St. Andrews, Feb. 10.—Mrs. Ralph Cookson, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed residents of Bay Side, parish of St. Croix, died on Sunday evening after a protracted illness, which she bore with great fortitude, and in humble submission to the will of God, whom she had served for many years, in health as well as in sickness. She had attained the patriarchal age of eighty-one years. She was the mother of a family of twelve children, seven boys and five girls, of whom only four survive, a son, Edward, residing in California; Mrs. John Neville of Los Gatos, California; Mrs. Hans Johnson of Chamcook, and Abbie, unmarried, who lived with her mother, and who, with Mrs. Johnson, cared for her in her last illness. The ice gatherers are at work on Chamcook lake, where the crop is unusually good, averaging twenty odd inches thick. About a thousand tons will be hauled in town. The Algonquin is taking 200 tons, and Kennedy's hotel 150 tons. Teams are hauling ice to Sir W. VanHorn's ice house on Minister's Island.

The groom, Mr. Delaney, who looked every inch a bridegroom, was ably supported by Wm. O'Keefe, and the bride, Miss Bowdoin, was attended by Miss May Kelly as bridesmaid. A wedding breakfast was served at the groom's home, Richmond road, where Mr. and Mrs. Delaney will reside. A very successful concert was given in Moncton hall, Monday night, in aid of the Y. M. C. A. The funeral of the late John McLean, who died on the 9th inst., was quite largely attended. The services were under the auspices of the Odd-fellows, who attended in regalia. The deceased was a son of the late Charles McLean, and was in his 23rd year. Consumption was the cause of his death. He leaves a widow and was married only about a year ago. Chatham's new board of street and fire commissioners deserve to be congratulated on their prompt action in clearing the business parts of the town after the late storm, and plowing out the rest of the streets throughout the town.

KENT CO.

Richibucto, Feb. 8.—The smelt fishermen on the main channel sent a petition to the minister of marine asking that the fishing season, which closes on the fifteenth inst., be extended to the close of the month on account of the river not having closed until after the new year. Summit, Feb. 13.—Rev. Father W. C. Gaynor, who has been stationed in Sussex for more than two years past, and who has been transferred to the charge of St. John the Baptist Catholic church, Broad street, St. John, left here this evening. Your correspondent feels that he would be very remiss in his duty if he did not have a good word for Rev. Father Gaynor, who by his pleasant and cheerful manner has succeeded in gaining the good-will of the people of Sussex and adjacent parishes, who wish him every success in his new sphere. Rev. E. Savage, who is to take charge of St. John the Baptist church in Sussex, arrived this evening.

Preparations are being made for the coming of Rev. Mr. Gale, the evangelist, expected about 1st of March next. In answer to the inquiries, it will be held in the Baptist church on Church avenue. A temporary gallery is to be put in the church to accommodate the many expected to attend these meetings.

ALBERT CO.

Hopewell Hill, Feb. 8.—The Hopewell and Hawley district Sunday school convention, which met at New Horton on Friday, was well attended, and the exercises were of more than ordinary interest. ## CARLETON CO.

Newburg Junction, Feb. 8.—Mrs. N. R. Brown is confined to her house with a cold. The doctor is attending.

The two year old daughter of John McGuire died of croup last week.

Woodstock, Feb. 10.—Your correspondent met a Carleton county farmer who now lives in Arrostook county, in yesterday. He said that the latter county was practically bankrupt. There is no demand whatever for potatoes. A few were sold in Port Fairfield the other day for 30 cents a barrel. This informant says that the potatoes were the finest of Hebron. The ordinary Arrostook farmer is in a hard way; he has no market for his potatoes, and his credit is not good enough to provide fertilizer for his use another year.

There is a good market for oats in Arrostook, the buyers paying a cent a pound, and hay is worth $12 a ton in the barn. Good cows are also saleable at excellent prices, but the trouble is that the Arrostook farmer has, as a rule, nothing to sell but potatoes.

The funeral of the late Joseph York took place on Friday. The remains were buried in the old cemetery. The deceased was a highly esteemed farmer. His death was extremely sudden. On the evening of the 4th he went to bed as usual, and was found dead in the morning. His eyes were closed, and there was no sign of life. He was 68 years of age, and had enjoyed more than ordinary health.
