joy good health, let

n-ligestion, Headscho, hers, Coughs, Tighinesa less, Sour Ernotations of Paste in the Mouth, Ed-tion of the Heart, Indizaps, Pain in the region of hundred other painful hundred other painful offsprings of Dysospain, vo a better guarantee of ag hy a ivertisement. ng's Evil, White Swel apelas. Swelled Neck, atory and throats .

sters, Gold-beaters, and vance in life, are subject ases, Eraptions, Tetter.

hes, Spots, Pimples, Pas. emcles, Ringworms, Scald Enysipelas, Itch, Searls, the Sain, Humors and kin of whatever name or y dug up and carried out short time by the use of id other Worms, larked and removed. No systhe system from worms of his, these Conic Biton perceptible.

Vitiated Blood whea-

s will tell you when. Keep id the health of the system

Agents, San Francisco, California p and Charleso Sta., New York. orringgists sand Bosslers.

of Every Des-

The St. Andrews Standard.

Published by A. W. Smith.)

R VARIIS SUMENDAM EST OPTIMUM .- Cic.

($2.50 per Annum in Advance

No. 16.

Saint Andrews, New Brunswick, April 18, 1877.

Vol. 44.

Grand Jury Report.

APRIL SESSIONS, 1877.

.The Grand jury respectfully submit the following Report That they visited the jail in a body, found it in good condition, except some

DUMBARTON.

Accounts correct except Michael Carroll's which is unsatisfactory, and in looking over other papers, find that he holds $19.38 in his hands, and they suggest that he be ordered to hand over the same to his successor in office forthwith.

ST. PATRICK. Accounts examined and found correct. CAMPOBLEO.

Accounts found correct.

Accounts correct excepting Thomas Black's, which the Jury refer to the Sessions for further examination.

PENNFIELD.

$13.75, as paid to Hubert McLachlan, M. book of reference in time to come. D. for medical attendance, but we can find McLachlan's account. The Bye Road Com all Justices having defaulters lists of Taxes missioners account, without vouchers, in hand for collection, and all persons or which were sent to Fredericton, and no bodies having any funds of the County, on District. For Middle (cash) District, we full returns on or before the 1st of June find the full amount of money collected next. and paid out for highways by the Collec- The Jurors are curprised to find so much tor; but do not see any account of how the outstanding debts for County Contingmoney was expended, and would recom- encies, and school funds, especially the mend the matter to be investigated. The Town of St. Stephen. rest of the accounts are correct as far as we can judge from the way in which they JAS. O'NEILL, are kept; but would recommend that a general account by the Treasurer of Commissioners for Alms-House, to whom all monies be paid by the Collector. We re out on North hill, being counted out the fer A. Young's account to the Sessions.

Valuators give some information about it. make one.

by any Justice. C. E. O. Hatheway's bill general account for taking valuation, and corner of the paper. Where a handsome Meer, at Gladbach: item of $4.30 for the conviction of C. W. or stolen. Reynolds, should have been paid by him, and not by he County; also two items of fee of the witnesses should be rendered instant. "Sir," said he to the culprit, affecting the eyes. account of A. W. Smith the charge of I would call you out to-morrow morn-bernood to such a degree that at one hundred long of bed and whaled him soundly for not get that by the ragged edge of winter's pantafeet very fine print could be read, and at two long."

court. A. F. L. Weston's account as Justice of the Peace, is made out in such a way that it is not understood by Jurora. The account of Win. Thompson as Valnator, we recommend to be reduced to $300. We are also of opinion that the amount paid to Valuators for the County plastering required in two or three of the of Charlotte, is greatly in excess of any lower cells; also gutter on west side re- other County in the Province, for the quiring repairs, which they suggested work performed, as we find by Statistics that the County of Northumberland only costs $450 for doing the whole work, and the County of Carleton only costs $182.

In regard to the bills brought in by the Assessors for the different Parishes, we find so wide a difference in the charges, that we recommend it to the enquiry of the Court. Jail committee account examined, and found corret.

We are of opinion that the sum of $3,500 be an assessment for the contingencies of the year 1877.

We have examined the County Treasurer's account and find it correct.

The Grand Jury would recommend in view of the change about to take place in regard to the Municipality Act, that the affairs and all the public accounts of the County, should be definitely closed up, As far as the Jury can see the accounts audited, and reported upon, as soon as convenient, with the change, and the finances of the County should be sent forth We find an item in Thos. B. Goss's ac- and recorded fully and clearly, and also count where he charges the Parish with published in such a manner as to form a

They therefore recommend that the no vouchers, and do not find it credited in Sessions pass an order at once requiring copy kept.-viz, James Dick of Lower whatever account, to make payment and

Respectfully submitted. W. B. MORRIS, Secretary.

IT TAKES TWO TO QUARREL .- A Woman other morning after a debate on the ones-St. James, St. Stephen, St. Croix, Penn-tion, "Who shall arise and build the fire?" field, Clarenden, Lepreaux, Dufferin, ac- got up and split her husband's wooden leg into kindling wood, and broiled his No accounts from Milltown. West Isles steak with it. It made him so mad that accounts correct excepting no vouchers; he got hold of her false teeth and bit the James Dixon's account $7.70, and John dog with them. She cried until she had a fit of hysterics, and then fillipped out his glass eye, and climbed upon the bed-

Moses Parks account is not vouched for

POETRY:

GRANDPA'S SOLILOQUY.

It wasn't se when I was young. We used plain language then We didn't'speak of "them galoots," When meaning boys or men,

When speaking of the nice hand-write Of Joe, or Tom, or Bill, We did it plain-we didn't say, 'He swings a nasty quill."

And when we seed a gall we liked, Who never failed to please, We called her pretty, neat and good, But not " About the cheese.

Well, when we met a good old friend, We hadn't lately seen, We greeted him-but didn't say, "Hello, you old sardine!"

The boys sometimes got mad and fit: We spoke of kicks and blows, But now they "whack him in the snoot," And "paste him on the nose."

Once when a youth was turned away, From her he held most dear. He walked off on his feet-but now We used to dance when I was young,

And used the call it so; But now they don't, they only "sling The light fantastic toe." Of death we spoke in language plain, That no one would perlex;

But "passes in his checks." We praised the man of common sense; His judgement's good, we said; But now they say, "Well that old plum

But in these days one doesn't die-

Has got a level head.' It's rather sad the children now Are learning all such talk ; They've learned to "chin" instead of chat,

And "waltz" instead of walk. To little Harry, yesterday-

I said, "You love grandpa?" Said he, "You bet your boots I do."

The children bowed to strangers once; It is no longer se-The little girls as well as boys, Now greet you with 'ellelle!"

Oh, give me back the good old days, When both the old and young iversed in plain, old-fas And slang was never slung.

A NEW AND BRILLIANT LIGHT. Thes. B. Goss's bill seems reasonable post, and waxed the glaring eye to the compared to other accounts in which the cealing with a quid of chewing gum. Then several places in Germany and France. The having a telephone put into his house, so as to rank absurdities that their very authors and a several places in Germany and France. The having a telephone put into his house, so as to rank absurdities that their very authors are ashamed to own them." "Sir," said A new invention, of a simple and practical parties had to take assistants, but we have he took her whisp of false hair and tied it system consists of electric candles, or sticks of enable him to hold sweet converse with his are ashamed to own them." no bill of items to go by in his accounts, to a stick, and began whitewashing the charcoal, surrounded by isolating matter, which business partner, but his aged mother protest the Judge, "you are forgetting the respect James Dow's bill for printing Valuators' kitchen with it. Then she started off to obtain a divorce, but Judge Newman delike a wick, which slowly melts away under the charge of 131,000 ems at 75 cts each, we do not know whether it is a reasonable charge or not, and recommend that the Valuators give some information about it. A Western newspaper has the following brightest and purest kind. The Erfelder Zei- "Why," said he, "that wasn't a telephone-that dom," who, having stripped off his coat to for office rent, and copying relating to notice: "All notices of marriage, where tung gives the following account by an eye-Val. for's work, we think want some explanation, and as we have not got his small type and poked in an outlandish rendered; Constable's account should be gloves or other bride favors are added, a prece of illustrative poetry will be given services explained. Mark Hall's account, in addition. When however, the editor services explained. Mark Hall's account, in addition. When, however, the editor As soon as it was set in operation, by a small $32.50 in some of the principal items, such attends at the ceremony in person, and steam-power with which it was connected by a as horse and carriage hire, he should fur kisses the bride, it will have special no belt, the immense machine room was instan nish vouchers for each particular case tice-very large type, and most appropri taneously lit up as bright as day. At the en In the accounts of C E. O. Hatheway the ate poetry that can be begged, borrowed, terance of the same there was to be seen one lamp, at a height of fifteen or sixteen feet which gave out a most brilliant and steady A gentleman was dining with a party light. It was so clear that the finest shades of cost of complaint against Dougherty and of Home-Rulers the other night, when McConly should have been paid by them McConly should have been paid by them. somebody insulted the queen. A gallant manner, through the agency of a mirror, that In E. Doggett's account, the travelling and loyal Irishman was on his feet in an a long stay in the room is no wise injurously seven robbers, one after another. Her hus mitted."

