Our stock 98 per cent pure.
Beware of imitations.

We are not going to make comparisons, but in a general way to demonstrate our claims to the title of "The Other Store." We want to remind you of the stock of all stores. Take, for instance, the largest stock of dress goods in the city; go in to buy a dress; how much of the stock do you see? Perhaps you do not know exactly what you want, and have yet to make up your mind as to color. Don't you find that "the largest stock" dwindles down to a few pieces on the counter, out of which to make the selection? The point we want to make is this:—There is no stock of dress goods in the city whose proportion of saleable, seasonable goods is so large as ours is.

There was a gentleman in the store yesterday, one who is in a position to be posted; he said:—That is the best stock of dress goods in St. John.

We considered that a pretty strong statement, until we thought out the above; then its wildness vanished, and we think more of that gentleman's judgement than ever we did —— of course.

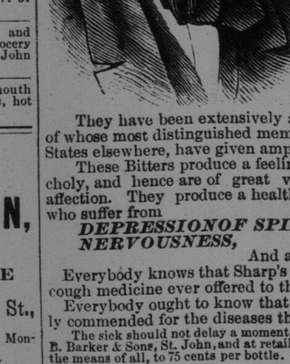
DR. SHARP'S ENGLISH TONIC BITTERS.



These well known and unrivalled BITTERS, prepared by a peculiar and elaborate Chemical process, from rare plants and herbs, and entirely free from all mineral, acid, and other noxious ingredients, have been found the most useful in Dyspepsia or indigestion, Diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, and Irritability of the Bowels.

In all cases of Debility; whether arising from illness, fatigue, or other causes, they prove eminently serviceable and afford incalculable benefit; and, being devoid of all spirituous and other injurious stimulants, may be given with happiest effects to young children, correcting in them the tendency to the generation of worms, and other Bowel complaints.

FOR FEMALES these Bitters are peculiarly suitable, giving tone and vigor to the system, and imparting new strength to the frame, which protracted nursing or other exhausting causes may have impaired.

They have been extensively and successfully used by the Medical Faculty, many of whose most distinguished members in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, the United States elsewhere, have given ample testimony in their favor.

These Bitters produce a feeling of buoyancy, removing depression or melancholy, and hence are of great value in the treatment of Mental and Nervous affection. They produce a healthy flow of the secretions, and should be used by all who suffer from

SECOND EDITION.

CRONIN'S MURDFR.

DEVOY SAYS HE IS MISREPRESENTED IN THE DESPATCHES, AND STATES HIS VIEWS.

Ex-President Ryan of the National League Thinks Starkey Knows more About the Killing than he Will Admit.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

NEW YORK, May 24.—In speaking of the murder of Dr. Cronin, John Devoy complained of being incorrectly reported in the despatches sent from New York, in which he was made to say Cronin was killed because of the disclosures he was about to make in connection with the national league funds.

"I never mentioned the national league in connection with Cronin. I have expressed my belief and I repeat it now that Cronin was murdered by Irish ruffians, who have brought disgrace on their race. I believe that Cronin's murder is the result of a conspiracy embracing only a few men who had him killed for purposes of private vengeance. I know that no Irish organization connected with the National movement decreed his death. I believe the honor of the Irish name in America is involved in the discovery and punishment of Cronin's murderers and if they are not punished the lives of other men will be sacrificed. I have also reason to believe that a portion of the Chicago police are in sympathy with the murderers and are endeavoring to screen them from punishment.

J.P. Ryan, Ex-President of the National League in this city has given some information which tends very strongly to confirm the statement made in the Chicago despatches to the effect that Starkey knows considerably more about the way Cronin was murdered than he would care to admit.

