

The Opening Game Today Larry and the Leafs

ALL READY TO LIFT BASEBALL CURTAIN

Manager Lajoie Will Use
Bunny Hearn in the Opening Game.

This afternoon will see the opening of the baseball season for 1917 locally. If the weather is favorable, the Leafs arrived home last night in good shape after their long road trip and Manager Lajoie expressed himself as being satisfied with the showing of the team on the whole. The thought manager himself is in good condition and is expected to show the Toronto fans some real major league stuff. Hearn will be his choice for the battery work in the initial game, with Kelly behind the bat. The Baltimore team also arrived last night, and Manager Dunn stated that he had the team to beat this year. The Birds have been going at a great clip this season and on form will be hard to dislodge from first position. Dunn has a new team from last year, the only survivors being Catchers McAvoy and Schaufele, Left Fielder Lamar and Pitchers Thorpe, Mahan, Bentley and Sherman. Williams at first base comes from Washington; Truesdale at second, last year with Toronto; Shannon, the shortstop, is an Athletic discard, while Third Baseman Bues is the well-known major leaguer. In the field he has Barker, late of Washington and Acosta, a speedy Cuban, who also was with the Senators for a while. The game this afternoon will be called at 3:15 and will be preceded by a band concert and the usual flag-raising ceremonies. Mayor Church and Sir Alan Ayerworth will address the players after the game. It is expected that many of the convalescent soldiers will take advantage of the invitation extended to them by President McCaffrey and will attend the game as his guests. The teams will probably line up as follows:
