

THE WEATHER

Toronto, June 11.—An important disturbance is developing over the Lower St. Lawrence Valley. Pressure is low over Alberta and New Mexico, and relatively high over the central and southeastern states. Since Saturday has been unsettled over Eastern Canada, moderate to heavy rain falls are reported in most districts. Weather has been fair and warm in the west.

St. John	54
Prince Rupert	49
Vancouver	45
Calgary	42
Edmonton	50
Prince Albert	38
Medicine Hat	44
Winnipeg	45
London	50
Toronto	61
Kingston	62
Ottawa	60
Montreal	62
Quebec	62
Halifax	44

Maritime Forecast
Strong winds or gales, shifting to southwest and northwest, unsettled and showery.

Northern New England—Fair Monday and Tuesday, rising temperature Tuesday, fresh westerly winds.

AROUND THE CITY

ON CATHEDRAL STAFF
Rev. Wm. D. Duke, who has been spending his vacation at his home here, has entered on his duties as a curate on the Cathedral staff. He was ordained on May 1.

CITY SENIOR LEAGUE
The Wolves and the Commercial will play on the East End Grounds tonight at 7 o'clock. The trophies will be: Wolves, Stirring and Tansman, Commemorative, Kerr and Cox.

THEIR FIRST COMMUNION
At the Cathedral Saturday morning, Rev. Wm. D. Duke, P.P., celebrated Mass at 8 o'clock. During the service 150 children of the parishioners made their First Communion.

AUTOMOBILE DAMAGED
An automobile driven by Charles Cromwell and street car collided on the corner of Sydney and Britain Streets Saturday night. The auto was badly damaged and was towed to the garage for repairs.

PRESENTATION TO MEMBERS
The last meeting of the session of St. David's Church with Rev. J. A. MacKeigan as moderator, was held last evening after the close of the service. After the business had been concluded, Rev. Mr. MacKeigan presented one of the most successful years in its history. In addition to the usual exercises of a religious nature, a special programme of music and elocutionary numbers was carried forward under the direction of H. W. Broomefield, which proved most enjoyable and inspiring to the large congregation present.

HERE FROM PARIS
Among those to arrive in the city on Saturday was Rev. W. J. Bodeney of Paris, France, who has been sent out by the Vatican at Rome, as a missionary to the Ukrainians in the Catholic Patriarchal Armenian Republic. He spent the weekend in the city and will leave this afternoon for Halifax prior to making the journey to South America.

THE LAST WARNING
Mayer Molellan last evening asked The Standard to again call the attention of the public to the request that when band concerts are being given, while the band was playing, they refrain from driving round the King Square and blowing their horns, as this interferes with the pleasure of those who went there for the purpose of hearing the music. This, he said, was the last request, and if that would not stop the bands voluntarily, steps would be taken to force them to do so.

BAND CONCERT TONIGHT
The St. Mary's Band, under direction of Bandmaster Williams, will play the following programme on Sunday evening:

- March—Washington Greys—Grenadiers Overture—Nebrodoros—Cleopatra.
- Waltz—Castles in the Air—Bellissima.
- Dance—Gioia—Pitchover.
- Waltz—Florodora—Kleen.
- March—Presto—Dover.
- God Save the King.

PRESENTATION TO POPULAR PASTOR
Rev. J. A. MacKeigan Was Remembered by St. David's Choir and Sunday School.

Two presentations were made to Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, yesterday, one by the Sunday School, and the other by the choir of the church. In the afternoon, at the close of the Sunday School session Robert Reid, superintendent, on behalf of the teachers, offered a small token of appreciation to Mr. MacKeigan, and a handsome gold "Presentation" pencil suitably engraved.

At the evening service, Edward Currie, organist and choirmaster, on behalf of the choir, presented Mr. MacKeigan with a silk umbrella. Mr. MacKeigan made suitable replies, thanking the choir for the fine work, and words which he hoped would be treasured as souvenirs, of many happy days in St. David's.

A. F. Bentley Was Elected In County

Defeated Dr. J. H. Barton by Majority of 271—About Half of Eligible List Voted.

