WEDNESDAY—PALACE—THURSDAY

"No—I don't know Him, at all!"

Of course Daphne fished, and the boy would have gone to jail rather than confess he'd jumped out of Daphne's window only five minutes before.
But it was midnight, and the scandal started.
From one scandal to another she stepped with innocent feet.
Expelled, disgraced, forgiven and married to a bigamist all in a month.
And Old Dad's arms were the safe anchorage she made in every storm.

COMPARED TO HER CLEOPATRA WAS A BABY

It's a cinch Cleopatra had a flock of press agents that would make a modern vamp appear stupid. At any rate famous series like Caesar and Mark Anthony and others whom I never hear of, were on her payroll.
But—
There was another woman who lived several hundred years after Cleopatra who could have given her cards and spades and then defeated her in the game of love. Compared to this other woman, Cleopatra was a baby in arms. "Theodora, Empress of the Roman Empire" deserves a place in the Temple of Fame far more prominent than that of Cleopatra.
YES—
Theodora was some vamp. She started out in life the daughter of a lion tamer, and because she was beautiful she used her knowledge of beasts, in taming men, among them the Emperor Justinian who was then emperor of that part of the world that was civilized.
WELL—
Anyway Theodora was only a woman after all, and fell for a young geezer who was the cause of her downfall.
Oh! Boy.

AQUATIC Reception for Belyea.
A reception was tendered Belyea at his home in Middle street, West St. John, last evening by a large number of friends and admirers. Addresses were given by J. C. Chesley, J. A. Gregory, Frank White, Captain A. J. Muleady and Commissioner R. W. Wignmore. At the conclusion of the addresses cheering was given for Belyea. Hilton expressed his thanks for the reception tendered him. He also announced that he would defend his Canadian title if he can satisfy himself as to his condition. A new shell is being constructed for him as the St. John was badly strained in the race at Philadelphia.

To Seek U. S. Women's Titles.
Miss Hilda James, a sensational English swimmer, will compete in the national women's championships to be held at the Broad Ripples pool, Indianapolis, on Aug. 10, 11 and 12, according to announcement made by Paul Jordan, chairman of the committee of the Indiana A. A. U., which has charge of the tournament. Miss James, whose home is in Liverpool, has shattered numerous British and world's records in the last year.

Wills Challenges Dempsey.
New York, June 13—Paddy Mullins, manager of Harry Wills, the negro boxer, today formally challenged Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world to a contest for the title and posted a $2,500 forfeit with the New York state boxing commission in accordance with its regulations. Whether the commission would permit such a mixed bout was not decided. A delegation of colored sportsmen, including George Moore, of Oregon, was told that when such a match was made the commission "would follow the usual procedure," but would not pass upon the matter in advance.