seperately, also the reason why the dethe duello is not in fashion; but if you On going into the garden an electric lantern, and felt so brimful of fight that he couldn't dendant's did not pay the costs. In the had made that remark fifty years ago, suddenly lighted, illuminated the whole neighborhood off until he jerked his eight-year-old son hundred and fifty feet larger and ordinary characters were plainly legible. Of the wo derful properties of this electric light we had the cleanest proof and we were further pleased by struggling to get a living. to learn that in this establishment the cost is estimated at a fourth to a sixth of gas light. An Indiana editor mildly remarks: "If you In large rooms, halls, public squares and streets can't bring us wood, remember us in your the electric light, before long, is sure to take prayers. It is something to know as we sit the place of gas as an illuminating agent. In and shiver, that we are not forgotten if the France it is rapidly growing in favor, and is in stove is cold." operation in farty establishments. The immense depot of the Chemin de Fer du Nord at | Why do not printers succeed to the same Paris, is also about to be lighted by this same extent as brewers?-Because printers work for electric system. There is no danger whatever the head and brewers for the stomach; and of fire from it, which gives it an immeasurable where twenty men have stomachs but one has advantage over all other means of illumina- brains. tion. The Paris engineers Gramme, and the Chief-Engineer Von Hefener Alteneck, of the firm of Siemens Halske, in Berlin, were the Job an editor?" "Why Sammy?" "Because first who constructed the new electro-magnetic the Bible says he had much trouble, and was a machines, by means of which a pleasing man of sorrow all the days of his life.' chanical power is converted in a simple and practical manner into electric light. This in. vention is one of the most remarkable of again, and as a recommendation, she says she modern times. "Out-door work can be carried on by night as well as by day with this light, as it expels the darkness and files the atmosphere with an be an angel," it is just as well to to keep the almost sun-like lustre. In the lighting of cities by this new process, the economy, as compared with gas, will be at least 50 per cent. We are evidently on the eve of as great a revolution in lighting as when gas superseded oil lamps and tallow candles." - Philadelphia Press. grabbed $3000 and fled.

A LIVELY SCENE ON A RAILWAY CAR.

As the Missouri Pacific train was leaving ed to stand by the old testament. Miller's Landing, says the St. Louis Republican Monday night, a gentleman came aboard carrying a stick, to which was curiously attached a hornet's nost. He had found it in the woods, and it had the appearance of being tenantless. for hornets. Finally the doors and windows twenty of these electric candles. The cost is she said, "No, no; look at the thousands and not unacquainted." He then briefly recitabout half that of gas, and the light is of the millions of poor Hindoos it killed last fall, ed the story of Strap in "Roderick Ranwas a typhoon; but the old lady lowered her fight, entrusted it to a bystander. mightn't know much, perhaps, but she did had earried it off. Mr. Curran thus ap-> such facts as these: ed the same ground for mining purposes, the encounter, that he seeks to resume it They quarrelled violently during the day. Then -it is in vain that he tries to shelter himthey decided to settle the despute with a fight, self behind an authority which he has A judge and referees were appointed, the en-abandoned." "If you say another word counter was conducted according to the rules I'll commit you," replied the angry judge; of the prize ring, and the victor was awarded to which Mr. C. retorted, "If your lordship band watched her from the top of the stairs

VARIETIES.

The best education in the world is that got

" Pa," said a little fellow the other day, "was

Mrs. Green, a Kansas widow wants to merry used one broom for fourteen years. Even if a boy is always whistling "I want to preserved pears on the top shelf of the pantry. A thie entered the Indiana National Bank at Indianapolis, at noon last week, and placed a small box, which he carried, on the floor stepped upon it, and reached over the railing

Biblical scholars will be pleased to leark that the Vanderbilt heirs have unanimously resolv-

Curran and the Judge.

Among the many anecdotes related of Curran, we cannot help thinking the fol-But when brought into the warm atmosphere lawing, bearing upon the impertinence of the car and placed near the stove, the heat and assumption of Judge Robinson, as awakened its dormant life, and a low humming among the most telling and characteristic noise from the interior warned the embryo attacks of unpremeditated satire upor naturalist and companions in destined misery "bloated empiric" and "puffed pretence," effort to throw the nest from the window re. that ever even Curran afforded to the world. leased the imprisoned insects, and the next This same great Judge Robinson, accordinstant they swarmed through the car, each ing to Lord Brougham, "was the author of individual hornet armed with fury and savagely mrny stupid, slavish, and scurrilous politbent on the war path. They struck right and ical pamphlets; and, by his demerite, left, and everywhere left in their trail a cry of raised to the eminence which he thus discurses loud and deep. But the sorrow waked graced." Curran, very soon after being apace and the misery increased. People called to the Bar, on some statement made by Judge Robinson (before whom he was One fat old lady took a recumbent position, pleading), observed that "he had never and sticking her abnormally developed pedal met the law, as laid down by his Lordship, extremities straight up in the air, executed an in any book in his library." "That may evolution that would have done credit to be Sir," said the Judge; "bat I suspect Soldene's kicker. Polonaises were torn and that your library is very small." Curran replied, "I find it more instructive, my ly extremities were exposed in a frantic search Lord, to study good works than to comwere thrown open and the hornets driven out pose bad ones. My books may be few, but the ti le-pages give me the writers' names think to get at it probably should have it.

James Smart's account is not properly

James Sma ment seat lays it aside for a moment to The Black Hills region continues to furnish uch facts as these: Two desperadoes claimwill do so, we shall both of us have the consolation of reflecting, that I am not A Catskill woman recently knocked down the worst thing your locdship has com-

Spring is bursting upon us. You can tell