tinued good demand for cash article, sustaining features. Outside interests light, altho market displayed signs of broadening. Home situation, as well as foreign, is strong and possibilities are all in favor of holders. Buy September and December wheat on all slight recessions.

J. R. Heintz & Co. wired R. B. Holden:
Wheat—Offerings were light and the buying first-class. There was a few scattered lots of May from $1.29 to $1.2945.
The situation certainly justifies higher values and every little recession should be taken advantage of to buy wheat. It really looks as the July might prove an old crop future instead of a new one. Cash premiums have shown a gain in nearly all the markets.

Corn—The cash market is in a very strong position, but we see nothing to change our views. Take profits on the buiges.

Oats—Have followed corn. Most of the Cash—Have followed corn. Most of the cash first at the cash article, sustaining features at $8.40 and straight lots at $8.25 per cwt., weighed off cars.
