ments unknown in any other mission field, there is much to encourage those whose expectation is from the Lord. Thus, one of the Society's missionaries, the Rev. Dr. Stern, has himself within the last ten years baptized nearly two hundred Jews and Jewesses; and the baptismal register in the Chapel of the Society in Palestine Place, London, which till within the last few years was the centre of the Society's Home Mission, contains the names of more than 800 Jewish people who during the last twenty years publicly avowed their faith in Christ crucified.

And in that country where the pioneer missionary laborer, Henry Martyn, gave his life for the Gospel's sake, it is cheering to know that from thence urgent calls have been received from Jews themselves for Christian instruction which have been responded to by the Society, which is now establishing a vigorous, and as it is to be hoped a permanent, mission in Persia.

The sums received by the Board for these Societies during the year 1881-2 have been as follows:—For the Foreign Missions of the S. P. G. $385.70; for the C. M. S. $80.66; and for the S. P. C. Jews, $178.08. The Board gladly notice an increasing interest in the work of Foreign Missions throughout the Diocese, evidenced by an increase in the number of parishes or missions sending contributions from 34 in 1879-80, and 30 in 1880-1, to 39 in the year now closed.

All of which is respectfully submitted,
