St. Petersburg, Dec. 4, via Eydthulmen, Dec. 5.-Although there appears to be no foundation for the prevailing fears that an outbreak is imminent, the population continues in a state of anxious suspense. The garrison has now been reinforced by forty-two battalions of infantry, fifteen squadr of cavalry and twelve machine gun batteries. an Improvement Compared With Last Year.

Ottawa, Dec. 6.-Premier McBride and Hon. R. G. Tatlow had really no business with the government. The ostensible object of their trip to the East was to discuss some fisheries first thing he had been told on arrival question, but with the minister of marine and fisheries away and a fishery commission taking evidence on every phase of the industry in British ome interesting experiences from his Columbia, no more inappropriate time could have been chosen to come to Ottawa on such a mission. But that was not their real mission. They came not to see Ottawa, ministers, but Montreal and Toronto railway magnates, and now that they have gone through the pretence of interviewing Deputy-Minister Gowdeau and one or two minor officials, they have betaken themselves to Montreal, where they have been consultation with the C. Mr. Eldredge declared that Hoffecker was not dismissed until he had demanded an increase in salary from $35 to $100 a week, and practically had said it was safer for the company to keep him than to let him go, in view of what he knew about the company.

Another instance of a "hold up," said Mr. Eldredge, was in 1890, when Max Behler, a so-called "examiner" of the insurance department in Iowa came to New York with his son as an assistant, examined the Mutual Reserve ears old, committed suicide last even- Life Company and presented to it a bill for $489 for the examination. Mr. Eldredge told the commissio that he is certain there is no truth in investigating committee by James that he had raised $40,000 to pay to the New York insurance department in 1899 when Louis F. Payne was superintendent of insurance.
