Writs for the Ministerial Elections in Ontario were issued to-day. The date of the elections is not known.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of Liberal Conservatives was held last night for the purpose of organization. Hon. James Skeal was chosen President. Vice-Presidents were chosen from each ward in the city, and Ward Committees were appointed. Nearly two hundred new members joined the Association, which will give a torchlight procession and a grand banquet to the late Ministry to-morrow night.

Central Association here will ask the co-operation of theleading cities in forming Liberal Conservative Associations throughout the Dominion.

Political matters are exceedingly dull since the departure of the Ministers.

Yesterday afternoon he was at Reed's TEA BISCUITS Boint and took occasion to enter Mr. Finnegan's liquor store, while the proprietor stepped out for a moment to ook at a bark coming up the harbor. While there he quietly appropriated to self a bottle of brandy and carried it behind the store. He was observed by some parties, who told Mr. Finnegan and the bottle was found where he had placed it until a convenient opportunity would occur for him to carry it away. Last night he stopped at Mr. Hyde' boarding house, and when leaving this morning took an overcoat belonging to Mr. Tufts. Mr. Tufts described the overcoat to the police, and this morning they saw the bold agent, or carpet-bagger, promenading Brittain & reet, wearing the olen coat. When he saw the police he thought it best to move in another direction, but they gave chase, caught him A Tale of the Conquest of Mexico. By Major-General Lew. Wallace. 300 bxs.