CHICAGO, May 24.— The News says: The possibility that the English government through its secret agents may have had something to do with the Cronin mystery is not being lost sight of. A well-posted Irish-American said yesterday "Scotland Yard has its fingers in every Irish pie. It would be queer indeed if the Cronin business proved the first exception. Who would have believed before-hand for a moment in the horrible truth about Pigott? Forgery and perjury! Absolutely no crime necessary was stopped at to destroy the Irish movement and to ruin Parnell. Who is the beneficiary in this Cronin business,—who is the loser? The chief gain immeasurably is to the tory government of England,—the main harm, far exceeding the disgrace of any individual, is to the Irish national movement in America. If the Irish movement could be ruined in America at such a crisis as the present would not the fiasco be retrieved and with a vengeance". Cronin for years boasted openly of possessing proof of rottenness in the Irish organizations and alleged misconduct by the ex-president. If anything happened to Cronin who delightsd to pose as a mighty antagonist of the Land League officials, what could be easier than to have it appear that the latter were responsible. A check to the Parnellites now, would be worth Heaven itself to the Tories. At this juncture snddenly stands revealed a horror and scandal, second to none in the history of politics. You can draw your own conclusions."

More Mystery.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

CHICAGO May 24.—A bloody towel similar to the one wrapped about Dr. Cronin's head was discovered by a reporter last night in the catch-basin where the body was found. Further groping revealed a single human finger so decomposed it was impossible to determine whether it was a man's or a woman's. The new find revived Woodruff's confession as to a woman's body. He said a woman's body had been cut up in small pieces and finding the finger is generally taken as a possible corroboration of the prisoner's strange story. An examination shows none of Cronin's fingers missing.

French Tariff Debate.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

PARIS, May 24.—The Herald's European edition to day publishes a long article on the debate on the budget in the chamber of Deputies. It says the debate is progressing without arousing mnch interest and is rather a prelude to an electoral campaign than a financial discussion, and those who take part in it are less elaborating a satisfactory budget bill for 1890 than they are to prepare an electoral platform for themselves with a view to the general elections next October.

The debate consists of little else than an exchange of recriminations, accusations and justifications between various political factions. The electoral question takes precedence of all others and this is why the left are painting the present situation in most attractive colors, and for the same reason the right are indulging in an exaggeration of pessimism.

VETERAN TRAGEDIAN HONORED.

James E. Murdoch's Farewell Appearance in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 24.—The last appearance on the Philadelphia stage of Mr. James E. Murdoch, the veteran tragedian, was tonight at the Academy of Music. The occasion was for his own benefit. Financially and artistically the benefit was a memorable success. The receipts were almost $3000. Mr. Murdoch made his first appearance in Kotzebue's old drama, so rarely seen in recent decades, "The Stranger." Mrs. D. P. Bowers played Mrs. Haller, Mr. Murdock received a prolonged and very friendly greeting on his first entrance, as did Mrs. Bowers on hers. When the curtain fell upon the fourth act, Mr. Murdock, in response to the most enthusiastic applause, stepped before it and addressed the audience. His brief speech was a most graceful and scholarly effort. He referred to his happiness at seeing the faces of grandfathers, fathers and sons and their wives smiling upon him. He related how, 60 years ago, with little preparation but much ambition, he had started from boyhood to win on the mimic stage the favor which had its culmination in the demonstration of that moment. He said that he had never in his life known any member of his profession to do him an unkind act, or to prove untrue to him. Three parts of "The school for Scandal" were then given, especially hearty demonstrations being given upon the appearances of Mrs. John Drew and Mr. Holland. Mr. Murdoch carried the youthful role of "Charles Surface" with excellent spirit.

A Princely Gift to Cornell.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

ITHICA, N. Y., May 24.—A reporter has learned that Henry W. Sage, a millionaire of this city, has made another magnificent bequest to Cornell University in the shape of a $300,000 endowment for the library.

It has also been ascertained that in the event of loss of the suit involving a large sum of money to the college, Mr. Sage will pay for the library building, which will cost over $200,000. He has given more than any other man to Cornell, and it is characteristic of him to keep his princely deeds secret.

What Actor Hubbel Saw.

NEW YORK, May 22.— Walter Hubbel, an actor, called at the coroner's office to-day and said that at the Lamb's club on the night that Bishop performed the trick that ended in his death, Louis Aldrich saw a physician take a paper from the effects found on Bishop's person, and that the physician immediately destroyed it. It is supposed to have been a paper requesting physicians, in case Bishop was seized with a cataleptic fit, not to perform an autopsy.

THE HOLIDAY.

HOW IT WAS OBSERVED IN ST. JOHN AND VICINITY.

