

Social Notes of Interest

Mrs. Heber Vroom, regent of the Municipal Chapter of the I. O. E., entertained the Municipal executive at luncheon at the Admiral Beatty yesterday, in honor of Miss Irene Ward of Newcastle-on-Tyne, England. The table was centered with a vase of pink roses and narcissi. Those present were Miss Ward, Mrs. Frederick B. Taylor, first vice-president; Mrs. J. William Hart, Mrs. J. H. McIntyre, Miss McIntyre, Miss Frances P. Alward and Miss Alice Lockhart.

Lieut. Paul B. Cross, Sub-Lieut. W. M. B. Fenton, and Paymaster, Sub-Lieut. P. P. Coombs, of the Saint John company, R. C. N., V. R., were hosts at a naval ball at company headquarters last evening for the members of the company and their lady friends. Simplicity in the decorations was notable, flags only being used in the decorative scheme. The Merry Makers four piece Orchestra provided excellent music for the program of 15 dances which included specialties in the form of a balloon and tag dance. During the evening balloons and other favors were given to the guests, greatly adding to the merriment of the evening. A delicious supper was served at 10:30 o'clock. Regrets at their inability to attend were received from Colonel Commandant W. B. Anderson, C.M.G., D.S.O., and Lt.-Col. Herbert C. Taylor, D.S.O. Other special guests invited were Major George Oland, Col. E. T. Sturdee, V.D., S.S., and Lieut. John Kimball, R.N.R.

Mrs. Adam MacIntyre, Rockland road, gave a very enjoyable afternoon tea at her residence yesterday afternoon. Ophelia roses and yellow candles in silver candlesticks completed the artistic arrangement of the drawing room, and scarlet geraniums were effectively used in the decoration of the hall and in the dining room. The prizes for the highest scores were won by Miss Quinton and Mrs. W. A. Henderson, and the travel prizes by Mrs. George Keefe. At the tea hour Mrs. D. L. Hutchinson presided and was assisted by Mrs. W. E. Rowley, Mrs. John S. Addy, Mrs. Charlton Berrie, Miss Quinton and Miss Marjorie MacIntyre. The guests were Mrs. James H. Frink, Mrs. D. D. Foster, Mrs. J. B. M. Baxter, Mrs. Frank Robertson, Mrs. Frank MacDonald, Mrs. E. L. Rivington, Mrs. E. Nixon, Mrs. T. H. Estabrooks, Mrs. Tilton, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. Max McCarthy, Mrs. W. A. Henderson, Mrs. Reginald Wright, Mrs. Palmer Kinsman, Mrs. Grant Smith, Mrs. W. E. Rowley, Mrs. Horace Black, Mrs. John McLean, Mrs. Reginald Schofield, Mrs. Thorne, Mrs. George Murray, Mrs. Charlton Berrie, Mrs. Hammond Evans, Mrs. W. B. Tennant, Mrs. Charles Scott, Mrs. MacLure Saunders, Mrs. A. H. Merrill, Mrs. Harry Warwick, Mrs. D. L. Hutchinson, Mrs. W. H. Shaw, Mrs. C. H. Ferguson, Mrs. John S. Addy, Miss Quinton, Miss Sylvia Ferguson, Miss Hilda Shaw and Miss Beatrice Frink.

Mrs. W. E. Rowley entertained very informally at bridge at her residence, Wellington Row, on Thursday afternoon, in honor of Miss Patricia Gratton Esmond.

Mrs. Robert W. Hawker, 40 Summer street, gave a small but very enjoyable bridge at her residence on Thursday evening. The fortunate prize winners were Miss Jean Nixon and Miss Belle Howe.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Hamm entertained delightfully at bridge at their residence, 76 Dorchester street, last evening. Yellow chrysanthemums and greenery were effectively used in the drawing room and in the dining room yellow and white chrysanthemums centered the supper table. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. Palmer Kinsman, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Earle, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. McLean, Dr. and Mrs. Percival Bonnell, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Marri, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nicholas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Christie, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Titus and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Smith.

Mrs. Lloyd B. Estey entertained a few friends at her residence, 183 King street east, in honor of Mrs. Russell Evans, who is moving in the near future to Toronto to reside.

Mrs. Frederick R. Taylor entertained the executive of the Municipal Chapter at her residence, 206 Germain street, yesterday afternoon at the tea hour in honor of Miss Irene Ward of Newcastle-on-Tyne, England. At the tea table Mrs. Laurence MacLaren presided and was assisted by Mrs. Arthur N. Carter and Miss Doris DeVocher.

A number of friends of Miss Amelia J. Haley called at her home on Thursday evening and tendered her a surprise party. Miss Haley is leaving for New York on December 10 and expects to sail from that city the following week for San Juan, Porto Rico, where she will spend two months visiting her sister. During the evening a

All the dirt will come out if we "do your washing." We have machines that are designed to take such a job as this off the shoulders of any woman.