A. F. Bennett of St. Martins was the successful candidate in the by-election, held on Saturday to choose a successor to Hon. J. D. M. Barton, M.P., for the Central Legislative Association, receiving 271 more votes than his opponent Dr. J. H. Barton. This gives the present government one more supporter in the House, and the Opposition one less.

Dr. Barton put up a hard fight and made many friends by the clear campaign which he conducted and his pleasant manner. Saturday evening, after the result of the poll had been announced, Dr. Barton expressed his appreciation of the work which had been done in his behalf, by the friends of the Opposition and him, thanks to those who had voted for him.

The vote cast was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

Doctor Barton had a majority in Beaconsfield, Salmon River, Hartland, West St. John and Chignecto. However Mr. Bentley leading in the other parts of the county. The banner poll for Dr. Barton was Hardingeville, where he received 23 to 8 for Mr. Bentley. Following is the tabulated result:

	Barton	Bentley
St. Martins	290	522
Salmon River	30	50
Hartingeville	32	8
Simonds
East St. John	281	317
Glen Falls	155	177
Black River	56	44
Loch Lomond	78	75
Lancaster
Furby	376	540
Forrestville	55	73
Beaconsfield	401	203
Milford	96	188
Musquash
Dipper Harbor	31	58
Chance Harbor	22	18
Musquash	17	36
	1780	2051

Celebrated The 94th Anniversary

Special Programme of Musical and Elocutionary Numbers Carried Through in Portland Methodist Church

The services at the Portland Street Methodist Church, last evening, partook of a special nature, the occasion being the ninety-fourth anniversary of the Portland Methodist Sunday School, which has completed one of the most successful years in its history. In addition to the usual exercises of a religious nature, a special programme of musical and elocutionary numbers was carried through under the direction of H. W. Broomefield, which proved most enjoyable and inspiring to the large congregation present.

THE LAST WARNING
Mayer Molellan last evening asked The Standard to again call the attention of the public to the request that when band concerts are being given, while the band was playing, they refrain from driving round the King Square and blowing their horns, as this interferes with the pleasure of those who went there for the purpose of hearing the music. This, he said, was the last request, and if that would not stop the bands voluntarily, steps would be taken to force them to do so.

BAND CONCERT TONIGHT
The St. Mary's Band, under direction of Bandmaster Williams, will play the following programme on Sunday evening:

March—Washington Greys—Grenadiers Overture—Nebrodoros—Cleopatra.

Waltz—Castles in the Air—Bellissima.

Dance—Gioia—Pitchover.

Waltz—Florodora—Kleen.

March—Presto—Dover.

God Save the King.

PRESENTATION TO POPULAR PASTOR
Rev. J. A. MacKeigan Was Remembered by St. David's Choir and Sunday School.

Two presentations were made to Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, yesterday, one by the choir of the church, and the other by the choir of the Sunday School, on behalf of the teachers, etc., for the services rendered to Mr. MacKeigan, and a handsome gold "Presentation" pencil suitably engraved.

At the evening service, Edward Currie, organist and choirmaster, on behalf of the choir, presented Mr. MacKeigan with a silk umbrella. Mr. MacKeigan made suitable replies, thanking the choir for the fine work, and words which he hoped would be treasured as souvenirs, of many happy days in St. David's.

At the weather forecast, Mr. MacKeigan was defeated by Dr. J. H. Barton by Majority of 271—About Half of Eligible List Voted.

Many Interested In Chinese Parade

Headed by St. Mary's Band, Local Chinamen Parade to Central Baptist Church.

There was probably never an occasion in the history of the city when a street parade was witnessed with as much interest, as when the newly formed local branch of the Chinese National Association formed up at the Central Baptist Church at Queen & George Streets, and marched down the street yesterday afternoon and headed by the St. Mary's Band, marched in a body to the Central Baptist Church.

The procession started shortly after 3:30 o'clock, marching by way of Queen Street, down the side of the hill and up Leinster Street to the church. There were still Chinamen walking in twos following the band. The front ranks were dressed in the conventional frock coats and silk hats, these were the older and more prominent men of the Association.

The march was just over half the distance between the two hills, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The vote cast was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.

The march was just over half the number of eligible voters, about 7,000 and the number exercising their franchise being a few over 3,800. Considering the size of the vote polled there was a large percentage of spoiled ballots, in two divisions there being 20 rejected, 10 in each.