DIKEMAN'S

Dress Materials
That are in Great Demand

Fashion decreed that SATIN STRIPES would be the correct thing for summer wear, the people agreed as the material was both attractive and serviceable. Nearly everyone requiring a new dress wanted it in this material. The first lot sold out quickly, a repeat has just come to hand in all the new colors such as taupe, wistaria, ketwaha, mole, purple, brown and blue.

There are two prices. The 75 CENT QUALITY is an all wool French material, finely woven, with a rich lustrous satin finish, with stripes about one-quarter of an inch wide.

THE $1.00 QUALITY is slightly heavier, a little finer wool is used, it is 48 inches wide.

We are showing something new in STRIPED PANAMA for summer dresses. It is 54 INCHES WIDE, all wool, and only 50 CENTS A YARD. It comes in the popular shades of blues and browns with a white stripe about an inch apart. A splendid material for separate skirts or shirt waist suits. A great bargain at this price.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning Carl Hanrickson was charged with intoxication and profanity on Water street last evening. He admitted the charges. However, Patrolman McCollom testified that Hanrickson, who is a stevedore, had been ejected from Charles Lannon's saloon on Water street, and while standing on the pavement intermingled profanity in vulgarizing his grievances. A fine of $12 or 10 days was imposed.

John McDonald was fined $4 or ten days for intoxication on Westmorland Road.

The policemen were busily engaged in extinguishing bon fires last night. Firemen Ward and McCollom extinguished one of the fires on Drury Lane, but it was rekindled and again extinguished. Firemen Scott and McLaren were summoned from police headquarters to extinguish a bon fire on Princess street and another on St. James street.

McKINNEY'S HORSE REBELLED AT LAST

Equine Owned by James McKinney, a Former Wood Hawker, Could Not Stand Drive to Mispec.

After traversing the streets of St. John for night on to a quarter of a century, a horse owned by James McKinney, rebelled on Monday morning, June 23, and early Tuesday morning, left vehicle, harness and Mr. McKinney in the village, and hid himself to the city, westward of ten miles.

Not professing to be afflicted with Marstonitis, McKinney was compelled to search for the runaway animal. In the meantime the horse had reached the city and on Tuesday morning Patrolman James Ross spotted him, cartilageless, on Brunswick street. He was quite docile and did not object to being placed in Weatherhead's stable on Union street, where he was provided with feed.

McKinney arrived in the city last night, and ascertained that his horse was in the stable, he visited the proprietor for the purpose of reclaiming the equine. However, he was informed that it was necessary to obtain the consent of the chief of police before the animal could be removed. McKinney implored them to turn his horse over to him, as the mail was delayed in being delivered. This morning he sought Chief Clark, but the lates were apparently against him, as the chief departed from his office a few minutes before Mr. McKinney's advent. Subsequently he was communicated with and sanctioned the removal of the horse, subject to payment of baiting. Mr. McKinney was formerly a wood huckster.

PLEASE BE EARLY

Patrons of "Miss Hersey from Jersey" Tonight are Requested to Be in Their Seats on Time

The first production of "Miss Hersey From Jersey," by the St. John Dramatic Club at the Opera House, will be the principal amusement feature today. Because of the play's excellent work in "Caprice" and "A Sailor's Sweetheart," this latest production has been awaited with keen interest. Those who have seen the rehearsals of Miss Hersey from Jersey say it will be the best yet given here. It is a screwy funny three act comedy, with characters which will test the ability of the members of the club. As the advance sale of seats indicates a very large attendance at all performances, the club particularly requests that all patrons shall be in their seats on time. A special ladies' and children's matinee will be given on Saturday afternoon. At the final production on Saturday evening the newboys of St. John will occupy the gallery.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO BOOM AQUATICS

The Interesting Story of the Last Attempt That Was Made

Another attempt is to be made to revive interest in aquatic sports in St. John. It is hoped this one will prove more successful than the last. In the early spring of last year a four-oared crew joined the Every Day Club to row under its colors. Uniforms in the club's colors were secured, and the prospect seemed good. Then a change was made in the crew by one member dropping out. Later a race at Seaside Park with other sports were planned, and Mr. Coates arranged to meet in a four-oared crew for the Naptunes. But before the day of the sports arrived two of the Every Day Club crew went away without notifying the club, and the whole affair had to be called off. The Every Day Club then and there dropped aquatic sports.