Send us your wash.
Phone M. 390
CITY WET WASH
90 City Road
Wet Wash or Rough Dry.

Mrs. H. B. Robinson was the hostess at a small tea at her residence, Germain street, yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Ward C. Haen, of Yarmouth, N. S. At the prettily arranged tea table, which was centered with yellow daisy chrysanthemums. Mrs. Frederick B. Schofield presided and was assisted by Mrs. Campbell MacKay, Miss Ethel Sidney-Smith and Miss Clara Schofield.

Miss Harriet Vincent was the hostess at a small bridge at her home, Garden street, last evening in honor of her guests, greatly adding to the merriment of the evening. A delicious supper was served at 10:30 o'clock. Regrets at their inability to attend were received from Colonel Commandant W. B. Anderson, C.M.G., D.S.O., and Lt.-Col. Herbert C. Taylor, D.S.O. Other special guests invited were Major George Oland, Col. E. T. Sturdee, V.D., S.S., and Lieut. John Kimball, R.N.R.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Robertson, Summer street, entertained at a small but very enjoyable bridge on Thursday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Peters. The prize winners were Mrs. Ralph Fowler, Mrs. W. E. Golding, Mrs. Ralph Fowler and Mr. Frank Likely. Mrs. Peters was awarded the special guest prize. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gough, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Golding, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. H. Fielding Rankine, Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilford Campbell and Mrs. Harold O. Evans have issued cards for an at home on Thursday, December 10, at Mrs. Campbell's residence, Leinster street.

Miss Mabel and Miss Florence Gilbert, Paddock street, will sail on the S. S. Montrose today for England where they will meet their cousin, Miss Elizabeth Gilbert, and with her and other friends will spend the winter in Italy and the south of France.

BOYS' CONFERENCE MEETS IN MONCTON

Taylor Slatten, Y. M. C. A. National Secretary, Speaks; Officers Chosen

MONCTON, Dec. 4.—An Older Boys' Conference opened in the Highfield Baptist church here this evening under the auspices of the Maritime Religious Education Council, with Norman Coates in the chair. After organization of squares, officers were elected as follows: Proctor, Franklin Forbest, Moncton; deputy proctor, Robert Fawcett, Sackville; scriptor, David Rodger, Amherst; comptor, Frank Black, Moncton.

Taylor Slatten, of Toronto, National Boys' Work secretary of the Y. M. C. A., gave an address. Sessions will be held tomorrow and Sunday.

SPEAKS AT LUNCHEON.
Taylor Slatten, national Y. M. C. A. boys' work secretary, was the speaker at the Y's Men's Club luncheon at the Masonic Temple here today. L. P. Stratton was chairman. Mr. Slatten spoke on his work among the boys from the Atlantic to the Pacific, saying that the boys in the west seemed to take the Fuxis and Trail Ranger work more seriously than those of the east and consequently the movement was much further advanced there.

Charles L. Woods, formerly of the writing staff of the Moncton Daily Times, left today for Halifax, where he will join the staff of the Herald.

HOLD CONVENTION.
The quarterly meeting of District No. 2 is being held in the Reformed Baptist church in this city. Among the delegates here are Misses Jean and Helen Duff, of Westchester, N. S.; Noah Hicks, of Lower Millstream, N. B.; Rev. Mr. Kimball, of Fort Fairfield, Me., and Rev. P. J. Trafton, of Saint John; Mrs. Walter M. Steves, of Hillsboro, N. B. Rev. P. J. Trafton, president of the convention, addressed a large gathering last evening.

Spode China $3.60

Spode—the royalty of all China—obtainable only at Hayward's, leaders for seventy years. In special Gift assortment at a mere $3.60 for Cup and Saucer.

Spode for $3.60—it hardly seems true. Not only that but a most exquisite variety in both color and treatment. Delicately lined borderings or motifs of flowers or fruits, as the case may be. Or solid blues, greens, shades of rose, maroon. In some a central basket of flowers, a pheasant or bird of paradise scene, or even an oriental setting. Give Spode and you give rarity. Depend on Hayward's to have far more of everything.

W. H. HAYWARD CO. LTD.
85 Princess St.

The Gift Magnificent == Give to All == Year to Pay

WHAT'S nearest the hearts of every one in the Family? The Home. What ever can mean so much Home Happiness as a three-piece Chesterfield suite? And where else can you see such beauties as at J. Marcus Ltd. From every standpoint the Marcus exhibits stand supreme—lower prices from larger buying—double guarantees—an overwhelming selection—and, above all, value and good taste.

Give everybody pleasanter evenings and Sundays. Make Home more attractive to Family and Friends. Live! Gain the comfort all so easily afford with a whole year to pay. What have we earned when the day's work is done? The right to rest and recreation in a world of our own—Home then make the setting and scenery of that Home World do us all the good it can. No neater moment than Christmas to put it across. But come down now to J. Marcus Ltd. so you'll have no regrets about not choosing in time. A few scattered hints now follow. All guaranteed mothproof both by makers and by J. Marcus.

