

BOY MAILED BY FEROCIOUS DOG

Albert Tucker of Hope-well Hill, Victim of Fierce Attack From Bulldog Yesterday.

Infuriated Animal Worried Child for Half An Hour—Flesh Stripped From Legs.

Special to The Standard.
Albert, May 3.—At the mercy of an enraged bulldog for half an hour this morning, little Albert Tucker, the 12-year-old son of John Tucker, of Hopewell Hill, was bitten, torn and mangled almost beyond recognition. Had it not been for the fact that the ferocious animal directed his attack chiefly to the child's legs, the latter would not be alive tonight. As it is the little fellow is lying at his father's home in a precarious condition with the flesh stripped from his limbs and bitten in dozens of places. Dr. Cartwright is in close attendance. Early this morning the boy's parents left home to drive to Brookville some ten miles away. There are four children and the eldest two were out during the day leaving Albert alone with his fourteen-year-old sister. In their innocent play the children in some way aroused the anger of the brute and he sprang at the boy like a tiger bearing him to the earth. Too terrified to run for assistance, helplessly he lay on the ground, the animal tearing over him and the ground was one mass of blood where the child lay. Then the other sister arrived and with much difficulty she drove away the bulldog from her brother. Unfortunately both of the local doctors happened to be away from home and did not arrive two hours before medical assistance could be secured. Dr. J. T. Lewis, of Hillsboro, who was passing was then called and dressed the wounds of the youthful sufferer. When the elder brother returned home the bulldog was immediately shot.

PAVED STREETS FOR CAPITAL

Fredericton Aldermen Not Satisfied With Hassam Pavement and Committee Will Investigate.

Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, N. B., May 3.—The city council held their regular meeting this evening. Peter Farrell was appointed member of the local board of health in succession to his father, the late James Farrell. J. D. Phinney, K. C., presented a bill to the council for $500.00 which was claimed for professional services rendered the city in 1908.

MARK TWAIN ESTATE VALUED AT $100,000

Redding, Conn., May 3.—By the will of Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain) filed for probate today, the entire estate is left to Clara Langdon Clemens, wife of Oseip Gabrielowitch. The home, Stormfield, is valued at $200,000 and there is thought to be about $150,000 on deposit in banks. No estimate has been made of the literary assets but they will be gone over by the trustees of the will later in the week.

LAURIER FAILS TO EXPLAIN SHARE OF CONTRACTORS IN FIELDING'S TESTIMONIAL

Liberals Greatly Embarrassed When Matter was Brought up in House Yesterday by Mr. Boyce of Alogma—Premier Reveals That He Had Not Seen Subscription List and Denies That Dominion Coal Company was a Contributor.

In Direct Opposition to Resolution Introduced by Sir Richard Cartwright in 1891—Standard Correspondent Learns that Gifts from Corporation were Made in Names of Directors—McKenzie and Mann and Sir Edward Clouston on List.

Special to The Standard.
Ottawa, May 3.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier this afternoon absolutely refused to make public the list of subscribers to Mr. Fielding's $120,000. He denied positively that the Bank of Montreal had paid $25,000 to the fund. He said that a member of the committee which had collected the money from the Bank of Montreal, Mr. D. Mann, of the Canadian Northern Railway, had not collected the money from the Bank of Montreal, but that the Dominion Iron and Steel Co. had not subscribed. It had been stipulated that no contractor, no government official and no person having anything to do with the government should contribute. Without Sir Wilfrid Laurier admitting it, he made out that he has not seen the list.

INDU UNDER ARREST FOR ABDUCTION

New York Police In Raiding Mystic Temple Of "Om" Come Upon Strange Sight—$100 Fee.

New York, May 3.—It was a strange story which detective Callahan told in police court today in describing the raid last night on the mystic temple of "Om," a young man who is entered on the police records as Pierre A. Bernard, a native of India. Bernard was arraigned on the charge of abduction, after the detectives had found him in his luxuriously appointed house, where he taught physical culture and languages, surrounded by a number of pupils, most of them young women. Some of his girl pupils said Bernard represented himself as a "Swami" from India. Miss Zelia Hopp, a 19-year-old milliner, who had been one of Bernard's "students," told the police how she got into the place.

TWO STEAMERS IN COLLISION

Providence, R. I., May 3.—A collision of two steamers at sea was reported to the Point Judith life saving station shortly after midnight, but the source of the message could not be learned. The message asked that the tug Tascos be sent to the scene. One of the steamers names was given as the Santuree. It was rumored that one of the vessels was taking passengers from the other boat.

