass" in service. The deceased was born in Ireland, and was married to Mrs. Girvin, Mrs. George Girvin and Mrs. William. There were present large representatives from the various churches, St. Clement's Club and the St. Mary's Literary and Athletic Club. Many beautiful floral tributes were sent by friends.

Father Brennan, who also officiated at the funeral. The deceased was born in Ireland, and was married to Mr. Strohman. The funeral was largely attended by friends of the deceased.

The remains of the late James Maloney

were laid to rest in St. Michael's Cemetery. At St. Michael's Church a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Brennan, who also officiated at the funeral. The deceased was born in Ireland, and was married to Mrs. Maloney. The funeral was largely attended by friends of the deceased.

HELD FOR A RANSOM.

Bulgarian Brigands Kidnap an American Missionary.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Bulgarian brigands, instead of Turks, kidnaped Miss Ellen H. Stone, the American missionary in Turkey, according to the latest advices from the State Department. Constantinople dispatches have stated that Bulgarian brigands crossed the Turkish border, and seized Miss Stone, carried her back into Bulgaria and outside of Turkish jurisdiction. The Constantinople dispatches have been in communication with the brigands, who demand a ransom for the release of the missionary. The State Department has been informed of the kidnapping, and has been transmitting the matter to the Bulgarian government. Miss Stone was a resident of Chelsea, Mass., where her mother now resides.

TEXAN RACE WAR.

Somerville, Texas, Sept. 24.—A race riot was started here last night, and several hundred shots were fired before the riot broke and fled. One negro is dead, and two men are seriously wounded. D. W. Lewis was hit in the left eye and was probably dying. Governor Sayers dispatched troops from Breham, 14 miles from here, to quell the riot. A large number of armed citizens accompanied them. The troops will search the woods for the rioters, and will arrest the trouble makers. The trouble arose over the employment of a negro brakeman by a railroad, the road paying a bounty to the white men to keep them away from the negroes. A train was fired on last night with the results noted above, the trainmen and their sympathizers returning the fire of the mob.

Mr. Firth's Farewell.

The farewell concert of Mr. W. Francis Firth has been announced for the evening of Thursday, Oct. 17, in the Guild Hall. Mr. Firth is about to leave Toronto, to reside for a year or more in Italy, for the purpose of study and recreation. A large number of his admirers are expected to attend the concert, which he has appeared before in the highest order of which mark him as an artist above the rest. He is a young man, and his farewell concert may be his last. He carries with him his best wishes for his success while abroad.

Jeremiah Wilson, Senior Counsel for Adolphus Schley, suddenly expired. Washington, Sept. 24.—The Schley Court of Inquiry was brought to a sudden termination for the day, eighteen minutes after opening this morning by the announcement of the sudden death of Judge Jeremiah Wilson, senior counsel for Adolphus Schley. The announcement was made to the court by Hon. Adolphus Schley, assistant counsel, in the following language: "I have a very sad announcement to make to the court. I have just heard of the death of Judge Wilson, counsel for the defendant. He died at 10 o'clock this morning slightly indisposed. We have confirmed the rumor that the telephone that he has just died at the Shoreham Hotel, and I would respectfully ask the court, if it meets with the approval of the court, to adjourn for to-day."

SUTHERLAND SAYS NO.

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—Mr. Sutherland was kept busy yesterday and to-day day with reports that he was to be Sir Louis Davies' successor in the Cabinet. Telegrams of congratulation came pouring upon him from all quarters of the country. The reason for taking away the portfolio from the Maritime Provinces, he decided to do so, would be on account of the decreased representation that will follow the next redistribution of seats in the House of Commons. Mr. Sutherland will, no doubt, be asked to take the vacant portfolio for Ontario, but it is doubtful if he will accept. It is understood that he has already declined an offer of a department.

A Beautiful Exhibit of Art Pottery and Brass Hammered Ware for Wedding Presents.

An addition to our stocks on the ground floor that will interest many shoppers consists of eighteen cases of Art Pottery and Brass Hammered Ware—a good big stock of one line you will say—but then this store does things on a big scale.

The Art Pottery is largely of the new art school in design and coloring. Students of art will appreciate the exhibit. Everyone will admire it. Some of the Art Pottery has been bought at fully one-third less than regular price and is so marked for sale. The lot includes:

- Beautiful designs in vases, ashtrays, umbrella stands, ash trays, jewel trays, vases, jardines and plaques.

The Hammered Brass Ware is very odd, unique and withal pretty goods. You are not likely to have seen such a nice exhibit of this class of goods before, and which includes:

- Brass hammered scones, candlesticks, umbrella stands, ash trays and many other specialties.

The invitation is to everyone to call at the store and ask to see this exhibit. Do not tell yourself about buying things this is desired. We want Toronto people and visitors to see these goods—so different from anything that you see elsewhere.

Out of a large range of goods in the store that are specially suited for wedding presents we do not know of anything, perhaps, that fits in better for these occasions than the two lines just mentioned.
