RESIGNS HIS PASTORATE IN CHICAGO

Rev. Dr. Morison, Formerly of St. David's Here

NOT PREACHER ALONE

Cause is Uncompromising Antagonism to Conditions Which Make Pastors There Society Presidents, Trustees, Bond Brokers and Even Bill Collectors

Rev. Dr. John A. Morison, formerly of St. David's church here and for the last six years in charge of the First Presbyterian church in Chicago has resigned his pastorate there. The news will interest as well as surprise St. John friends. The reason of his resignation is told in the following Chicago despatch:

"When Dr. Morison came here six years ago from a church in St. John, N. B., he said he expected his salary would be paid to him for services as a theologian and a preacher. At the end of his pastorate he finds himself at the head of a dozen organizations, despotic in character, while each is regarded as important as the duties of the pulpit."

Rev. Dr. Morison was in newspaper work before entering the ministry. When he came to St. David's he soon showed himself a strong man and he secured a firm hold upon the good will and affections of his people as well as making friends and sure among citizens of all religious beliefs. That the place and people are also held in kindly remembrance by him is shown in the fact that some time after going to Chicago he purchased a summer home near Carter's Point on St. John's river, and he and Mrs. Morison and their daughter have spent several summers there.