BOY MAILED BY FEROCIOUS DOG

Albert Tucker of Hope-well Hill, Victim of Fierce Attack From Bulldog Yesterday.

Infuriated Animal Worried Child for Half An Hour—Flesh Stripped From Legs.

Special to The Standard.
Albert, May 3.—At the mercy of an enraged bulldog for half an hour this morning, little Albert Tucker, the 12-year-old son of John Tucker, of Hopewell Hill, was bitten, torn and mangled almost beyond recognition. Had it not been for the fact that the ferocious animal directed his attack chiefly to the child's legs, the latter would not be alive tonight. As it is the little fellow is lying at his father's home in a precarious condition with the flesh stripped from his limbs and bitten in dozens of places. Dr. Cartwright is in close attendance. Early this morning the boy's parents left home to drive to Brookville some ten miles away. There are four children and the eldest two were out during the day leaving Albert alone with his fourteen-year-old sister. In their innocent play the children in some way aroused the anger of the brute and he sprang at the boy like a tiger bearing him to the earth. Too terrified to run for assistance, helplessly he lay on the ground, the animal tearing over him and the ground was one mass of blood where the child lay. Then the other sister arrived and with much difficulty she drove away the bulldog from her brother. Unfortunately both of the local doctors happened to be away from home and did not arrive two hours before medical assistance could be secured. Dr. J. T. Lewis, of Hillsboro, who was passing was then called and dressed the wounds of the youthful sufferer. When the elder brother returned home the bulldog was immediately shot.

PAVED STREETS FOR CAPITAL

Fredericton Aldermen Not Satisfied With Hassam Pavement and Committee Will Investigate.

Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, N. B., May 3.—The city council held their regular meeting this evening. Peter Farrell was appointed member of the local board of health in succession to his father, the late James Farrell. J. D. Phinney, K. C., presented a bill to the council for $500.00 which was claimed for professional services rendered the city in 1908.

MARK TWAIN ESTATE VALUED AT $100,000

Redding, Conn., May 3.—By the will of Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain) filed for probate today, the entire estate is left to Clara Langdon Clemens, wife of Oseip Gabrielowitch. The home, Stormfield, is valued at $200,000 and there is thought to be about $150,000 on deposit in banks. No estimate has been made of the literary assets but they will be gone over by the trustees of the will later in the week.

BOY MAILED BY FEROCIOUS DOG

Albert Tucker of Hope-well Hill, Victim of Fierce Attack From Bulldog Yesterday.

Infuriated Animal Worried Child for Half An Hour—Flesh Stripped From Legs.

Special to The Standard.
Albert, May 3.—At the mercy of an enraged bulldog for half an hour this morning, little Albert Tucker, the 12-year-old son of John Tucker, of Hopewell Hill, was bitten, torn and mangled almost beyond recognition. Had it not been for the fact that the ferocious animal directed his attack chiefly to the child's legs, the latter would not be alive tonight. As it is the little fellow is lying at his father's home in a precarious condition with the flesh stripped from his limbs and bitten in dozens of places. Dr. Cartwright is in close attendance. Early this morning the boy's parents left home to drive to Brookville some ten miles away. There are four children and the eldest two were out during the day leaving Albert alone with his fourteen-year-old sister. In their innocent play the children in some way aroused the anger of the brute and he sprang at the boy like a tiger bearing him to the earth. Too terrified to run for assistance, helplessly he lay on the ground, the animal tearing over him and the ground was one mass of blood where the child lay. Then the other sister arrived and with much difficulty she drove away the bulldog from her brother. Unfortunately both of the local doctors happened to be away from home and did not arrive two hours before medical assistance could be secured. Dr. J. T. Lewis, of Hillsboro, who was passing was then called and dressed the wounds of the youthful sufferer. When the elder brother returned home the bulldog was immediately shot.

PAVED STREETS FOR CAPITAL

Fredericton Aldermen Not Satisfied With Hassam Pavement and Committee Will Investigate.

Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, N. B., May 3.—The city council held their regular meeting this evening. Peter Farrell was appointed member of the local board of health in succession to his father, the late James Farrell. J. D. Phinney, K. C., presented a bill to the council for $500.00 which was claimed for professional services rendered the city in 1908.

MARK TWAIN ESTATE VALUED AT $100,000

Redding, Conn., May 3.—By the will of Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain) filed for probate today, the entire estate is left to Clara Langdon Clemens, wife of Oseip Gabrielowitch. The home, Stormfield, is valued at $200,000 and there is thought to be about $150,000 on deposit in banks. No estimate has been made of the literary assets but they will be gone over by the trustees of the will later in the week.