Down Cushions

Rose shot Taupe Mohair—bow outline back continued round on an in-curving arm line—kidney front. Down filled cushions matching the whole on one side but reversible into a cameo cut oriental motif stressing Jade Blue and delicate Browns. True worth of Chesterfield, Club Chair and framed Coxwell Armchair—$600—provided by Marcus buying at $485. Year to pay.

$350 Suite, $260

Mole hue Mohair, carved Walnut bow front frame. Spring cushions with cameo cut acanthus leaves done in Cherry and Adriatic Blue. Chesterfield, Club Chair and Wing Back Chair—true worth, $350. Marcus buying advantages provide at $260. Year to pay.

3 Pieces == $125

Tapestry of fine grade in a play of forest hues. Chesterfield, Wing back Chair and Club Chair to match—Marcus pricing, $125. Year to pay.

Mohair == $179

Rose shot Walnut or Taupe Mohair. Embossed Mohair cushions and frontal insertion. True value for suite of three, $260—Marcus buying brings it to you for $179.

Antique Touch

Seal Brown Mohair with cushions reversing at will into rich color design. Arms like the tilted antique "S" complete $375 suite of three—Marcus buying power delivers for $282. Year to pay.

A Whole Year to Pay—select better right away. Free storage and insurance until Christmas delivery. Free freight.

J. Marcus
Furniture, Rugs
30-36 DOCK ST.

Come Tonight! A Dazzling Array of Gift Merchandise In Annex Show Room

Take the short cut in Holiday Shopping, it leads to this beautiful Christmas show room—you can't help but catch the Yuletide spirit here—every turn of the head reveals a gift solution and every ticket reveals a price that helps make your gift money go farther.

Dainty Gift China

Cups and Saucers in many floral designs or colored with silhouette designs. Special 49c.
Octagon shapes in Sandwich Plates and Salad Plates colored with silhouette and bird designs. Special 58c. each
Novelty Salt and Pepper Shakers, many shapes. Prices 25c. to 65c. pair
Lustre China Vases in colors. 49c.
Old English Pottery pieces for gifts 10c. to $1.45 each

Silverene and Other Gifts

Silverene Vases, Photo Frames, Marmalade Jars 58c. ea.
Japanese Pottery, Vases, Flower Bowls, etc. Prices 49c. to 85c.
Ebony Hat Brushes, 58c.—Military Brushes neatly boxed, $1.75 a Set.
Brass Crumb Trays with Brush $1.65 a Set.
Metal Boudoir Lamps with Silk Shades and White Silk Cord. Complete. $4.75
Also Mechanical Toys, Dolls and Home Games to no end.

London House

F. W. DANIEL & CO. HEAD KING ST.

CELEBRATE THEIR 35TH ANNIVERSARY

Tributes Paid to Mr. and Mrs. P. McIntyre, East Saint John

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip McIntyre of East Saint John, was the scene of a happy event Thursday evening on the occasion of their 35th wedding anniversary. They were delightfully surprised when a large number of members of Fairmount Lodge L. O. B. A. of which Mrs. McIntyre has been Worthy Mistress for two years, and other friends in the community assembled at their home to offer congratulations and gifts.

Rev. W. R. Pepper who performed the marriage ceremony, and Mrs. Pepper, were present. Mr. Pepper offered a prayer of thankfulness for their happy and useful years of wedded life, of those honored and petitioned that there might be many more years of prosperity and happiness.

On behalf of Fairmount Lodge, Rev.

Mr. Pepper presented to Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre a beautiful electric parlor lamp. He also presented a half dozen cut glass frappe glasses, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heald.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre feigningly responded.

Mrs. McIntyre was formerly Miss Helen Greer, of St. Martins. Mr. McIntyre is engaged in the lumber business being of the firm of McIntyre and Johnston.

The evening was delightfully spent in games and old fashioned songs. Delicious refreshments were served, including a wedding cake and ice-cream. Those assisting in serving were Mrs. Willis McIntyre, Mrs. Horace Greer, Mrs. W. Woodroffe, and Miss Fenne Pepper.

Before dispersing the guests formed a circle around the bride and groom of 35 years and after extending their good wishes sang "For They are a Jolly Good Couple" and "Good Night Ladies."

CALL TO P. E. I.
Rev. J. S. Bonnell, minister of St. Andrew's Kirk, will be absent from his pulpit on Sunday, having been called to Prince Edward Island because of the serious illness of a friend.

Just Arrived!

A REMARKABLE collection of Gifts in COMMUNITY PLATE at $1 and up.

GUNDY'S

The Leading Jewellery and Gift Shop
Adam Carving Set.