The Lacrosse and Base Ball Matches.—Other Events.

The Queen's birthday was very quietly celebrated in St. John. Hundreds of people went out of town in search of amusement, and had it not been for the large number of strangers who came in on the trains, from different parts of the country, the day would have been unusually quiet. The principal events of the day in town were well attended. There were large crowds at the base ball, and lacrosse matches, all of which drew the people from the streets. The holiday was very generally observed.

A splendid display of bunting was made on the vessels in the harbor to-day and from every available flag staff in the city handsome flags waved in the breeze. The show of bunting made by R. C. Elkin's new three masted schooner "Francis" was especially fine and excited many remarks of admiration.

BASE BALL MATCH.

The first game of the season, on the St. John A. A. Club grounds, attracted a great crowd. The South Portlands are a good team, but St John is always ready to depend upon the old Nationals, and, as the sequel proved this morning, not without warrant. At the close of the ninth inning the home team stood 11, with the South Portlands 6. White and Kennedy proved an excellent battery for the Athletic club, while Brown and Dunning, and afterwards Brown and Webster, were all that could be desired for the visitors.

Small was unfortunate in his playing, and has a large number of errors attached to his name. Parsons and Rodgers played excellently and Parsons base running called both unbounded enthusiasm.

The home team appeared in their new uniforms, and considering the little practice they have had this season they played well together; a few well bunched hits added materially to their strength.

Just before the game was called, Mr. A. O. Skinner, president of the Athletic Club, stepped forward and presented Frank White with a handsome "white" silk cap, on behalf of a number of ladies who, in times past, have appreciated the merit of this popular shortstop, and who hope in the near future to appreciate him still more as one of the local battery.

At 10.45 exactly, Morton L. Harrison, the umpire, called "Play ball," and Whitenect faced the visitors. George flied to left field and was taken in by McGovern. Parsons followed with a grounder to second who quickly returned it to first. Out. Rodgers was retired in the same way. The South Portlands did better. McGovern gave Small a chance on third which was not taken, and followed with a one-base hit to right which Barker cleverly picked up, but too late. Griffin struck to Whitnect at short and reached first on an error. Tilton the third man hit to Small who failed to pick it up, while McGovern came home. Dunning flied to Small who accepted. Griffen stole third and Tilton second. Webster stuck to second and was thrown out on first, Griffen managing to score. Brown flied to Bell and the side went out, with Tilton on third. Score; South Portlands 2. Athletic Club 0.

Small was enthusiastically applauded as he stepped across the diamond. He felt so good that he flied to Oliver at second, and was out. White was hit with the ball and went to first, sliding around to second on the first ball. Bell couldn't get past the pitcher, but White slipped to third and came home on Kennedy's dandy to centre. Kennedy got to first and sailed to second while the visitors were looking at him. Holly gave first a grounder and left Kennedy on second. Three out. One, two, three. was the retiring order of the visitors Small fielded Spears' short hit to Bell; Oliver was struck out; Trefethen reached first on Whitenect's error, who redeemed himself by capturing McGovern's fly.

Score 2 to 1.

Third Inning.—Barker hit a daisy past second, stole second. Whitenect got a two bagger, Barker reaching third and scoring on Parsons' hit to right. Rogers flied to Oliver; Whitenect and Parsons scoring on wild pitches. Small fanned the air three times, but got there at first and scored on White's three bagger to left. Bell got out on a fly and White came home on a passed ball. Kennedy reached first and stole second and third. Holly was struck out. Side out.

Griffin got a base on balls, stole two, and crossed the plate on Tilton's grounder. Tilton, Dunning and Brown were retired. Score 3 to 6.

Fourth Inning: The visitors changed their catcher this inning Webster taking Dunning's place and Dunning Webster's at third. Barker was struck out. Whitenect hit with pitched ball took first, glided to second, and down to third on a wild pitch, sauntering home with Parsons' help. Parsons went down to second and afterwards to third on an error. Afterwards scoring on a passed ball. Rodgers reached his base on balls and in attempting to come home on Smalls' hit to right, got out of the line of bases and was declared out. White was given his base on balls but Bell couldn't reach first.

