In connection with Contractor Dickenson's claim on the filtering basin work that the contract price was $20.375, there had been paid $14,300, leaving to be paid, with $424.80 for extras, the sum of $6490,80.

The contractor was 300 days behind time, meaning a forfeit of $6900, but this was not deducted. The account was referred to 'Ald, 'Birrell, Walkace and McFadden.

The Street Railway Company offered to renew its contract for watering the street by a tank for $1500 a year or furnish the power for $1300, the city to duy the kind of sprinkler it liked best.

Police Points.

The local authorities received from the warden of the Central Prison photographs of Joseph Kaufman, the shopliffer, who is awaiting sentence for robbery. Kaufman spent a year in that prison, and was looked upon as a desperate man. Charles P. Tuckett was acquitted at the Police Court this morning of a charge of pointing a revolver at eld Bob King, the street preacher. The evidence showed that the article which Tuckett pointed at King was a whistle.

The making of butter on farms leads to great variation in the quality, owing to the difference in methods used on the farms. While a choice article of dairy manufacture will bring a higher price than creamery butter, yet creamery butter is more uniform, as the milk from a large nore uniform, as the units from a large number of farms is handled at the same factory. There are a few dairles which sell butter at two or three times the regu-lar price, but they are exceptions.

RICHMOND HILL.

Rev. Mr. Wellwood is making very slow progress towards recovery from the injuries received by his accident about two weeks ago, and is still confined to his room. The Village Council met last evening under the chairmanship of Reeve Savage, and concluded their business for the present year. There is no talk of any opposition to the present members of the Village Council or the School Board, and it is almost certain that both bodies will be constituted next year the same as this. If the weather continues cold, the Hockey Club hope to play for the first time to-day.

The Methodist Church choir, under Mr. A. J. Hume's able leadership, will next Sunday give a special musical service. The Rev. Mr. Leggat of Whitevale will be the preacher. The Sunday School shohars will give their annual Christmas entertainment on Christmas night. There will be a capital program, and the usual distribution of gifts by Santa Claus. Rev.