Spear reached first all right, was thrown out at second, Whitenect covering the bag from short. Oliver hit to White and was thrown out at first and Trefethen's goose was cooked in the same way. Scores 3 to 8.

Fifth inning: Kennedy and Barker were struck out; Holly was thrown out at first. Side out. McGovern took his base on balls, stole the others scored on Griffin's sacrifice to Small. White assisted Bell in disposing of Tilton. Dunning flied to Small who muffed it, but Rodgers accepted the same chance from Webster.

Sixth Inning:—Whitenect struck out; Parsons' hit one to second was fumbled and he reached first, stealing all he could and come home on a passed ball. Rodgers reached first on balls. Small fielded to first, and White failed to find the sphere. Side retired with Rodgers on third. Brown made a base hit, Spear was thrown out, and Oliver flied to left which Barker snapped at. Score 4 to 9.

Seventh inning: Bell fouled to Dunning at third who got him; Kennedy fouled to Webster behind the bat who held him, and Holly was fielded out at first.

McGovern hit to White who threw him out at first. Griffin made a safe base and stole second. Tilton was thrown out by Small to Bell, and Dunning shouldered the willow. The ball hit the umpire and Griffin came home. Dunning however, did hit not the ball and never reached first. Score 5 to 9.

Barker fanned the air but reached first in safety. Whitenect hit to short who fielded to second and Barker was out. Whitenect crossed the plate after stealing two bases on Parson's hit to short. Parsons came home on Rodger's hit, but Rodgers was retired trying to steal third. Small got first as did White on Dunning's error. Bell failed to hit and was thrown out by Webster. Two men on bases.

Webster hit a daisy to second and managed to score in the course of the inning. Brown flied to Holly. Spear struck to centre and sat down on the first bag. Oliver hit to White, who fielded to third, putting out Spear, who had reached that position with much labor. Trefethen was taken care of by Kennedy.

Ninth inning: Kennedy got to first but got left trying to steal second. Holly missed the ball again, and Barker got only as far as the pitcher.

McGovern was thrown out by Kennedy, Grffien by Small and Tilton by Kennedy.

THE PARNELL COMMISSION.

Extraordinary Evidence of Mr. O'Brien M. P.

LONDON, May 23.—The cross examination of William O'Brien was continued by Attorney General Webster. O'Brien declared that United Ireland, his paper worked according to constitutional methods and advocated nothing but peaceful means to attain the end sought by the Irish parlimentary party. He admitted writing an article which had been printed in United Ireland in which it was stated that Queen Victoria was only known in Ireland by her scarcely decently disguised hatred of Ireland and by her inordinate salary. He also admitted having written another article declaring that Earl Spencer would be the last strong Englishman who would attempt to rule Ireland by barbarism, paid perjury, butchery and the use of sacred rope.

O'Brien admitted the authorship of an article declaring that the chairman of the committee selected to receive the Prince of Wales on the occasion of his visit to Ireland would be hunted from public life. At this point O'Brien became excited, and vehemently exclaimed: "He has been. Rather than to allow Englishmen to be deceived by a show of sham loyalty I am resolved to tell them the truth." O'Brien said personally he had never spoken disrespectfully about the Prince of Wales. No people he declared ever suffered more for loyalty than Irishmen; none profited more by protestations of loyalty than the people who oppressed them. It was clear that England would not satisfy the aspirations of Ireland, and if there was any rational chance of success an attempt should be made to rebel. He declared the London papers more responsible for the actions of the dynamite party than Finerty or Ford. But for the views those papers expressed £1,000 would not have been collected in America for the dynamiters. Referring to the articles concerning the Queen and Prince of Wales, previously mentioned in his testimony. O'Brien said they were justified at the time they were written, but not justified in the present state of relations between England and Ireland. The articles were not intended to calm the people's objections to British rule then administered. He thought British rule hateful. The Parnellites when the visit of the Prince of Wales was under discussion passed a resolution advising the people that the visit, for party purposes, should not be made an occasion for trouble. O'Brien justified the articles written by him, and printed in United Ireland to illustrate the brutal argument, that because the English people numbered 30,000,000 and the Irish people 4,000,000, the English were entitled to do as they liked.

Attorney General Webster quoted from an article in United Ireland headed "Allen, Larkin and O'Brien honored by Chicago kindred," and asked witness whether it referred to the Manchester murderers.

O'Brien replied: "Not murderers, but men engaged in open warfare who shot policemen by accident."

Attorney General—Was shooting at the police in the van at Manchester legitimate warfare?

O'Brien—Not criminal. Men who openly take risks to release their comrades are no more murderers than anybody here. They acted from the highest and noblest motives.

President Justice Hannen said he understood O'Brien did not consider the shooting at Manchester murder, but he wished to remind him the court did so regard it.

O'Brien's testimony was concluded.

Black Eye For Evolution.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 22.—The doctrine of evolution got another black eye in the Southern Presbyterian assembly today, the gathering voting—113 to 31—to disapprove the action of the South Carolina synod, which condemned the Charleston presbytery for forbidding the public contending against the decision of the Baltimore assembly in regard to Dr. Wosdrow, and upheld the Charleston presbytery.

In a Three Tonner.

Capt. Joshua Slocum with his wife, and 2 children arrived at New York, last Saturday, after a voyage of 7,000 miles from Brazil in the three-ton-boat "Liberdad". He started from Parapagua, Brazil, June 24th, 1888, and encountered many severe storms, which his little boat weathered like a dauntless sea-bird.

"I AM NOT DEAD!"

Exclaimed a Young Lady an Hour Before the Time Set for Her Burial.

BOSTON, May 23.—"I am not dead!"

This was the murmured exclamation which came today from the lips of Miss Kate Patten, the pretty young daughter of Enos Patten, of No. 14, Oak Grove terrace.

Sure enough, Miss Patten was not dead though if she hadn't said so herself just then an undertaker would have been at work on her in the course of an hour.

She had been sick since Thursday. The family physician said her disease was diphtheria, and a colleague whom he had called in agreed with him. Both had pronounced life extinct and were turning to leave the room when they were startled by the voice from the bed.

They returned, and the fair sufferer was made as comfortable as possible and the physicians took their leave for the night.

A few hours later they were again summoned to her bedside and she was again pronounced dead. This time there could be no mistake. The heart was silent, the jaw had fallen and there could be no rallying.

But contrary, however, to the expectation of the doctors, and without any assistance from them (for they considered it entirely useless), Miss Patten an hour later completely revived and emerged from her trance-like sleep as before, only in a more pronounced manner. She became talkative and showed every desire to tarry in this world a while longer.

Miss Patten had charge before her illness of the restaurant in the Park square railroad station, and if no unfavorable symptoms appear she will probably be back at work before many days.

CANADIAN PACIFIC REQUEST.

Wants to Have Equal Bonding Privileges with American Roads.

[Special despatch to the Boston Herald.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 22.—The Canadian Pacific has applied to be placed on an equality with American railroads in respect of bonding privileges. Assistant Secretary Tichenor had received it in due course, and had referred it for an opinion on the law points involved, to the solicitor of the treasury. The latter said he was now considering the law questions. About all he had found up to date, was that the present bonding privileges enjoyed by the Canadian railroads depended entirely on treasury regulations, the transportation in bond clause of the treaty of Washington having been abrogated. The matter will be carefully investigated.

Assistant Secretary Tichenor and Solicitor Hepburn say that Secretary Blaine would not be interviewed about it. Assistant Secretary Wharton will not return from Boston till to-morrow.

GIFT TO MRS. GLADSTONE.

Mr. Parnell Makes an Address at the Presentation.

LONDON, May 22.—Mrs. Gladstone was today presented by the Women's Liberal Federation with a diamond brooch containing a minature of of Mr. Gladstone copied from Millais' portrait. Mr. Parnell and a large number of members of the House of Commons were present. Mr. Parnell spoke of the happy change of feeling between England and Ireland, and said that the Irish party accepted Mr. Gladstone's platform without ulterior objects. That platform, he said, would enable them to build up Ireland as a nation without danger to the empire. Mr. Gladstone, in reply, referred to his wife as the greatest gift he had received at the hands of Providence. He said that the generous estimate of his services by his countrymen had been mixed with some censure, but it was better to lose praise than to lose the bracing discipline resulting from free public criticism.
